Fields May be in California.

Janitor and Butler of the Mutual's Albany House to Give Testimony.

Interesting Vouchers Found Charged to "Traveling Expenses," Etc.

Payments of Money for Corrupt Purposes Laid to Another Company.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Since William M. Carpenter revealed the secrets of the Mutual Life Insurance Company's Albany mission, last Wednesday, other interesting vouchers have been discovered which Carpenter probably will be called upon to explain, when the investigating committee meets next week. Several have been found changed to "traveling expenses," which are receipted by Mulaney, the janitor or caretaker of the Madison Avenue house in Albany, over which Andrew C. Fields was the presiding genius.

Others, charged to traveling expenses, are signed by a man named Butler. It is more than likely that during the coming week, both the janitor and the butler may be summoned from Albany to tell what they know of the secrets of Field's Albany retreat, which he shared with two members of the Legislature, both members of the insurance committees.

Agents of the Armstrong committee, who are carefully following the trial of Andrew C. Fields, are satisfied now that despite his physician's affidavit to the effect that he advised a California trip for his patient as long ago as last April, Fields, when he rented a house in Kingston, N. Y., which was his abode until October 1, intended to occupy that residence throughout the autumn, and had so expressed himself to some of his neighbors.

It was about three weeks ago that Fields's name began to be conspicuously connected with the Albany scandal. His plans appear to have been changed at about the same time. Whether he is now actually in Southern California the committee has not determined.

FOR CORRUPT PURPOSES.
MONEY IN MINNESOTA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PAUL, Oct. 20.—In the investigation by the grand jury of the old officers of the Northwestern Life Insurance Company of Minneapolis, payments of money have come to light, it is said, for corrupt purposes.

Testimony already placed before the grand jury involves two former State officials, the alleged payment in a room at the Ryan Hotel of a $5000 check for the suppression of a report exposing the condition of the company and voluntary contributions of $1000 each to the two Democratic and Republican State Central Committees.

Another State official is charged with receiving $300 in instalments of $150 each for Sunday work done in a clerical capacity. As to the campaign contributions, they are said to be vouched for in a confession made by one of the old officers, but its receipt is denied in the case of the Democrats.

The Northwestern Life Insurance Company, as reorganized, is not concerned in this investigation.

CHINA STILL CORRUPT.

Granaries of Government Burned to Conceal Peculations of Dishonest Peking Officials.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PEKING, Oct. 21.—Notwithstanding its reform policy, China continues to exhibit evidence of official corruption. The imperial granaries, supplying thousands of government dependents at Peking, have burned down just before the time for the winter distribution of rice.

Superintendents Kuei and Liu have appealed to the throne that they be punished because of their inability to detect the peculations of subordinates.

GREAT STEAMER AMERIKA.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Displacing 1000 tons more water than any other craft afloat, the steamer Amerika of the Hamburg-American Line, arrived here today on her maiden voyage across the Atlantic. Despite her displacement of 41,000 tons, the Amerika is not the biggest steamship in the world, as the steamer Baltic of the White Star Line is both longer and wider, and of greater tonnage than the new liner. The Amerika is, however, deeper than the Baltic. The new steamer has a length of 690 feet; a breadth of 74 feet, and a depth of 53 feet.

SNAPP'S "PULL" FAILS.

Congressman Fails to Land John Ryan on the Iroquois Theater Jury.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The "pull" of Congressman Howard Snapp, today, failed to land John Ryan, former fire marshal of Joliet, on the Federal jury which is trying damage suits against the Iroquois Theater Company.

The regular panel has been exhausted, and Marshal Ames has been compelled to summon prospective jurors from the street. Ryan told Judge Landis that he gave a letter to the Marshal from Congressman Snapp, asking that he be put on a jury. Ryan had been accepted by the counsel for the defense, when Attorney Charles Spencer, for the prosecution, took up the examination.

"How do you happen to be summoned as a juror?" asked Attorney Spencer.

"I was in the Marshal's office at the time."

"How did you happen to be there?"

"I went to see the Marshal. I had a letter to him from Joliet," said Ryan.

"What was contained in the letter?"

"That I should be made a juror."

"Whom was it from?"

"Congressman Snapp of Joliet."

Ryan was not accepted.

ASPHALT COIN FOR THE REBELS.

AVERY D. ANDREWS ADMITS PAYING TOTAL OF $130,000.

He Declares Matos's Revolutionaries Extorted the Money and the Company Needed Protection—He Denies Gen. Greene's Statement of Aid from Washington Government.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Avery D. Andrews, former police commissioner and vice-president of the National Asphalt Company, was the principal witness examined before United States Commissioner Gilchrist, yesterday, in the Venezuelan asphalt hearing, in which the Venezuelan government seeks to recover from the New York and Bermudez Company $11,000,000 because of the latter company's alleged participation in the Matos revolution in that country in 1901.

At the hearing, Tuesday, Gen. Francis V. Greene, former president of the National Company, testified that Gen. Andrews, Frank W. Mack and Arthur W. Sewall had informed him they had decided to support the Matos revolution, and had advanced $100,000 to Gen. Matos. Gen. Andrews, yesterday, admitted not only the payment of the $100,000, but an additional payment of $30,000 to Matos. He, however, alleged that the money was really extorted and paid to protect the property of the company. The payment was practically made compulsory, and not in voluntory support of the revolution, the witness explained.

Andrews also contradicted Gen. Greene, who claimed the State Department in Washington had protected the company's interest in Venezuela. He said the company had received a letter from Secretary of State Hay, in which the latter said he could not interfere in the matter, and that the New York and Bermudez Company would have to look to the courts of Venezuela to protect its rights and concessions there.

OVERLAND HORSES.

Sons of Standard Oil Magnate and Wall-street Broker Head for California.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER (Colo.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] J. M. Rogers, son of J. C. Rogers, a New York contractor and oil magnate, and J. F. Wall, son of Harry Wall, a New York Stock Exchange operator, will make a trip overland to California, using saddle-horses. Both are in Colorado for their health.

Rogers attracted attention at the Sheepshead track, a few months ago, by betting against "Pittsburgh Phil" and losing heavily. His father, though interested with Rockefeller in the Standard Oil Trust, is in no way related to H. H. Rogers, the latter's financial partner.

The young men will go to California via Albuquerque, N. M.

CLAIMS HERMIT'S WEALTH.

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. M. Alleum of Yerington, Nev., is one of twenty persons announced today as claimants to $45,000 in bonds and cash left by Alexander Ferguson, an aged hermit who died recently in a log cabin at Ava, Ill. Mrs. Alleum alleges she is Ferguson's niece. When Ferguson died he was supposed to be without living relatives.

QUAINT CREOLE CITY TO DON GALA ATTIRE.

New Orleans Rises Queenlike to Make Ready For the President.

Adown Gaily-bedecked Streets and Under Triumphal Arch the Chief Magistrate's Escort of Confederate and Spanish War Veterans With Other Patriotic Bodies Will March—Yellow Fever Heroes to be Honored.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Today, the Executive Committee on the entertainment to be accorded to the President on the occasion of his nine-hour visit to New Orleans, October 26, received the final full reports of all the subcommittees preparing for the gala event.

With the river parade, the speech from the steps of the City Hall and the luncheon at the St. Charles Hotel as the central features, there will be a number of minor events of unique interest. Chief among these will be the presentation to the President of Surgeon J. H. White of the Marine Hospital service and all his staff of officers and acting assistants, who have fought the yellow-fever battle.

The United Confederate Veterans, the Grand Army posts, the Spanish-American veterans and the women's clubs will all have delegations that will be introduced. The position at the head of the street parade goes to the Confederate veterans, the Spanish War veterans yielding to age. This is the proposed plan for the day:

The President, accompanied by Surgeon-General Rixey of the navy, and Secretary Loeb, will arrive at 9 a. m. A committee of one hundred citizens will meet the special train at Stuyvesant docks, and these, with three hundred invited guests, will board the Morgan-line steamer Comus for a three-hour river trip, in which every vessel under steam in the harbor will participate. Landing at the foot of Canal street at noon, the street parade will form, and march under a triumphal arch and along a mile of street draped in bunting from curb to eaves. In the parade will be the Confederate Veterans, the Spanish War Veterans, the uniform rank of all the secret societies, all the high school and college cadets, the entire State Guard, the regular troops stationed here, and about one hundred carriages.

At the end of the Canal-street route the various organizations will be gathered. After the parade leaves Canal street, it will go to Lee Circle, where 7000 high school children will be massed about the Lee monument, singing: "Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue."

At the City Hall, the platform will be erected. All Lafayette Square will be turned over to the public. After the speech there, the Marine Hospital service will be introduced, and then the President will go to the hotel, where luncheon will be served and the presentations occur.

At 6 o'clock p. m. he will board the lighthouse tender Magnolia for the mouth of the river. There he will board the armored cruiser West Virginia for his trip to Norfolk.

AT HIS MOTHER'S HOME.
MANY TENDER RECOLLECTIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ROSWELL (Ga.) Oct. 20.—The President today carried out his long-cherished plan of visiting the home of his mother, Roswell, Ga. One of his reasons for coming so far was that he might see the old homestead where his mother spent her girlhood and which she left as a happy bride. That the visit was fraught with many tender recollections was evident. And as his carriage drove away from the old Bulloch mansion where his mother lived and married, the President murmured to Mrs. Roosevelt: "I can hardly bear to leave here."

The President reached Roswell at 7:30 o'clock this morning and was joined here by Senator and Mrs. Clay, who were his guests at breakfast. He then entered a carriage, and was driven to the mansion. This fine old homestead is now the property of J. D. Wing, a lumber merchant of this section, who lives in it with his sister, Mrs. Wood, the postmistress of Roswell. Here he was greeted by two old servants who lived on the place during his mother's young womanhood. One of these is "Aunt Grace," who acted as maid to Miss Martha Bulloch, who afterward became Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, and the other is William Jackson, who decorated the mansion on the occasion of the marriage of its young mistress. The President was deeply touched as he shook the hands of these old servitors.

In company with Mrs. Roosevelt, he then approached the house, calling to the attention of the company many incidents connected with his mother's childhood. Before leaving the mansion he posed with Mrs. Roosevelt for a picture, which included "Aunt Grace" and "Daddy" William.

From the homestead, the President was driven to the town park, where a stand had been erected from which he delivered an address. He was welcomed to Roswell by Charles M. Reed, a student of Mercer University, who, in the course of a well-chosen address, said the only reason he could see for the selection of himself to deliver this welcome was because of the President's well-known fondness for having young men identified with public affairs. Senator A. S. Clay introduced the President who was enthusiastically greeted.

GEORGIA'S GREAT OUTBURST.
EXCELLS ALL HER EFFORTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ATLANTA (Ga.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President was given a reception here, today, the like of which has never been extended to a President or any other honored guest in Georgia. It is conservatively estimated that there were 100,000 persons here from all parts of the State and other States, in addition to Atlanta's population.

Admiration of the President as the highest type of American citizen was expressed on every hand. Whatever feeling here some of his actions in the past may have aroused seemed undoubtedly to have been buried and forgotten. Not one unpleasant incident occurred to mar the occasion. Nearly 50,000 people tried to get near enough the stand to hear him speak.

A feature of the day was the fact that the President's visit was responsible for the first public appearance of Joel Chandler Harris, better known as "Uncle Remus," of whose writings the President is a great admirer.

HIS ATLANTA SPEECH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ATLANTA, Oct. 20.—In his speech the President began by saying that the problems Americans have to face today are very serious, but after all, they are only part of the price they have to pay for the triumphs they have won, for the high position they have attained. He cautioned them against displaying a foolish optimism, but warned them also to beware of drifting in blind pessimism in their view of the future. In this connection, the President said:

"Undoubtedly, the growth of wealth in this country has had some very unfortunate accompaniments, but it seems to me that much the worst damage that people of wealth can do the rest of us is not any actual physical harm, but the awakening in our breasts of either the mean vice of worshiping mere wealth, and the man of mere wealth, for the wealth's sake, or the equally mean vice of viewing with rancorous envy and hatred the men of wealth merely because they are men of wealth."

In referring to the question of government supervision of the great corporations, the President characterized them as "the most efficient business implements," and further said:

"The corporation is the creature of the State. It should always be held accountable to some sovereign, and this accountability should be real and not sham. Therefore, in my judgment, all corporations doing an interstate business—and this means the great majority of the largest corporations—should be held accountable to the Federal government, because their accountability should be coextensive with their field of action. But most certainly we should not strive to prevent or limit corporate activity. We should strive to secure such effective supervision over it, such power of regulation over it, as to enable us to guarantee that its activity will be exercised only in ways beneficial to the public.

"The unwisdom of any well-meaning, but misguided effort to check corporate activity has been show in striking fashion in recent years by our experience in the Philippines and in Porto Rico. Our national legislators very properly determined that the islands should not be exploited by adventurers without regard to the interests of the people of the islands themselves. But, unfortunately, in their zeal to prevent the islands from being improperly exploited, they took measures of such severity as seriously, and in some respects vitally to hamper and retard the development of the islands."

The President said that recent revelations of the manner in which some of the great fortunes have been obtained had caused the conscience of the people to be deeply shocked. He hoped that a good deal could be done by law to remedy this state of things, but when that was done there would yet remain much that could only be reached by the force of public opinion. The President then told his auditors

SOLDIERS COUNTERFEITERS.

Confession by One of the Sherman's Privates at Honolulu Implicates Others.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HONOLULU, Oct. 20.—[By Pacific Cable.] The Federal grand jury is investigating the cases of alleged counterfeiting by men who sailed from this port on the army transport Sherman. It is reported that a confession has been made by one of the defendants which implicates others. It is expected that indictments will be found against the two prisoners who are under arrest in San Francisco, and that they will be brought back here for trial.

Of the six men who were arrested when the transport was here, three, probably, will be released. Indictments are likely to be found against two or three of the men for having counterfeit currency in their possession.

Several local cases of counterfeiting are also before the courts here. Private Cooper, who was arrested here in August, has pleaded guilty to making ten-dollar counterfeits, and Private Hilson pleaded guilty to having counterfeits in his possession. The others accused will fight the cases.

ONE DAY'S LOSS THREE MILLIONS.

JOSEPH H. HOADLEY "COVERED" THE STOCK MARKET.

President of the International Power Company Testifies in the Suit Against Himself, Joe Leiter and Judson—Astor and Vanderbilt Had Narrow Escapes.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That he lost $3,000,000 in a single day protecting the market was the statement of Joseph H. Hoadley, today, while on the stand in the case of William B. Franklin and George I. Scott, covering the firm of Franklin, Scott & Company, who are suing Hoadley, president of the International Power Company; Joseph Leiter of Chicago and Cyrus Field Judson to recover $68,500, which plaintiffs allege they lost in operating in International Power stock for a pool consisting of the three defendants, April 30, 1902.

The suit is on trial in the Supreme Court here. According to Hoadley's testimony, John Jacob Astor and Cornelius Vanderbilt had a narrow escape from being victimized in the slump of the International Power stock.

Hoadley said he had understood from Judson that he had arranged to sell to Astor and Vanderbilt a number of shares at $140 a share. After this revelation, no further reference was made to Astor and Vanderbilt. The trial will continue Monday.

WOULD AID LEPERS.

Peter Hodgens Applies for Membership in the Order of Sacred Heart.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Peter Hodgens of Newark, N. J., has forwarded to Ostend, Belgium, where the head of the fraternity is established, application for membership in the Order of the Sacred Heart. The most important mission of this order is at the leper colony in the Hawaiian Islands, and it is that he may be permitted to give up the rest of his life among the lepers of this colony that Hodgens seeks entrance into the fraternity. He is 30 years old, and unmarried.

W.C.T.U. Delegates En Route to Los Angeles Have a Car Cut Out of the Train.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COLORADO SPRINGS (Colo.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Five hundred Women's Christian Temperance Union delegates were here today, en route to Los Angeles to attend the national convention there. Two colored delegates were refused accommodations at every prominent hotel, and several delegates had to secure quarters for them elsewhere.

En route to this city, the delegates objected to wine sauce, and had it removed. Near Creston, Iowa, several smelled tobacco smoke in a Pullman sleeper, and the car was cut out of the train and a new one put in at their urgent request.

Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, national president, delivered an address tonight.

ELLISON'S HOT LUCK.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Lucky" Charlie Ellison, who used to work for $100 a month in the City Hall and who afterward became a horse owner, plunger and all-around sport, is said to be $175,000 winner on the races in the East this season.

Horsemen and bookmakers who are gradually drifting back from eastern tracks, some to remain in Chicago, and others headed for New Orleans, San Francisco and Los Angeles, all tell the same story of Ellison's good luck since he invaded the East.

"He cannot lose a wager," said one bookmaker, who had been booking at eastern tracks all season, until the close of Belmont Park last Saturday.

JERRY SIMPSON STILL LINGERS.

WICHITA (Kan.) Oct. 20.—Ex-Congressman Jerry Simpson is lingering between life and death in St. Francis Hospital in this city. Although he is conscious, the attending physicians state that while he may live for several days there is absolutely no hope for recovery.

GLORIOUS MEMORY.

England Honors Her Great Admiral.

Nelson Banquet at London is Addressed by Representatives of Japan.

National Celebration Culminates Today in the Trafalgar Square.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The national celebration in honor of Lord Nelson, the hero of Trafalgar, which will culminate tomorrow in ceremonies at the Nelson monument in Trafalgar Square, on the occasion of the centenary of the hero's death, were ushered in today by a banquet in Fishmongers Hall, at which were present Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister; Lord Strathcona, the High Commissioner of Canada; Lord Brassey and representatives of all classes, especially the army and navy, the latter including many admirals and generals.

Lord Brassey presented to the Fishmongers Company a piece of oak from Nelson's flagship, the Victory. In the course of the proceedings, a telegram was received from Vice-Admiral Togo, expressing, on the occasion of this centenary, "Our ever increasing admiration for and devotion to the great Admiral."

Baron Hayashi, in a speech, declared that Lord Nelson's memory was as much revered by the Japanese navy as was that of Togo.

The Nelson column in Trafalgar Square has been beautifully decorated by the Navy League, and around its base will be arranged floral tributes sent in from all parts of the empire, which have been pouring in for the past week. From the top of the column will wave numerous flags and the immortal signal, "England expects this day that every man shall do his duty." Concerts, banquets and celebrations of various kinds have been arranged throughout the kingdom, and Sunday, in all the churches, memorial services will be held.

A feature of most of the celebrations will be the recital of Kipling's "Recessional."

Among the telegrams already received is one from Admiral Dewey, who sends a glowing tribute, concluding with the words: "These hundred years have only made his glory brighter."

LIVE STOCK MEN'S FIGHT.

They Will Oppose Any Efforts of the Railways to "Pack" Chicago Convention.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER (Colo.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Apparently a union of the American Stock Growers' Association and the National Live Stock Association is not far distant. Progress was made today, and if the two organizations unite, the new one probably will be called the National Live Stock Committee, and sub-committees will control the packing, live stock and live stock exchange branches.

Delegates to the Interstate Commerce Law Association meeting in Chicago, next week, were not chosen today, but will be tomorrow. There is intense interest in railway rate legislation. The stock men believe the railway corporations will try to pack the Chicago meeting, and are preparing for a bitter fight. They want better rates, the change of the twenty-eight-hour rule for cattle in cars to thirty-six hours, and other reforms.

The principal officers of both organizations are here. J. A. Jostro is representing extensive California cattle interests at the conference. The two organizations were one until last January, when a large number seceded from the National Live Stock Association, claiming the National was too friendly to the railroads. The objectionable features have been eliminated, and harmony appears to enter the divided organizations.

ROYAL MARRIAGE FIXED UP.

MADRID, Oct. 20.—The betrothal of Prince Ferdinand of Bavaria to Infanta Maria Teresa, sister of King Alfonso, was formally accomplished today. The Prince went to the royal palace, where he signed an act of Spanish naturalization, in the presence of the royal family, and this evening a royal banquet will be given at the palace in honor of the bride, in which the German Ambassador will represent the Prince. The marriage will be popular and the Infanta is much felicitated.

STORM LEAVES LAKE SHORES WRECK-LINED.

Most Terrific Blow for Many Years Piles up Harbor Furniture on the Michigan Coast and Drives Steamer Aground Near Lorain, O.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Record of the storm:

Lake Erie: Vessels lost, 14; lives lost, 3.

Lake Superior: Vessels lost, 3.

Total vessels lost, 30; total lives lost, 12.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a result of the storm which swept over the Great Lakes today from the West, at least thirty vessels have been wrecked, with a loss of twelve, if not twenty, lives.

The gale struck Chicago Thursday night and reached the lower lakes today. Wires to many important news centers were carried down and it is feared by many underwriters that the list, not only of vessels, but of the dead, will be doubled when these points are heard from.

The highest velocity reached by the wind at any point was at Cleveland, where it registered seventy-six miles an hour. At Buffalo, it blew for some time over fifty miles an hour. At the Straits of Mackinac and several points on Lake Superior snow added to the terrors of the gale. The storm center passed directly over the Straits and Sault Ste Marie, the wind blowing from all directions for twelve hours.

The heaviest loss of life and property was when the Canadian ship Minnedosa foundered on Lake Huron, off Harbor Beach. Nine people went down with the vessel and the insurance companies will pay some $130,000 on the ship and cargo.

The old-time Bradley fleet of Cleveland had two ships in the list of total loss, while the saving of the third is in doubt. The lost boats were valued at $55,000, and carried no insurance.

There was much anxiety in marine circles tonight over the safety of the big passenger steamer Western States, which turned back when within a short distance of Buffalo harbor.

LOSS OF THE MINNEDOSA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The Minnedosa, on which, so far as known, the greatest loss of life occurred, was coming down from Fort William, Canada, bound for some Lake Ontario port, with a cargo of wheat. She was in tow of the steamer Westmount, which was also towing the barge Melrose. The tow lines broke during the storm and the Melrose was separated from the Minnedosa. They managed to make shelter at Harbor Beach, late in the afternoon, and reported that they had seen the Minnedosa go down. She was in command of Capt. Phillips, who had his wife aboard. The names of the other members of the crew are not known. The boat was owned by the Montreal Transportation Company, of Montreal.

The gale created such a sea as has not been experienced by sailors on the lakes in the last fifteen years. Many of the large steam barges which make nothing of the usual heavy seas prevalent at this time of the year were compelled to seek shelter in the nearest ports. The east shore of Lake Michigan suffered severely.

WRECKS ARE MANY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 20.—As a result of the wildest storm that has swept Lake Erie in years, wrecks have strewn the shore the entire distance from Buffalo to Detroit. The storm came with abrupt suddenness at an early hour Friday morning and continued without interruption throughout the day.

At midnight tonight, the wind's velocity, which reached 54 miles an hour at its highest point, today, had decreased little in force, and fears were felt that the reports of numerous wrecks received during the day did not entirely cover the extent of the disasters.

The storm swept the lake from one end to the other, and every vessel that was exposed suffered to a more or less extent. The known losses, as enumerated tonight, included the following:

Freighter Sarah E. Sheldon, beached and wrecked near Loraine.

Steamer Wisconsin, on rocks off Loraine; all probably saved.

Schooner Kingfisher, torn to pieces off Cleveland.

Steamer F. A. Prince, damaged near Cleveland.

Tug Walter Metcalf, sunk off Buffalo harbor.

Steamer Prinkel, reached Buffalo badly damaged.

Barge Yukon, sunk off Ashtabula harbor, crew rescued.

WRECK OF THE SHELDON.

Two of the crew of the Sheldon were lost off Loraine. The wreck of this vessel was the most serious of any reported thus far, and the story of its experiences was thrilling in every way.

The Sheldon left Cleveland with a cargo of coal and was bound up the lake. Her troubles began in getting out of the harbor, and from then on until she was beached at Loraine, she was almost continuously at the mercy of the tempest. After running ashore, she was buffeted and pounded for over seven hours by the wind and waves.

Two tugs from Cleveland, one of which bore the life saving crew of this port, succeeded in rescuing all but two of the crew. These two attempted to escape in a small lifeboat, and they were quickly swept out of reach and lost. The drowned men were John Fox, wheelman, and Charles Evans, second mate. The vessel is a complete wreck.

The Sarah E. Sheldon went ashore east of Lorain, during a fierce storm on Lake Erie. She carried a crew of thirteen men. She will be a total wreck.

The schooner Kingfisher, which went ashore just east of Cleveland breakwater two weeks ago, is today being pounded to pieces on the beach.

The big steamer F. H. Prince, a freight carrier, which left here last midnight, was thrown on her beam ends repeatedly. She finally managed to reënter the harbor.

A telegram from Rogers City, Mich., says that the steamer J. S. Fay went ashore near there today. The mate was drowned, while fourteen other members of the crew reached shore in safety.

The barge Yukon is waterlogged and in a sinking condition off Ashtabula Harbor. The crew have escaped.

RUIN ABOUT BUFFALO.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BUFFALO (N. Y.) Oct. 20.—A gale reaching seventy-two miles an hour at its greatest velocity, swept over Buffalo and Western New York from early this morning until late tonight. Much property was destroyed and at least one person was killed. Lake Erie, lashed into a fury by the tremendous blow played havoc with shipping.

The schooner Mautenee, bound from Duluth to Buffalo, foundered off Ripley, twenty miles west of Dunkirk, at 4:30 this afternoon. Capt. Morgan and the crew were saved. The Mautenee probably will go to pieces during the night.

Dunkirk fishermen report that an unknown barge is in distress off Van Buren Point, ten miles west of Dunkirk, but the story cannot be confirmed.

Capt. Ohman and Seaman Gus Parsons of the barge Unadilla were swept overboard with a deckload of lumber. They clung to the floating timbers until rescued.

Mrs. Catherine Yeager, 54 years old, was blown down by the wind.

NAVIGATION SUSPENDED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DETROIT, Oct. 20.—The lower Great Lakes were swept last night by the heaviest storm of the season. Navigation across the lime kilns crossing at the mouth of the Detroit River was entirely suspended today for all but light-draught craft, the forty-miles-an-hour southwest gale last night having lowered the stage of the water at the crossing to sixteen feet, ten inches, the lowest in many years. Lake Huron this morning was lashed by a forty-two-mile gale off Alpena, while reports from Lake Erie are that the wind blew thirty miles an hour. On Lake Michigan, last night, a sixty-mile gale prevailed.

MASS OF WRECKAGE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

GRAND RAPIDS (Mich.) Oct. 20.—Reports from the harbors along the eastern shore of Lake Michigan indicate that last night's storm was the most terrific known on the lake for many years. The damage to harbors, piers, etc., will amount to thousands of dollars. At Holland, the losses are estimated at $200,000. The South Pier at this harbor has been entirely washed away and the lighthouse is badly wrecked. Today the heaviest sea ever known here is still running. The surface of the bay is a mass of wreckage. The two-masted schooner Kate Lyons of Grand Haven struck on the North Pier, breaking in two.

FISHERMEN LOSE HEAVILY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MARINETTE (Wis.) Oct. 20.—The storm last night did $50,000 damage along the north shore of Menominee River. Docks have been washed away, boathouses torn to pieces and thousands of tons of coal washed into the bay. Many boats, tugs and gasoline launches were destroyed, and quantities of logs in the storage rooms were washed away. The seas ran right up on the streets of Marinette and Menominee. Fishermen along the shores of Green Bay lost heavily in nets and boats. There was no loss of life, as vessels generally, it is believed, heeded the storm warnings.

HUGE VOLUMES OF SPRAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MENOMINEE (Mich.) Oct. 20.—It is estimated that $150,000 damage was caused to docks, lumber, logs and shipping by last night's fierce inshore wind. Huge volumes of spray dashed forty feet high and wrecked everything along the shore fifty feet from the water line.

HER SHRIEK BETRAYED HER.

Woman Who Got Work as Man Fooled Employer, but Not Cop Wise on Feminine Ways.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 20—Attired in masculine garb, Augusta Helvey, a young married woman, sought work for four days in the downtown district, mingling with scores of rival male applicants and passing unobserved in the throngs on the main streets. Today she would have begun work as a male waiter in a downtown restaurant had not an observant policeman last night noted a characteristically feminine move and manner in the youth. The policeman took the "suspect" to the police station, where the young woman admitted her disguise and declared she had assumed the garb solely in order to secure employment in which living wages could be obtained.

In St. Louis, she said, she had worked as a waitress and had been able to earn barely a scant living, while her clothing had been worn to shreds. Unable to replenish it, she had taken from a trunk a suit of clothing once worn by her husband and had determined that henceforth she would pass as a man and endeavor to earn the wages given the male worker.

A speeding automobile was the cause of the failure of Miss Helvey's plans. As it flashed by a downtown corner a policeman leaned forward to catch the number. The woman, in coat and trousers, was in its path. She shrieked as she leaped aside into a mud puddle and made a motion as if to gather up her flowing skirts. Then the youth moved a hand to "his" hat as if to adjust it. The patrolman waited no longer. He had missed the number of the automobile but he took the "boy" to the station.

CONSIDER PORTO RICANS' NEEDS.

MOHONK (N. Y.) Oct. 20.—The needs of the people in Porto Rico were considered at the first session of today's conference of the friends of the Indians and other dependent peoples. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Samuel Lindsay, professor of sociology in the University of Pennsylvania; Dr. Roland P. Faulkner and Dr. Jacob H. Hollander, professor of political economy at Johns Hopkins University. Dr. G. L. Spinnigan of Orange, N. J., reported on the starving condition of the Pima Indians, which the government has taken steps to remedy. Dr. Grant Evans of Indian Territory and Miss Anna Dawes of Pittsfield, Mass., pleaded for righteousness for the people of Indian Territory, insisting the government should keep its pledge with the Indians living and give them a "square deal" rather than join them with their neighbors in Oklahoma.

PRESIDENT.

that the South's great staple—cotton—had caused the balance of trade to be turned in favor of the United States last year. The statement that China afforded the largest market for American cotton carried him to the subject of the boycott of our goods in China. Concerning this, the President said:

"This government is doing, and will continue to do, all it can to put a stop to the boycott. But there is one measure to be taken toward this end in which I shall need the assistance of the Congress. We must insist firmly on our rights, and China must beware of persisting in a course of conduct to which we cannot honorably submit. But we in our turn must recognize our duties exactly as we insist on our rights. We cannot expect China to do justice unless we do China justice. The chief cause in bringing about the boycott of our goods in China was undoubtedly our attitude toward the Chinese who come to this country. This attitude of our does not justify the action of the Chinese in the boycott, and especially some of the forms which that action has taken. But the fact remains that in the past we have come short of our duty toward the people of China.

"It is our clear duty in the interest of our own wage-workers, to forbid all Chinese of the coolie class—that is, laborers, skilled or unskilled—from coming here. The greatest of all duties is national self-preservation, and the most important step in national self-preservation is to preserve in every way the wellbeing of the wage-worker. I am convinced that the wellbeing of our wage workers demands the exclusion of the Chinese coolies, and it is therefore our duty to exclude them. But we should not only operate the law with as little harshness as possible, but we should show every courtesy and consideration and every encouragement to all Chinese who are not of the laboring class to come to this country.

"Our laws and treaties should be so framed as to guarantee to all Chinamen, save of the excepted coolie class, the same right of entry to this country and the same treatment while here as is guaranteed to citizens of any other nation. By executive action I am, as rapidly as possible, putting a stop to the abuses which have grown up during many years in the administration of this law. I can do a good deal, and will do a good deal, even without the action of Congress; but I cannot do all that should be done unless such action is taken, and that action I most earnestly hope will be taken. It is needed in our own interest, and especially in the interest of the Pacific Slope and of the South Atlantic and Gulf States, for it is short-sighted, indeed, for us to permit foreign competitors to drive us from the great markets of China.

"Moreover, the action I ask is demanded by considerations that are higher than mere interest, for I ask it in the name of what is just and right. America should take the lead in establishing international relations on the same basis of honest and upright dealing which we regard as essential between man and man."

BOUND TO FLORIDA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MACON (Ga.) Oct. 20.—The President's special train en route from Atlanta, Ga., to Jacksonville, Fla., arrived here on the Southern Railroad at 10 o'clock p.m. (Central time,) and left five minutes later. The special reached Macon exactly on schedule. During the stop, the engines were changed and a new train crew was taken on.

PRISONERS FLOOD MARE ISLAND.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—In the annual report of Capt. W. B. Diehl, Judge-Advocate-General of the navy, the record of general courts-martial for the fiscal year shows that twelve commissioned officers were convicted and three acquitted, while 905 enlisted men were convicted and 30 acquitted. The record of summary courts-martial shows that 4157 bluejackets were convicted, and 200 acquitted, and that 1015 marines (enlisted men,) were convicted and 77 acquitted. A total of 423 enlisted men were convicted of desertion, 147 of absence without leave 25 of desertion and fraudulent enlistment, and 83 of fraudulent enlistment.

Capt. Diehl says that Col. A. C. Kellon, United States Marine Corps, has developed in the naval prison at the Boston navy yard a school of discipline of the highest order for offenders against naval laws and regulations.

The large number of prisoners received from the Asiatic station has resulted in an overcrowding of the Mare Island prison to such an extent, the report states, that it became necessary to fit up two prison ships to relieve the situation until permanent additions to the present shore institution can be provided by legislation. The Manila, at Mare Island, and the Nipsic, at Bremerton, Wash., are being prepared for the overflow of prisoners.

SLUGS NON-UNION PRINTER.

OMAHA (Neb.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] T. C. Scott, a non-union printer employed in one of the job printing establishments which recently discharged its union printers and declared for the "open shop," was slugged tonight, and three union printers, named Currin, Jones and Johnson, were arrested and lodged in jail charged with assault. They later gave bond for their appearance in police court and were released. Scott was painfully injured by his assailants.

The feeling between the employing printers and the union men who have been discharged is daily growing in bitterness, and it is said tonight that if the union printers manifest a further disposition to resort to acts of violence the employers will apply to the courts for an injunction to restrain them from in any wise interfering with their non-union employés or their business.

PRINCE OF WALES AT GENOA.

GENOA, Oct. 20.—The Prince and Princess of Wales, who are journeying to India for a six months' tour, arrived here today and went on board the British battleship Renown. They were given a most cordial reception. The Prince telegraphed King Victor Emmanuel, recalling the bonds of friendship uniting the British and Italian royal families and their respective countries. The Princess sent a telegram to Queen Helena, expressing regret at learning that Her Majesty was somewhat indisposed. The Prince and Princess will sail on the Renown tomorrow morning.

GRAVE DANGER LIES IN OLD CIENFUEGOS.

Killing of the Liberal Leader, Enrique Villuendas, Followed By Bitter Feeling Against the Cuban Administration.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HAVANA, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The authorities here have been officially notified that there is grave danger of serious trouble in Cienfuegos, growing out of the killing of Enrique Villuendas.

Many persons in town are seemingly convinced that the administration is determined to protect those concerned in the death of the Liberal leader, and the feeling grows more bitter as the taking of testimony progresses.

Senator Alfredo Zayas and representative Florencie Villuendas today called on the secretary of the government, Señor Freyre de Andrande, to ask him to take steps for the protection of the attorneys in the Villuendas case, particularly of Señor Manuel Secades, counsel for Villuendas. The family of Señor Secades, who has just declined a nomination for Congress, has been repeatedly threatened with death. Señor Freyre said he would give special orders to the Rural guard to protect Señor Secades.

The editor of the Havana newspaper El Mundo, which printed long accounts of the crime, has also received several threats of assassination. It is openly charged by the Liberal press that the presiding judge has denied every motion made by Señor Secades, including those described as "most rudimentary and logical."

HE REFUTES MURDER THEORY.

COLORADO SPRINGS (Colo.) Oct. 20.—The return of William Ehrenfeld of Whiting, Kan., to his home, as reported in a special to the Telegraph of this city, destroys the theory that he was murdered three years ago. His parents, who reside here, went to Durango, Colo., upon the discovery of the decomposed remains of the body of a man there, three years ago, and expressed the belief that the remains were those of their son. A fraternal insurance organization of which the missing man was a member, in good standing, paid a claim in the case.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chicago escaped the worst features of the storm which wrought havoc over almost the entire lake region. There were snow flurries early in the morning, and a minimum temperature of 38 degs. was recorded. The maximum was 44 degs. early in the afternoon. Frosts were reported today as far south as Northern Texas. Middle West temperatures:

DAILY REVIEW'S TROUBLES.

Claiming that because it reached too exclusive and highly-educated a class of people to appeal to the general run of advertisers, and as a consequence has become a loss to the proprietors, the National Daily Review of Chicago will either suspend publication indefinitely or be sold. Mrs. Hamilton Durley of Des Moines, (Iowa) formerly managing editor, has returned to her home in that city after a futile attempt to make the paper a success. Mrs. Durley had endeavored to publish a paper which was to avoid any sensational features, and embrace only such topics as would be educational and refined in composition.

RICH COPPER STRIKE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA FE (N. M.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After discovering rich deposits of native copper, following weeks of prospecting, William Didican of Schenectady, (N. Y.) was found dead today on the plains west of White Oaks. He had starved to death after discovering a mass of copper of great value. By the dead man's side was his prospect sack, containing samples of rich copper. It was copper in his possession that told the story of the rich discovery. Just where the deposit is located is unknown, but mining men say a mine must be in the hills to the west of White Oaks.

THE JAPANESE MOTHER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DES MOINES (Iowa) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Fred T. Duboise, wife of the United States Senator from Idaho, who is visiting friends in Des Moines, addressed the Des Moines Union of Mothers Clubs, today, and took occasion to unmercifully score American women for neglect of their children to follow the craze of clubs. "Japan is the babies' kingdom," she said. "The women are more mother and less society belle than the Americans."

WATTERSON'S PRAISE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a leading editorial in the Courier-Journal, tomorrow, by Henry Watterson, the veteran editor, he will refer to President Roosevelt's speech made by the statue of Jackson as rivaling anything ever said by President Lincoln, a fit comparison piece for the Gettysburg speech of Lincoln.

CUMMINS AT IT AGAIN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DUBUQUE (Iowa) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In an interview, Gov. Cummins, who addressed the Iowa Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in convention here, declared the fight over tariff revision in Iowa will come to an issue at a date not too far in the future, and that the revisionists will win.

FAILED TO PAY TAX.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AUSTIN (Tex.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Waters-Pierce Oil Company, which is controlled by the Standard Oil Company, has been assessed $2000 by the State of Texas as a penalty for failure to pay the tax of 2 per cent. upon its gross receipts.

Young Testifies in Regard to Bennington's Outfit.

Commander of the Ill-fated Gunboat Takes Stand.

W.C.T.U. Meets in State Convention at Fresno.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 20.—Commander Lucien Young, being tried by court-martial on charges growing out of the explosion on the gunboat Bennington at San Diego, took the witness stand today. He said that when he [illegible] command of the Bennington [illegible] with his predecessor, made a complete inspection, including a thorough inspection of the engineer department. His attention was called to the bulging down of a crown sheet and a patch on a boiler. In a few days, he made a report, but not until satisfying himself of the actual condition existing there. After inspecting the ship's crew, and witnessing drills, he found the ship in good condition regarding cleanliness, and, upon inspection of the engines and appurtenances found them good, but the boilers were in poor condition, but if no undue strain were placed on them they might last an indefinite period. Commander Young's examination was not concluded today.

STATE CONVENTION OF W.C.T.U.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

FRESNO, Oct. 20.—The twenty-sixth annual State convention of the W.C.T.U. has been organized. The programme calls for three sessions daily. State President Mrs. B. Sturtevant Peel is presiding.

The Credentials Committee was appointed as follows: Mrs. Emily Hoppin, State treasurer, was made chairman, with Mrs. D. J. Spencer, State recording secretary, and Mrs. Holden of the local union, committee women.

The county officers' annual reports were made, and in the report of the corresponding secretary, Miss Anna [illegible] Chase, they were summarized as follows: Gains in membership during the past year, 582; number of unions in State body, 180; county unions, with dues paid, 149; State union membership, [illegible]; unions organized during the past year, 30; honorary members, 694; new members, 1065; union meetings, [illegible]; public special meetings, 377; unions employing State workers, 58; unions employing national workers, 58; institute days, 159; days for taking up special line of work, 0; local temperance legions maintained, 37; total spent for local work, $4528.62; total spent for county work, $789.90.

[illegible] union had to report special [illegible] of laudable magnitude, accomplished during the year, in providing a public drinking fountain. The union of Humboldt county during the year, provided $400 for [illegible]. In Selma the greatest of [illegible] the success of the temperance [illegible] was reported in the success of the [illegible]-closing effort, though the same things have been accomplished [illegible] in several other places in the State.

[illegible] in the State membership during the past year more than entitled the convention to a place on the programme on jubilee night at the national W.C.T.U. Convention in Los Angeles convening October 27.

The evening session of the convention was taken up with addresses by two [illegible] union women. Mrs. Eliza [illegible] Miller of Mendocino read a paper full of pathos entitled "Beyond the Horizon." She saw a bright future for the W.C.T.U. and success for its work. Mrs. S. M. M. Woodman of Alameda spoke upon "Christian Citizenship."

This afternoon, the visitors were entertained by the Chamber of Commerce. The chamber building was beautifully decorated. A ride into the country through the big vineyards was the last feature of the afternoon programme.

WINE YIELD HALF AVERAGE.

PRICE WILL NOT SOAR HIGH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—The [illegible] tomorrow will say: "In Napa, Sonoma, Alameda and Santa Clara counties, which comprise the dry-wine districts, there is not more than half of an average yield. The quality is not of very high standard, owing to the fact that in many districts the grapes were very low in sugar. Reports from the sweet wine districts indicate a considerable shortage, but this crop is of much better average yield than in the dry wine districts. There is thought to be sufficient wine on the market to supply the demand, as there has been a surplus for the past three seasons. It is said in regard to prices that, while they may be somewhat firmer, there will not be an advance proportionate to the increase per ton in the price of grapes. Last year, prices for grapes ranged from $15 to $17.50 per ton, while this year $17.50 was the minimum price paid, $20 per ton being the average."

JAPANESE SHIPPING.

LOW RATES ON FREIGHT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Oct. 20.—Advices received by the steamer Lyria say a combination had been formed by Japanese shipping firms to send steamers to the United States and Europe with cargoes from Japanese and Indo-Japanese points, carrying freight at a low rate, about one-half of the present rate.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Forest Reserve Made Permanent.

REDDING, Oct. 20.—The Redding Land Office today received notification from Washington making permanent the Mount Shasta forest reserve, comprising about twelve townships in Shasta, Trinity and Siskiyou counties and near Mount Shasta. Thousands of acres of land along Sacramento, Pitt, McCloud, Klamath and Salmon Rivers are withdrawn from entry and settlement. The lands in the permanent reserve are about three-fourths of those in the temporary one. The [illegible] not withdrawn permanently will be restored and opened to settlers.

Condition of Rivets Very Bad.

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 20.—At the court-martial, today, Edward [illegible], foreman of boilermakers [illegible], was a witness. He had examined the rivets of the collapsed [illegible] of boiler B. Their condition was very bad. His opinion was that they had been driven over sharp edges and [illegible] punched holes. Many were [illegible], under test. Many in boilers A and B were in the same condition. He examined boiler B for overheating and said there was no appearance of the fire scale that appears when the material is heated to a cherry red.

WHAT AILS THAT "STAR?"

Reno People Behold a New Light That Turns Yellow, Red and Green.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two hundred or more people in Reno and vicinity have been engaged all evening in watching a strange star that came over the horizon northeast of Reno, shortly after dark. It is weirdly bright, the colors changing constantly, first yellow, then red, and then green.

Dean Wilson of the University of Nevada, together with Prof. Densmore, have had their glasses turned on the strange phenomenon all evening.

"It is a star, certainly," said Prof. Densmore, "but one of the queerest I have ever seen. I cannot account, either, for its size, or the cause of the varied colors it contains."

Russian Priest Receives Powers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Archbishop Tikhon of the Russian Eastern Orthodox Church has just conferred the mitre and pectoral cross and staff on Rev. Father Sebastian Dabovich, with powers of administration over the Servian and Slavonic branches of the church in North America. Father Dabovich will now devote himself to organizing and systematizing the work of the Servian and Slavonic branches of the church in the East. He has already established his headquarters in Chicago.

Obtain Control of Hop Crop.

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Horst Bros. of San Francisco have, by a succession of deals, obtained control of the whole hop crop of the lower mainland of British Columbia. They have for some years been growing hops at Chilliwack and Agassiz, having 130 acres owned or leased in the former district. Lately they have bought the crop of H. Hulbert, who has forty acres in Chilliwack, adjoining the Horst farm, and by a number of deals have secured 150 acres from surrounding farmers. What is not now in hops will be planted in vines.

CANNOT BEAR EACH OTHER.

KAISER AND KING EDWARD REPORTED HOSTILE.

Influential Business Man and a Diplomatist Agree That Court Circles Feel Intense Animosity—All Other International Feuds are Overshadowed by It.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Regarding the strained relations between England and Germany, one of the most influential business men in the Kaiser's realm said yesterday:

"I quite agree that war between Germany and England would be ruinous to both countries, and that anything that can be done to stop matters going too far should be done. I come from court circles. There is danger that Emperor William and King Edward cannot bear each other owing to this."

On the same subject a diplomatist who has a large experience in both countries said:

"Of the intensity of animosity between the two countries, there can be no doubt. It overshadows all other international feuds today. But in Germany, according to my observations, the anti-English sentiment does not come from the people. It is vehemently strong in court and aristocratic circles.

"But in England, it is quite different. The whole country is to a man anti-German. Not only that, it is an antagonism which takes an aggressive tone. Times have changed prodigiously in England since the death of Queen Victoria. In her time, England was insular in her ideas, isolated as regards her relations with other powers, but today, Great Britain appears to be transformed and modernized, and to have become Europeanized."

CORPSES TOO STRONG.

Consul Dobson Resigns His Post at Hang-Chau Because of Chinese Indignities.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CANON CITY (Colo.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dr. G. W. Cannon has a letter from George L. Dobson, United States Consul to Hang-Chau, China, saying he will arrive in Seattle Monday, on his way back to Des Moines, Iowa, having resigned his position. Dobson was appointed by President Roosevelt last spring. The boycott against American goods went into effect soon after Dobson arrived in China, and many indignities were heaped upon him. Chinese bankers at Hang-Chau refused to cash the drafts presented by the consul.

With the intention of driving Dobson out of their city, the bodies of more than one hundred victims of cholera and other contagious diseases were buried on property adjoining the consulate, although it had not been used previously as a cemetery. This necessitated the removal of Dobson and his family.

Dobson is a brother-in-law of Dr. Cannon.

HAVEMEYER PULLS STRINGS.

DENVER (Colo.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "We will not spend another dollar in Colorado until we discover what effect the importation of Philippine sugar, if it is imported, will have on the situation." That is the positive statement of H. O. Havemeyer, president of the sugar trust, who, with C. S. Morey and Charles Boettcher of the Great Western Sugar Company, which is dominated by Havemeyer, left this morning on a tour of inspection of the sugar plants in Northern Colorado. They will probably return Saturday, when Havemeyer will go East.

WILL FIRE INTO MOBS.

No More Useless Shooting is Order at Odessa.

Strike Interrupts Traffic on Moscow Railroad.

Revolutionists are Injured in Clash at Minsk.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ODESSA, Oct. 20.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Governor today issued an order to the police instructing them that in the event of disturbances, they are to fire directly into the mobs without any preliminary volleys in the air. This order, it is stated, will have a deterrent effect on proposed gatherings for the purpose of disorder.

RAILROAD EMPLOYES STRIKE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MOSCOW, Oct. 20.—The employés of the Moscow and Kazan railroad struck today, and traffic on the road is interrupted. The strikers induced a stoppage of work on the Yaroslav and Archangel railroad, and attempted to hold a meeting in the streets, but were dispersed by Cossacks and police. The engineers of the Moscow and St. Petersburg road struck tonight. Railroad employés have issued a call for a general strike.

HUNDRED PERSONS HURT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MINSK, Russia, Oct. 20.—A meeting of the members of the revolutionary party, held in a Jewish school here, yesterday, for the purpose of discussing the candidate for the National Assembly, was dispersed by Cossacks and police. Workmen in retaliation attacked the Cossacks with sticks, and in the conflict a hundred persons were slightly and twenty severely injured. Demonstrations in the streets continued.

PREPARING FOR DOUMA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 20.—The disorders have caused no pause in the preparations for the Douma. The alterations of the Tauride Palace necessary to adapt it to the meetings of the Douma will be begun in a few days. Though the Douma has nothing to do with the budget for 1906, which, according to law, must be approved before the new year, an imperial order has been issued to include therein no new appropriations except those that are absolutely imperative and then only for the term of one year.

This order also forbids and attempt to push through general legislation before the opening of the Douma, directs a postponement of all legislation that is possible to put off until the Douma assembles, and orders the ministers and commissioners to prepare and print all projects of proposed laws for submission on the first day's session. The amount which the 1906 budget will carry for naval construction has not been decided upon, as the government desires to take steps to determine just where the empire stands financially and especially with regard to the result of the pending loan negotiations before acting on it.

An imperial ukase issued today authorizes provisionally the use of the Polish and the Lithuanian languages in the private schools of Poland. Instruction in history and geography must, however, be given in Russian.

Owing largely to the banishment of his eldest son, Grand Duke Cyril, and also on account of failing health, the Grand Duke Vladimir, eldest uncle of Emperor Nicholas, has tendered his resignation as commander of the military district of St. Petersburg, and his resignation has been accepted. He will be succeeded by Lieut.-Gen. Gripenberg.

A group of international financiers began a conference today with Finance Minister Kokovsoff regarding the contemplated new loan. If the negotiations are successful, the issuance of the loan is expected to take place in the early days of November. Perkins and J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., arrived here during the afternoon. Their first audience with Kokovsoff will be arranged probably tomorrow by the American embassy.

The death of Prince Troubetskoy and the encounter which took place after the funeral have resulted in a suspension of work at the University of Moscow, of which the Prince was rector. The students refuse to attend lectures until their comrades who were arrested on the day of the funeral are released. The situation in the University of St. Petersburg also is serious and there is no academic work in progress. The universities of Kazan, Dorpat, Tomsk and Odessa and other cities have been closed, and a number of secondary schools have suspended work. There is a strong prospect that the entire educational system of the empire will again be closed indefinitely for revolutionary purposes, notwithstanding the grant of autonomy to the universities.

MIKADO RECEIVES BRYAN.

Kurino May Return to St. Petersburg. Togo Arrives at Yokohama—Forty Warships Assembled.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOKIO, Oct. 21, 11:30 a.m.—[By Pacific Cable.] The American Minister, Lloyd C. Griscom, presented W. J. Bryan and Capt. Clover of the battleship Wisconsin to the Emperor today. After the audience with the Emperor Mr. Bryan left for Nikko. He will return to Tokio tomorrow, and address the Young Men's Christian Association.

It is reported that M. Kurino, the Japanese Minister to Russia at the time war was declared between the two nations, will again be sent to St. Petersburg.

A telegraph cable has been laid in Tokio Bay for the transmission of messages during the naval review, to two ships stationed to receive them.

TOGO AT YOKOHAMA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 20.—Admiral Togo arrived here today on his flagship, the battleship Shikishima. Forty warships have now assembled here in preparation for the great naval review of October 30.

SECRETARY HAY'S ESTATE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John Hay, late Secretary of State, left in his safe personal property consisting of securities to the value of $262,312. Payne Whitney and James W. Wadsworth, Jr., have begun proceedings in the Surrogate Court to have the value of the property assessed, so that the State tax may be ascertained and paid.

BRITISH LIBERALS' FOREIGN POLICY TOLD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Oct. 20.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Addressing the City of London United Liberal Society, this afternoon, Sir Edward Grey, former Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in the Liberal administration of 1892-95, and who in all probability will be Foreign Secretary in the next Liberal Cabinet, said there was no foundation for the suggestions in some quarters that a change of government would bring a change of foreign policy.

The three cardinal points of British foreign policy, namely, friendship for America, the alliance with Japan and the agreement with France, all had the indorsement of the Liberal party. The Liberals, he said, were also of the opinion that the position of Russia should be re-established in the councils of Europe, while an improvement in the public relations between Germany and Great Britain must be considered conditional on the relations between Germany and France, also undergoing improvement.

The next election, however, would be fought on the question of free trade, which had made London what it was. It would be impossible, he believed, to get compensation for the loss of foreign trade by any arrangement it was in the power of fiscal reform to make.

CLARKE'S OPERATIONS APPEAR IN CLEARER LIGHT.

With Andrews and Torrance He Financed Enterprises in New Mexico—Startling Developments at Pittsburgh—Intimations of Large Defalcations.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] W. H. Andrews, Francis J. Torrance and F. Lee Clarke, all mentioned in connection with the failure of the Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny, Pa., and the latter a suicide, are well known here. They financed and built the Santa Fé Central from Torrance, a connection on the Rock Island, to Santa Fé, where the Denver and Rio Grande ends. They are also interested in the construction of the Albuquerque Eastern road, and recently purchased the Hagan coal fields, immense in proportion, just north of the city, and surveyed a branch line into the coal fields.

PENROSE'S SWEEPING DENIAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—United States Senator Boise Penrose tonight denied emphatically the rumors connecting him with the loans from the bank. Senator Penrose said: "I have no obligations of any kind in the Enterprise National Bank. I am not connected in any way, directly or indirectly, with notes of W. H. Andrews, if there are any such in the Enterprise National Bank. I have no interest whatever in the Pennsylvania Development Company, or with any other project in New Mexico. Any intimations to the contrary are malicious falsehoods for political effect."

STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 20.—As the investigation into the affairs of the Enterprise National Bank proceeds, it shows that Cashier Clarke was interested in many corporations and that his associates were prominent men. Startling revelations are being made as to the manner in which the dead cashier managed the moneys of the bank. Some of the directors, on the strength of what has been discovered, intimate that Clarke was a defaulter to a large amount.

It is believed that President Frederick Gwinner and the wealthier men of the bank's directorate will make some effort to get control of the Santa Fé Central Railway and the Pennsylvania Development Company, which concerns are so much involved in the bank's affairs. By doing this as individuals, the directors may hope to save themselves, if they are compelled to make good to the State any shortage in the funds. It is further said that the directors will lose nothing.

Funeral services over the body of the late cashier were held this afternoon at the family residence. Only immediate relatives were in attendance. It was reported today that among the private papers of the dead cashier is a complete confession of the operations which brought about his ruin and the closing of the bank.

NO BACKING FOR BOND.

British Government Will Turn Down the Premier and Let the Americans Fish.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON (Mass.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A. Maurice Low says today, in a long dispatch from Washington, that the British government will not back Premier Bond in his fight against American vessels fishing in Newfoundland waters. He says:

"Officially, the position of the British government in regard to the interpretation placed by Sir Robert Bond on the treaty of 1818, which, he holds, does not give the right to Americans to fish off certain portions of the west coast, has not been stated, but I am in a position to say that the British government does not agree with Sir Robert in his view, and will not sustain him in his effort to close certan portions of the coast to American fishing vessels, in defiance of the treaty and a right that has been enjoyed for one hundred years."

HAD TO USE ARMOUR CARS.

Shippers up Against Chicago Man's Ultimatum.

Fact is Brought Out at the Interstate Hearing.

Mr. Landis Charges Waste in the Public Printing.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The existence of exclusive contracts between railroads and private car lines, by which the latter assume the business of refrigerating perishable freight, was brought out strongly today in the hearings now in progress before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

It was developed by the testimony of H. M. Emerson, traffic manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, that the shippers could be compelled, under the contract with the Armour car lines, to use cars of the Amour company exclusively or the railroad would not transport their freight. At the same time, he said, the schedules of the road would permit the use of other private cars and the apparent inconsistency is a matter that the legal department of the road would have to solve if brought into the controversy.

Officials of the Central of Georgia, the Southern and the Seaboard Air Line testified that the Armour car lines have exclusive contracts with their roads to handle all refrigerator business.

Chairman Knapp announced that taking of testimony in relation to the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé and the Southern Pacific, the two transcontinental lines involved, will be postponed until November 1.

RAILROADS INCREASED IT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] E. P. Wilson of Cincinnati, counsel of the Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association, has arrived in Washington to argue before the Interstate Commerce Commission tomorrow at the hearing of the complaint of the association that thirty-one railroads have increased the rates on whisky to the Pacific Coast from $1 to $1.25 per hundredweight.

They claim that the rate on alcohol and high-spirited wines remains the same, and that the increase on whisky is, therefore, a discrimination.

POSTOFFICE CONTRACTS.

ADS OUT FOR BIDS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

"SHRIEKS FOR CORRECTION."

LANDIS ON WASTE IN PRINTING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Supplementing his statement regarding extravagance and waste in public printing, Charles B. Landis, chairman of the subcommittee of the Congress Printing Investigating Committee, charged with an inquiry into alleged extravagances in public printing, today insisted that the statement made to Congress before its adjournment—that the government could save a million dollars a year on its printing bill—was not at all extravagant.

Mr. Landis declared today that "a printing contagion seems to have swept over and taken possession of Congress and all departments of the government to such an extent that an arbitrary reduction in the printing appropriations of from 20 to 25 per cent. could be made without doing violence to the public welfare.

"There are tons upon tons of documents for which there will never be any demand piled up in the committee rooms," he said, "and in the various departments about Washington and the garrets and woodsheds of Senators and Representatives throughout the country. It all represents waste and extravagance and improvidence, and the situation fairly shrieks for correction."

TO SEE WHERE MONEY GOES.

OBJECT OF TAFT'S PANAMA TRIP.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Secretary Taft announced today that he and his party will arrive on the isthmus November 7, and that they will remain there until November 9 and return to Washington about the 16th. The party will consist of Secretary Taft, Gen. Storey, former chief of the artillery, now retired; Col. Black, Engineer Corps; Col. Ward, chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, and W. Michler.

Secretary Taft said there are a number of questions that he wants to discuss with the Panamans; that he wishes to see what has been accomplished there, so he can compare it with last year's work, and that his chief reason for making the trip is his desire to go before Congress and tell where the money has gone.

In this connection Secretary Taft said his reports from the isthmus are very satisfactory, and he complimented the work of Chief Engineer Stevens, Gov. Magoon and Chief Sanitary Officer Gorgas.

INCREASE OF BONDS OF WESTERN PACIFIC.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—The Western Pacific Railroad Company, through its stockholders, is arranging to increase its bonded debt $25,000,000, which will make the total amount of authorized bonds $75,000,000, instead of $50,000,000, as at present. The recent increase in the capital stock of the company from fifty to seventy-five millions had that object in view, because, under the laws of California, a corporation's bonds cannot exceed the amount of its stock issue.

The money raised by the proposed new bond issue of $25,000,000 is to be used in perfecting terminals and for the building of branch lines in California, especially lines to San José and Fresno. Under the terms of the mortgage securing the original bond issue of $50,000,000, none of the money so raised can be devoted to other purposes than the building of the main line.

Interest on the increased issue of $25,000,000 of bonds, it is announced, will be guaranteed by the Rio Grande Western, just as the original issue of $50,000,000 is guaranteed by that Gould property.

NO MORE BONDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—President E. T. Jeffery of the Western Pacific Railroad today said that while the stockholders' meeting, to be held on the 9th prox., will be for the purpose of authorizing an issue of $25,000,000 of second-mortgage bonds; this is merely in pursuance of an arrangement made when the capital of the road was increased from fifty to seventy-five millions, and that it is not contemplated to issue any more bonds, nor is there any need for doing so. The bonds will be authorized ready for issue at some future time, if occasion should arise.

OCEAN SHORE RAILWAY.

ELECTRIC LINE ALONG PACIFIC.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—The Ocean Shore Railroad stockholders met yesterday and decided to increase the company's capital stock from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000. The company is to build a double-track electric road close to the ocean shore, between San Francisco and Santa Cruz.

OVERLAND LIMITED TIME.

IS TO BE SHORTENED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Passenger business was increased at such a rapid rate during the past year on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad to the Pacific Coast and Colorado points that it has been found necessary to shorten the running time of the "Overland Limited" between Chicago and San Francisco by two hours, and also to establish a new train between Chicago and Denver.

According to the new schedule, which goes into effect tomorrow, the "Overland Limited" will leave Chicago at 8 p.m., instead of 6 p.m. daily, and will arrive in San Francisco at 5:48 p.m. on the third day. The Colorado special will leave here at 8:05 p.m. daily and will arrive in Denver the following night at 9:30 o'clock.

In addition to these two trains, a second Chicago-California train will be maintained, which will leave here at 10:25 p.m. and arrive in San Francisco at 12:48 p.m. the fourth day. This train carries tourist sleepers.

CANADA'S GREAT LINE.

NEW GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada, who has been visiting the city for several days, has gone East. Just before his departure, he said that Canada's new overland railroad, the Grand Trunk Pacific, is to cost the large sum of $123,500,000, and is expected to be completed in January, 1911.

The line is to be 3600 miles long. Its eastern terminus will be at Moncton, N. B., while the western terminus will be in the vicinity of Port Simpson, on the Pacific Coast, immediately to the south of the boundary of Alaska. The line is divided into three divisions. One is the eastern division, between Moncton and Winnipeg, 1800 miles in length. The middle division extends from Winnipeg to the eastern foothills of the Rocky Mountains, its estimated length being 1100 miles. The Pacific Coast division is about 700 miles long.

This new railway enterprise has been planned to meet the pressing demand for transportation facilities in British North America, caused by the immigration which is flowing into that country from Great Britain, Northern Europe and still more extensively from the Western States of the United States.

UNION RAILWAY STATION.

BIG CHICAGO IMPROVEMENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Plans for the construction of a new union railway station at a cost of from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 and enlargement of passenger terminals to cost the balance of $25,000,000, are being considered by the five tenants of the present union station at Canal and Adams streets.

The five roads, including the Pennsylvania, the Panhandle, also a Pennsylvania property; the Chicago and Alton, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, already have agreed to share equally the cost of the improvements, the Pennsylvania to receive from each of the other companies one-fifth the value of the property to be occupied.

PORTLAND TO ROSEBURG.

ANOTHER LINK OF GOULD'S.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

OREGON CITY (Or.) Oct. 20.—After a conference in this city, Messrs. Rhodes, St. Clair and Butcher, bankers of Philadelphia, W. P. Hawley, a local capitalist and manager of a pulp and paper plant, made the statement that eastern capitalists are preparing to build an electric railway from Portland to Roseburg. At Eugene, it is proposed to connect with what is said to ultimately be a transcontinental line, backed by the same interests.

This road will extend from Ogden to Coos Bay, on the Oregon Pacific. Just what route the Ogden road will take is not known, but it is stated that the plans of the backers contemplate acquiring the Western Nevada, California and Oregon Railway, which extends from Reno to Alturas, Modoc county, Cal. In the Nevada, the road will connect with Gould's Western Pacific, Ogden-San Francisco system. The entire plan of operations, as outlined in the above, is said to be one of the schemes of the invasion of the West by the Goulds.

TICKET BROKERS' COMBINE.

PRICES OF "SCALPS" FIXED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A combination among railroad ticket brokers in Chicago has been discovered, whereby, it is alleged, prices on scalped tickets are maintained. This information was secured from a witness before Master in Chancery Hopkins, who refused to answer questions. The matter was taken up before Judge Seaman of the Circuit Court of Appeals, and he held that the witness, Albert Geis, a ticket broker, should answer the questions.

The matter arose in an examination of ticket brokers in connection with an attempt by the Pennsylvania Railroad and other companies to secure the issuance of an injunction restraining George Bay and a large number of alleged ticket scalpers from scalping tickets for St. Louis and other Southern points. Judge Kohlsaat referred the matter to Master in Chancery Hopkins to take testimony.

Thinks Regulation Impracticable.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 20.—Russel Harding, first vice-president of the Erie Railroad, who is in St. Louis, declared today that he considered the proposed regulation of railroad rates by the Federal government, as urged by the President in his speech at Raleigh, as "utterly impracticable, if not really impossible."

INTO SANTA ANA.

PACIFIC ELECTRIC SOON TO GO.

Last night at quitting time the track laying and overhead construction gangs of the Pacific Electric were to have completed the new line of that road into the city limits of Santa Ana, and within a week it is planned to have everything ready for operation to a connection with the existing tram line of the company in the center of the town.

The rail famine has compelled the laying of the latter portion of this line single track in order to complete the line at as early a date as possible. The second track, however, will be completed as soon as rails arrive from the East.

REDONDO LINE-ASCOT.

The recent purchases of property just south of Slauson avenue and outside the city limits, by H. E. Huntington, will give him ground for a private right of way from the present line of the Redondo Railway to the terminus of the Ascot Park branch of the Pacific Electric. Plans are under consideration for the building of a connection from the Redondo line to the Ascot Park branch when the Redondo line is standardized, in order to bring the Redondo cars into the Pacific Electric terminal by way of the present private right of way of that system.

SALT LAKE THROUGH.

The schedule for the new through train of the Salt Lake, Union Pacific and Northwestern has just been completed, and calls for the first train west-bound to leave Chicago at 6 o'clock on the evening of November 26, arriving at Los Angeles at 4 o'clock of the afternoon of the third day.

Returning, the first east-bound train will leave here at 11:30 o'clock in the morning, November 30, arriving at Chicago at 11:55 the third morning, making close connections with both the Pennsylvania Limited and the Twentieth Century Limited of the New York Central.

The time between Salt Lake City and Los Angeles will be cut to twenty-eight hours, and there will be but a five-minute stop each way at that city instead of the several hours of layover necessitated by the present service.

The running time of this train over the Union Pacific and Northwestern will be the same as that for the regular Overland Limited of the system.

BYRNE'S APPOINTMENT.

The first official confirmation of the appointment of J. J. Byrne to be assistant passenger traffic manager of the Santa Fé was received only yesterday at the general headquarters of the Coast lines. The circulars are signed by George T. Nicholson, third vice-president, and are the first official document to bear his signature in his present position.

SIGNAL TEST.

This morning local officials of the Southern Pacific, including General Superintendent R. H. Ingram and Superintendent Platt, will make a thorough working test of the Mills-Pidington electric cab signal. A section of the track near Compton has been wired for the test and Mr. Platt's car has been fitted with a set of the signal apparatus, which will show how the signals are communicated to the engineer in his cab.

RAILROAD NOTES.

With the announcement by the Salt Lake of the construction of a branch line from Las Vegas to Bullfrog, the Nevada Rapid Transit Company has prepared to pull off its automobile service between Indian Springs and Vegas. Communication between the two points will be maintained by stage coach until the completion of the line early next year.

A party of engineers is now in the field out from Vegas checking up on the figures of a former party which ran the preliminaries some time ago. Actual work of construction will begin within the next two or three weeks, and the work will then be pushed rapidly to completion.

C. H. Burnett, recently appointed superintendent of the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway, although a young man, has had considerable experience in railroad operation with eastern steam lines. He was for a number of years with the New York Central. When he determined to come to California he secured a position with the Southern Pacific as trainmaster at Santa Barbara, from which place he came to Los Angeles to go with the electric line.

FAST MAIL WRECKED.

PAOLA (Kan.) Oct. 20.—The fast mail train from Colorado, on the Missouri Pacific Railway, running as a double-header, was wrecked a few miles east of Paola last night, two mail, one express and two baggage cars leaving the track, but remaining upright. J. B. Kohlmeyer, engineer, Kansas City, Kan.; Charles Teeter, engineer, Paola; Ora Tyler, fireman, Osawattomie, Kan.; and James Byron, fireman, Ossawattomie, were injured, but all will recover. None of the passengers were hurt.

IRVING BESIDE GARRICK LIES.

Great Tragedian is Buried in Westminster Abbey.

Highest Officials of the Nation Attend Services.

Thousands Afterward Pass Through Poets Corner.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Oct. 20.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Beside that other great actor, Garrick, and under the shadow of the statue of Shakespeare, as the interpreter of whose plays he won fame, the ashes of Sir Henry Irving were today given burial in Westminster Abbey, thus being accorded England's greatest tribute to her dead.

The services, which were of an impressive character, were conducted in the presence of a congregation which included many from the highest official life of England, eminent representatives of all walks of life and all the representatives of that gallery to which Irving was so invariably attentive who could find standing room in the Abbey.

King Edward was represented by Gen. Sir Dighton Probyn, keeper of the privy purse, and the Prince of Wales was represented by Lieut. Col. Carrington, comptroller of the Prince's household, while the cabinet ministers and Ambassadors attended in person. Whitelaw Reid, who is visiting in Scotland, came to London purposely to testify to America's regard for the dead tragedian.

Long before the hour set for the services, immense crowds gathered around the Abbey and those having cards of admission were in their seats as early as 10 o'clock, those who were unable to secure admittance remained about the entrance until the conclusion of the ceremony, when, in common with thousands of others, they passed through Poets' Corner to see the burial place.

The services, although short and simple, were most impressive. As the mourners arrived, Sir Frederick B. Bidge, organist of Westminster Abbey, played Chopin's funeral march, followed by Purcell's funeral music, rendered with trumpets and trombones. Then came Schubert's "Marche Solennelle."

PROCESSION PASSES.

Sharply at noon, the procession started from the Chapel of St. Faith, where the casket containing the ashes had lain over night, and passed through the cloisters to the space between the choir and the sanctuary, where the casket, covered with the pall of laurel wreaths, was placed on a catafalque.

During the procession, the choir sang the hymn "Brief Life Is Here Our Portion." Then followed the psalm, "Lord Thou Hast Been Our Refuge." The lesson was read by Canon Duckworth, Sub Dean of Westminster, who was assisted in the service by Bishop Weldon, Archdeacon Wilberforce and Canon Henson. The anthems were "Crossing the Bar" and "Weep Ye Not for the Dead."

After the anthems, the casket was borne to the grave, as the organ pealed forth the funeral march from "Coriolanus."

The only mourners were Lady Irving and the two sons of Sir Henry.

A few intimate friends and the pallbearers followed the casket to the grave, in the narrow space surrounding which are tombs and statues of many of England's great men of letters.

Of the mass of floral pieces sent by friends and admirers of Irving but four had places during the service. One of these was a cross of lilies from Queen Alexandra bearing the words: "To Sir Henry Irving from the Queen. 'Into Thy Hands, O Lord, Into Thy Hands.'"

Upon his arrival in London from Scotland, this morning, Ambassador Reid sent the family of Sir Henry a message conveying his personal regard for Sir Henry and sincere condolence on behalf of the American nation.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Brazos River Improvement.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Secretary Taft today decided in favor of the contention of Representatives of Texas regarding the improvements of the Brazos River. The last River and Harbor Bill appropriated $75,000 for beginning the work, which will ultimately cost several millions, if the entire project is approved by future legislation. The decision of the Secretary allows the expenditure of the $75,000 for beginning the work.

Montana Lands Withdrawn.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The commissioner of the General Land Office has ordered the withdrawal from entry of all the public land in area 1, covering 1,100,000 acres of land in the Bozeman and Lewiston (Mont.) land districts, on account of the land basin irrigation project in that State.

Paymaster Ring Accused.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The court of inquiry in the case of Paymaster Ring, general storekeeper at the Boston Navy Yard, has found him to be careless and negligent in the performance of his duty, but does not impeach his integrity, and recommends no further proceedings. While approving this finding, the Secretary of the Navy refuses the officer's request to be retained as general storekeeper at Boston.

Final Friar Lands Payment Ordered.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The War Department today, upon cable request of the Philippine Commission, directed the International Banking Corporation, New York, to pay to Francis Guiterres, representing the Philippine Sugar Estates Development Company and the University of St. Thomas, the sum of $3,521,657 (gold,) in settlement of the friar lands purchase. The payment is to be made in New York, except the sum of $300,000, which is to be paid in Manila. This is the final act in the consummation of the friar lands deal.

Usury in Pension Bureau Must End.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Commissioner Wagner of the Pension Bureau today anounced his intention of recommending the dismissal from the service of a number of employés who had been engaged in loaning money in the bureau at usurious rates. He says that in some cases as high as 10 per cent. per month has been charged and he expresses the opinion that dismissal of offenders is the only effective way of stopping the practice.

Japanese to Relax Restrictions.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Under date of October 17, 1905, the American Consul-General at Newchwang cables the State Department that the Japanese military authorities have agreed to relax the trade restraints as much as possible, at the same time maintaining precautions to protect the men of the Japanese army from the plague, from which three deaths are reported and it is probable that military trains will be utilized to carry goods inland.

San Francisco Postoffice Clerks.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ten temporary clerks at $600 each per annum were today authorized for the San Francisco postoffice, for a total period not exceeding one hundred days. They are to handle increased mail business growing out of the municipal campaign, in which the party managers are distributing thousands of circulars, etc.

Consul-General at Calcutta.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The appointment of W. H. Michael, chief clerk of the Department of State, to be Consul-General at Calcutta, was announced at the Department of State today.

Consul at Trinidad Removed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Announcement was made at the State Department today that Alvin Smith, American Consul at Trinidad, has been removed from office. The cause is failure to render his accounts, and is attributed solely to neglect and carelessness.

MRS. B. F. SPILLMAN.

"I am pleased I can write to you today and heartily indorse Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. I have had liver and kidney trouble all may life, and about a year ago was taken down in bed. I made up my mind to try Warner's Safe Cure and Warner's Pills, and I can say that Warner's has entirely cured me of all my troubles. My health is much better than ever before in my life, though my friends said I would die. I will never be without a bottle of Warner's Safe Cure and Warner's Pills."—MRS. B. F. SPILLMAN.

WARNER'S SAFE CURE

Does your back ache? Do you have scalding pains? Are you troubled with vital weakness? If the answer is "Yes," your kidneys are diseased and your life is in danger. Warner's Safe Cure is the medicine that will help you. Thousands of wonderful cures attest to its merit, and thousands of people voluntarily commend its use as the best cure and sure preventive of all forms of kidney and bladder trouble, female weakness, Bright's disease and all diseased conditions of the liver and blood.

IF IN DOUBT MAKE THIS TEST

Put some urine in a glass; after it stands 24 hours, if you find a reddish, brick-dust sediment in it, or particles floating in the urine, or the urine is milky or cloudy, you will know your kidneys are in a diseased condition and are unable to perform their work; the result will be the bladder and urinary organs will become inflamed, uric acid will poison the blood, the stomach will become affected and unable to digest the food, the system will become weak, and the result will be a breakdown of the general health, with Bright's disease or diabetes, which will prove fatal if not treated with promptness and great care.

Warner's Safe Cure is purely vegetable and contains no harmful drugs; it does not constipate; it is a most valuable and effective tonic and is a stimulant to digestion and awakens the torpid liver, putting the patient into the very best receptive state for the work of the restorer of kidneys. Warner's Safe Pills taken with Warner's Safe Cure move the bowels gently and aid a speedy cure.

WARNER'S SAFE CURE is now put up in two regular sizes and is sold by all druggists, or direct, at 50 cents and $1 a bottle.

TRIAL BOTTLE FREE. To convince every sufferer from diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood that WARNER'S SAFE CURE will cure them, a trial bottle will be sent them ABSOLUTELY FREE to any one who will write WARNER SAFE CURE CO., Rochester, N. Y. Our doctors will send medical booklet, containing symptoms and treatment of each disease, and many convincing testimonials, free, to anyone who will write.

DREAM DIVINE ARTISTIC TREAT.

Fete at Miramar Thrills With Poetic Charm.

Fair Women Gain Laurels in the Amateur Play.

The Aid for Noble Charity Crowned With Success.

More than fourteen hundred persons dreamed last evening away mid the poetic surroundings of the home of ex-Senator and Mrs. John P. Jones at "Miramar," Santa Monica, the occasion being the great and wonderful garden fête for the benefit of the [illegible] Consumptive Sanatorium.

Silver and gold poured right plentifully into the coffers of the different booths presided over by some of the most beauteous of society's fair women and gallant beaux.

A thousand bright lights twinkled and sweet music floated through the air, while here and there in enchanting little nooks were set the loveliest of booths, and beneath the winding grape arbors bewitching maids clad in costumes of all nations served delicious [illegible].

The play was the thing, however, and a mad rush was made for the theater, which was indeed an ideal spot for the poetic interpretation given Tennyson's "Dream of Fair Women," beneath the clear sky starred with the shining lights of heaven and with the shrubbery forming a beautiful setting for the group of fair women.

Seated against a mossy rock was the poet, the part being taken by Roy Jones, while from the forest paths the women of his dreams stepped softly forth, each giving the lines of the poet. The startled birds of the air rustled softly past, uttering soft-throated notes the while.

While the poet yet spoke, from out a garden path stepped "a daughter of the gods, divinely tall and most divinely fair." She was Helen of Troy, and indeed, with stately mien she came forth, holding her head high, as befitted a ruler of men, yet with saddened air as of one crushed by the weight of her misdeeds. Clad in Greek costume with gold trimmings, a star gleamed on her forehead and her Titian hair chaste, in knot of Physche curve was fascinating. This part, taken by Miss Grace Mellus, was rarely difficult, yet given with a spirit and dignity well fitting the character of her who destroyed Troy. Then came tragic Iphigenia, whose very happiness was the knife which [illegible] the sacrifice.

The impersonator was Miss Ellie Morgan, clad in a silken gown of golden [illegible], with hair bound in Grecian fashion.

Miss Georgiana Jones, whose clever [illegible] planned the garden fete, was a [illegible] and awe-inspiring Cleopatra. Her [illegible] young beauty took on well the [illegible] of the Egyptian queen, and her [illegible] her conquests over men was portrayed. Cleopatra's gown was [illegible] inspiration, of softest cloth [illegible] inlaid with rarely colored embroidery and made in long sweeping [illegible]. It was most becoming. Mrs. [illegible] Farquahar took well the part [illegible]'s daughter, sadly decked in [illegible], the color of the mourning [illegible]. Her rendition of the tragic [illegible] of her young life was most convincing.

FASCINATING ROSAMOND.

[illegible] would have been hard to discover a more charming or fascinating Rosamond than Miss Echo Allen, who enchanted all with her dainty prettiness, and one could quite imagine the jealous Eleanor's dagger glances. Though but few lines were spoken by this sad little creature, her stage presence was a delight. Clad in a clingy gown of pink silk crepe, and golden hair falling about her face, while a wreath of pink roses crowned her fair youth, she stepped like some dream maiden through the misty greenery into life.

Joan d'Arc was an imposing maid in clanking armor and with her faithful sword before her, proudly glad of her triumphs. Perhaps interested onlookers didn't really understand the full significance of that armor which Miss [illegible] Caswell wore. It was a poetic affair and made by patient hands, but [illegible] of all, horror of horrors—aesthetic [illegible] prepare for the worst—this brave [illegible] wore a suit of armor made of [illegible] dishcloths. Yes, dishcloths! Indeed, it was a brave maid who wore [illegible], for heavy they were. Imagine one metal dishcloth and then think of a hundred-weight! But the ingenuity which prompted the use of so prosaic an article in poetry is to be praised.

Proud and vain Marie Antoinette was well portrayed by Mrs. Frank Pollock. She made her appearance delightfully proud of being a queen and rightfully proud of having died as befitted her station. She was indeed an inspiring sight, with her high powdered hair and soft curls, with the appealing beauty and fetching court-plaster on [illegible] cheek, while her silken gown of flowers rustled softly as memories of bygone days. Her stage presence was good and her voice particularly clear and sweet.

"MARY STUART'S" HIT.

If Miss May Ridgeway should choose to go on the stage her career is already assured. As Mary Stuart, Miss Ridgeway scored a hit. Her impassioned prayer to her heavenly father, the tale of her wrecked life, all given in highly dramatic and artistic style, won her audience. Clad in an elegant robe of clinging velvet and with her deep blue eyes seeming to accuse the cruel queen, Elizabeth, who imprisoned her, she was most convincing.

As a fitting close to this rarely beautiful dream Gounod's "Ave Maria" was sweetly sung by Frank V. Pollock, with violin obligato by Edwin H. Clark. Not often has Los Angeles been favored with the fortune of hearing such a nearly perfect voice as Mr. Pollock's rich and inspiring tenor.

From the play the visitors encountered the fortune-telling booth, presided over by Miss Nora Sterry and a bevy of pretty dark-eyed maids clad in fetching costumes of gypsy make-up. A near-by spot was the candy booth, presided over by Mrs. Mountjoy Cloud and a host of fair assistants.

Flower girls and men adorned the lemonade booth, where were Mrs. E. Avery McCarthy and a host of jolly maids and men. White gowns with polka dots and great fetching yellow bows in the hair were worn by these lemonade maids.

From lemonade stand to flower booth was but a far cry, and here dainty Mrs. Cosmo Morgan was a pretty violet maiden gowned in violet costume, her hat adorned with plumes.

"THE GIRL IN RED."

"The girl in red" was most sought after, and, indeed, she was a fetching picture in red gown with dashing hat of black and white, swept with gay plumes. Flowers she sold and proved [illegible] Miss Jane Wilshire. Miss Clara Carpenter, in pink, was fetching.

"A thousand-dollar lot for 25 cents," rang out the announcer at the raffle booth, and there were other lovely things to tempt the feminine eye here, too.

Mrs. Rob Rowan's dark beauty was well set off by a costume of sweeping Burmah fabrics, and rich India shawl with pearls to lighten her glowing loveliness. Over the cigarette booth she held sway, assisted by pretty maids. Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Bruce held the grab bag, assisted by friends.

Count Baris de Londonier and Mrs. Frank Pollock delighted all with their fancy dancing and songs from the Russian dialect. There were ever so many other fair maids and lovely spots to entrance one.

Side Talks
By The Office Boy

The flying machine was downtown yesterday. It soared around over the principal streets until everybody got a "soar" neck rubbering at it. There's one nice thing about it—you don't get pushed or crowded up there and there's no cars or automobiles pointed at you, daring you to get out of the way; there's lots of room. The old man says the reason there is always room at the top is because so many get in on the ground floor. When it comes to buying Hats and Furnishing Goods we certainly get in at the basement—there's no quantity too large for us. Why, we couldn't give you such good hats for $2.00, or such good shirts for $1.00 and $1.50, or such good neckwear for 50c, etc., if we didn't have such an immense output. We buy them cheaper because we buy so many, and we sell them cheaper because we sell so many. Today and up to 11 o'clock tonight we expect to be as busy as bees in both stores, in our Hat, Underwear and Clothing departments. We expected to get our new quarters ready for your inspection today at Broadway and Sixth, but it will take another week; the walls are out, however, and you can get an idea how really nice it will be.

JEALOUSY ENDS IN MURDER.

ONE CHICAGO WOMAN SPILLS BLOOD OF ANOTHER.

Mrs. McCluskey Shot Down at Rear Door of Her Saloon by Her Former Friend Mrs. Buckley, All for Love of Electrician Tyrman—Cunliffe Says He Burned Missing Money.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Mrs. Clara McCluskey, who was shot down at the rear door of her saloon, No. 666 West Madison street, at 2 o'clock this morning, was murdered by her former friend, Mrs. Clara M. Buckley. Jealousy over the friendship of Mrs. McCluskey with Albert Tyrman, an electrician, led to the crime. Mrs. Buckley, who was arrested early this morning, denied all knowledge of the crime, but tonight, after having been questioned for several hours by the police, she broke down and confessed.

Prior to the statement made by Mrs. Buckley, her two friends Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. O'Connell, who were also under arrest, had told the police that Mrs. Buckley had said she killed Mrs. McCluskey. Both women made every effort to shield Mrs. Buckley, but when Mrs. O'Connell was shown that she had declared having met Mrs. Buckley in three different places she gave up and declared her willingness to tell the whole story. She then told how Mrs. Buckley had entered her apartments early in the morning and declared that she had killed Mrs. McCluskey while in a jealous rage over Albert Tyrman.

Mrs. Buckley was present when the statement was made by Mrs. O'Connell and offered no denial. When asked by the police what she had to say regarding Mrs. O'Connell's statement, she at first declared it was untrue, but finally made a full confession.

WOODMEN'S ORGANIZER.

ARREST OF T. TURNER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER, Oct 20.—T. Turner, an organizer for the Woodmen of the World, with headquarters at Salt Lake was arrested tonight as he stepped from a Rio Grande train from the West, and is held at the County Jail for safekeeping.

Turner's last report to the Finance Committee of the Woodmen contained certain expenses for which there were no vouchers. The committee sent him a draft for a sum less the amoutn unvouched for. Turner then telegraphed to the chief clerk of the Finance Committee that unless that amount held out was forthcoming by October 16, he would come to Denver and kill him. He later telegraphed to J. C. Latshawn, chief clerk to Head Consul Boak, that he intended to put a bullet in him, also, and later wired that he would kill all the members of the Finance Committee when he found that his threats had caused his dismissal.

When the local officials learned that Turner had really left Salt Lake for Denver, they called upon Sheriff Nesbit to arrest him, which was done as Turner alighted from the train tonight. Turner is 65 years of age, and the Woodmen of this city believe his mind has become deranged.

CONFESS TO OTHERS' CRIME.

SHREWD SCHEME OF LAWYERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO (Nev.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] James Burns, under sentence of fourteen months for assault with a deadly weapon, created a sensation today by making a written confession that he and a man named Kelley, both former convicts of Folsom prison, held up occupants of the Brewery saloon, Reno, July 5.

James Sabin, formerly of Porterville, and Tony Christie of this city have just been convicted of the crime. Sabin is under sentence of thirty years and Christie of fifteen years. Both men were positively identified.

The confession is looked upon as a desperate scheme of the attorneys for the convicted men to cause doubt that will eventually result in their pardon.

ROBBERS OF ELLIS.

RENO OFFICERS ON WATCH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO (Nev.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For three days and nights officers of Washoe county have been watching every road, guarding every train and chasing down every clew in the hope of running to earth J. Milton Andrews and his paramour, wanted by the authorities of Berkeley, Cal., for robbing William C. Ellis, the Australian turfman.

The officers are confident the couple are either in Reno or Sparks, and late tonight Sheriff Ferrel, when the fact became known, admitted that he had hopes of capturing them before morning.

TOOK "SOMETHING WHITE."

Woman With Domestic Trouble Pumped Out by Police Surgeon and Will Live.

"Family troubles; I took something white, that's all," said Mrs. Maud A. Armstrong after she had been hurried to the Receiving Hospital at 12:30 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Armstrong belongs to that great army of weak females who think the suicide route to happiness is the only one. She quarreled with her husband, Joe Armstrong, several months ago, and took up her residence at No. 524 Towne avenue, while her husband, who is a hard-working man at the City Market, lived at No. 712 Central avenue.

Last night Mrs. Armstrong tried to effect a reconciliation, but she failed, and just to show her "nerve," she swallowed half the contents of a bottle of bichloride of mercury. The surgeons in the Receiving Hospital quickly counteracted the effect of the poison and the only satisfaction the woman had was a severe headache and a badly-wrenched stomach. She has attempted suicide, it is said, on three previous occasions.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Take Him Out and Rob Him.

NAPA, Oct. 20.—A bold hold-up was committed on the streets of Napa early this morning, in which Richard Cochran was assaulted, beaten and robbed. Cochran was sitting in a saloon on Brown street and John Stapleton and John Torey entered. They asked Cochran to drink several times and when he refused, they seized him and took him out on the sidewalk. They then beat him severely and rifled his pockets, obtaining some coin. Late this afternoon Constable Second and Marshal Thomas arrested Stapleton and Torey.

Tries to Murder Fellow-convict.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 20.—Convict Seavis, a negro who was in the big break from the State Prison at Folsom, but who was caught and returned to the prison, last night attempted to murder a fellow-prisoner named Dunbar, also a negro. Seavis struck Dunbar on the head with a steel drill which Seavis had smuggled from the stone quarry. Dunbar's skull was fractured, but it is expected that he will recover.

EYELESS PORCINE RAIDED.

Attorney Ed Fleming and Deputy Constables Will Holman and Charles Thomas raided the "Five Mile House," on West Washington street. They brought back a quantity of illegally-kept liquor, and also the keepers of the place, Louise Vivion and Franz Vanriliard, and lodged them in the County Jail. The legal trio made a fast trip, leaving town in an automobile at 4:15 o'clock, and arriving, on their return trip, at 5:45 o'clock.

That Schmitz Ticket.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—News was received here today that the Supreme Court at Los Angeles today granted a writ restraining the election commissioners from putting the Schmitz ticket on the voting machines under "Independent" designations. The writ also provides that the Republican ticket shall come first; the Democratic ticket second; the Socialist ticket third, and the Union Labor ticket fourth. The writ is returnable in this city at 10 a.m. next Thursday.

The Growth of Graft.

For our part, we are inclined to believe that graft, while no more acute, is more general in this country than ever before. The ancient record of some cities and some officials cannot be exceeded, if equaled; but what graft is found to lack in intensity will, we imagine, be more than compensated for by its immensity as regards area of country and the numbers of those involved. In truth, who doubts that the nation's standards have been somewhat lowered by the new ideas natural to our condition, the gross worship of success we see everywhere? And from lowered standards such things naturally follow. The love of money, the recognition of its overwhelming power which is a later growth of the national consciousness, have bred a certain broad tolerance of the method of acquiring it. And this tolerance reacts and encourages graft in private and public life. Moreover, to this conception of the power of money and its logical result, as stated, is to be added a certain distortion of the Spartan admiration for shrewdness—a national characteristic leading us in a sort of way to half approve successful sharp practice or even crime. It is useless to point to the high individual standard that obtains to a greater or less extent all over the country. The widespread graft that fills the newspapers, but seldom the penitentiaries, is here, and it is a result of a cause. And something more than a mere tendency to individual dishonesty in depraved persons is necessary to explain its extent and the success attending it.—[New Orleans Times-Democrat.

POLICE RECOVER "BURNED" MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BRIDGEPORT (Ct.) Oct. 20.—The chances that the police will recover nearly the whole of the $101,000 stolen from the Adams Express Company in Pittsburgh by Edward G. Cunliffe, who was arrested here yesterday and taken to Pittsburgh today, seem bright. Tonight, $9065 was found in a trunk belonging to a butler of a prominent family at Black Rock, but the butler and the family by whom he is employed were ignorant of the fact that the large sum found was within the house.

Although there is a possibility that the remaining $10,500 has been destroyed, the police are of the opinion that another accomplice of Cunliffe may reveal the hiding place of the missing sum. In round numbers, $90,000 has been found within the past twenty-four hours. After figuring on about $500 as the amount which Cunliffe has spent or which was found on him when arrested, there is left a sum of $10,500 yet to be accounted for.

The discovery of the money in the Black Rock home tonight was brought about by keeping a close watch on one of Cunliffe's chance acquaintances, George Eisenman, who was with Cunliffe when he was arrested yesterday morning. According to Eisenman's story, he met Cunliffe in a cheap hotel Wednesday night, the two being together for some time. Cunliffe had a package with him, and when the men were about to leave each other, Cunliffe said that he wanted Eisenman to take care of the package, as it was laundry which he wanted to keep in a safe place. Eisenman took the bundle to his sister's house, No. 688 Nash street, and when alone opened it and found the big sum of money.

Capt. Arnold of the detective bureau, who knows Eisenman and who saw him with Cunliffe when the latter was taken, went to the home of Eisenman's sister and found the bundle of shirts, but no money, and he suspected that Eisenman had abstracted a part of Cunliffe's plunder. Eisenman was shadowed all today and he was seen to give a small package to his friend, the butler. Tonight, Eisenman was taken to the Black Rock house and he asked the butler for the package. He went to his trunk and turned it over to Capt. Arnold, intact. The butler had not been told what was in the package. Capt. Arnold would not reveal the name of the butler or the family which employed him. Eisenman was taken to police headquarters, but was released later.

Two other new features of the chapter of events in connection with the capture of Cunliffe cropped out today, one being an attempt by Cunliffe to bribe Capt. Arnold of the local detective force, and the other being the story of betrayal by a friend of Cunliffe for the purpose of securing the reward of $2500 offered by the Pinkertons for his arrest.

STANDARD OIL SPURTS TO A HIGHER LEVEL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Oct. 20.—The Standard Oil Company advanced the price of all grades of crude oil, except Ragian. Pennsylvania, Tiona, New Castle and Cabel oil were advanced 5 cents. Corning was raised 10 cents and Somerset 8 cents. The lower grades were advanced 2 cents. The quotations follow: Pennsylvania, 1.61; Tiona, 1.07; Corning, 1.13; New Castle, 1.38; Cabel, 1.21; North Lima, 96; South Lima, Indiana and Somerset, 91; Ragian, 69.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LIMA (O.) Oct. 20.—The Standard Oil Company posted a bulletin today announcing an advance of 5 cents in the price of both Pennsylvania Crude and an advance of 2 cents in Lima and Indiana Oil. Pennsylvania, 1.61; North Lima, 96.

CENT AT INDEPENDENCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

INDEPENDENCE (Kan.) Oct. 20.—The price of high-grade western oil was advanced 1 cent a barrel here, today, by the Standard Oil Company, to 50 cents. The price of fuel oil was not changed.

ELECTRICITY'S WONDER STORY.

USES NOT DREAMED OF A GENERATION AGO.

Electric Lighting, Marvelous as It Has Been, is but a Chapter in the Story—Telephones, Electric Railways, Power Transmission—One Hundred New Roads Projected.

[New York World:] By the census figures for the year ending on June 30, 1902, there are 3620 central electric light and power stations in the United States. They supply 385,698 arc and 18,194,044 incandescent lamps, pay out $20,646,692 in salaries and wages annually and represent a cost of construction and equipment of $504,740,352.

And these totals do not include the innumerable small plants which furnish light and heat for single buildings and power for small industries. The electric light is the Aladdin lamp of fact, with which there is nothing in fiction to compare. From Ben Franklin's kite-flying experiments in 1752 has come the world's greatest wonder story.

And the development of electrical lighting, marvelous as it has been, is but a prosaic chapter in the story. In the telephone and the telegraph, in the electric railway, in the extended use of electricity for purposes not conceived of a quarter of a century ago, lies a tale of yet greater interest.

An itemized estimate of the capital invested in electrical enterprises of various kinds in the United States in 1900 assigned $250,000,000 to telegraphs, $300,000,000 to telephones, $1,200,000,000 to electric lighting, $1,800,000,000 to electric railways, $250,000,000 to power transmission, electroplating, etc.; $150,000,000 to electrical manufactures and $25,000,000 to automobiles, storage batteries, etc.

Here is a grand total of $3,975,000,000 of capital invested in industries of which the last generation had only begun to dream. It was not till 1870 that the dynamo was perfected. Arc lighting in practicable form dates from 1878 and the incandescent light from 1880. Kansas City in 1884 gave the world its first workable example of the overhead trolley.

Perhaps, everything considered, the growth of the electric railway is the most notable and important of the recent phases of electrical evolution.

In 1887 there were but thirteen small electric roads in the United States. By 1897 these had increased to 953 companies, owning 15,718 miles of track. In 1899 there were 871 companies, the number diminished by consolidations and mergers, with 19,218 miles of track. They owned 39,360 motor and 11,298 "trailer" cars. They had crowded out the old horse cars so that of that primitive form of traction only 416 miles were in operation. It is not stimulating to civic pride to know that the bulk of this mileage was in Manhattan Borough, though since reduced. Of the 11,888 horses employed in the nation in 1899 for surface traction 9863 were in New York State.

About 100 new electric roads are projected every year, calling for the expenditure of $100,000,000 annually for cars, power-houses, wires, poles, etc. By the census of 1900 there were 50,782 persons following the occupation of electrician, exclusive of 20,153 electrical engineers. Figures regarding the army of motormen, conductors and other employés and the number of workers engaged in the newer lines of applied electricity are not procurable. Some hint of the number of motormen may be gained from the 39,360 motor cars, though these figures antedate the Subway and the installation of electricity on the "L" lines, the electrification of the suburban lines of the Long Island Railroad and the five years' growth of long-distance trolley systems.

Of what young men think of electrical work as a profession there is a suggestion in the preferences of the students at the Brooklyn Evening Trade School. Of 1070 students, 226 have chosen electrical engineering and 102 electrical wiring as against 16 who selected blacksmithing, 50 tinsmithing and 30 pattern-making.

As a road to riches for an ambitious young man electricity furnishes as nearly a royal one as is to be found in any trade.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

HUNTING OIL AT RANDSBURG.

OCCIDENTAL OIL COMPANY WILL PROSPECT DESERT.

Standard Drilling Rig is Erected for Test Well—Scripper Case Will Go to Secretary of Interior on Appeal After Five Years—Fraud is Charged in Oil Litigation.

The Occidental Oil Company of Bakersfield, whose properties are at Sunset, is about to start drilling a "wild cat" well near Randsburg on land which it has been prospecting for some time. President F. M. Graham and Director S. E. Tooker have been in Randsburg recently and have commenced erecting a standard drilling rig.

The desert country has been prospected to some extent for oil from time to time without result, but the indications at several points are said to be favorable. A discovery of good fuel oil near Randsburg would do more to advance the prosperity of the camp and aid the development of the surrounding country than another gold strike. At present all fuel has to be brought from Bakersfield or Los Angeles.

SCRIPPER CASE APPEALED.

An appeal will be taken from the decision of the commissioner of the General Land Office to the Secretary of the Interior in the case of the Bakersfield Fuel and Oil Company vs. [illegible] E. Johnson and the Riverside Company, one of the famous scripper cases that has been before the department for about five years.

The Bakersfield Fuel and Oil Company holds the land involved, which is the northeast quarter of section 8, [illegible] and the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 24, 28-27, in the Kern River district, under a placer location. The contest was brought on by the placing of scrip on the land in December, 1899. It was decided in favor of the Bakersfield Fuel and Oil Company by the register and receiver of the land office at Visalia, and the decision was affirmed on appeal by the commissioner of the General Land Office in Washington. The present appeal is taken on the strength of certain recent decisions which the attorneys for the Riverside company claim are favorable to their contention.

CHARGES OF FRAUD.

The Kern County Pipe Line and Storage Company has sued the Kern River Oil Company, operating at Kern River and McKittrick, for $7800 alleged to be due for rent of a pipe line through the [illegible] district. The defendant company has filed an answer and cross-complaint charging attempted fraud in asserting that instead of its owing the pipe-line company, the latter is really in its debt to the amount of [illegible] and interest.

The substance of the charges is that [illegible] the two companies had substantially the same majority directors; that the oil company contracted to pay for transportation of 500 barrels at 5 cents for each barrel up to 2400 per day; that because the Southern Pacific had a competing field line and had made the pipe line unprofitable, the directors of the two companies shifted the burden on the shoulders of the oil company. Later it was found that the line was still a failure as an investment, and then the majority directors of the pipe-line company rescinded the agreement and made another with themselves as representatives of the oil company by which the latter corporation was to pay [illegible] per month rental, which was paid [illegible] months without satisfaction to the stockholders.

The oil company asks the Superior Court at San Francisco, where the suit has been filed, to force repayment of the money so paid.

FEDERAL PILE FOR ASKING.

PHOENIX GIVEN HOPE OF GOVERNMENT BUILDING.

Congressional Visitor Gives Hint Site Might be Donated—Street Railway Company Finally Gets Permission to Run Line to New Territorial Fair Grounds.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Oct. 18.—One of the results of the visit to Phoenix of the [illegible] Congressional party was the awakening of a desire in Phoenix for the erection of a Federal building. At the present time the Federal government is paying nearly $6000 a year for offices in Phoenix, an amount equaling 4 per cent. interest on an investment of $150,000. Congressman [illegible], chairman of the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds was a member of the party, and he it was who suggested that, with proper representation in Congress, there should be no difficulty in securing even the $150,000 represented by the rentals, as the Treasury Department considers 4 per cent. a satisfactory return. It is believed that a site would be donated by popular subscription.

After many days of bickering and [illegible] the County Board of Supervisors finally has granted permission to the Phoenix Street Railway Company to run a trolley line out Grand avenue to the new Territorial fair grounds. Work on the line is to be started at once, that it may be in satisfactory shape by the time of the fair opening early in December.

About a week ago, on the desert near Harrisburg, were found the bones of C. Fenner, a furloughed veteran of the Santa Monica Soldiers' Home. The bones, widely scattered by wild animals, were gathered up and brought to Phoenix, where a Coroner's jury found that, as far as could be ascertained, death was due to exposure and thirst. Fenner started from Salome with an unknown companion, who has not turned up and whose body also may be found on the plain. Both were warned of the danger of the [illegible] trip without water.

In the District Court is being heard a strange, yet long-drawn-out suit involving the ownership of the famous and once valuable Vulture mine. The mine lately was made the subject of a stock deal, shares being sold to the amount of hundreds of thousands of dollars, according to general report. Yet the present suit is on the question whether the proper amount of assessment work had been done on the claims in 1903. The superintendent at that time was one George [illegible], who made affidavit that the work had been properly done. Behind the "jumpers," and one of the principal witnesses for their side, is a son of Sanders, who, to be successful, must demonstrate that his father was a perjurer.

WOMAN'S CLOSE CALL.

Mrs. J. O. Dunbar, wife of Editor Dunbar of the Enterprise, "came within an inch of her life" yesterday because of her Good Samaritan action in offering a cup of water to a thirsty hunter. The hunter leaned his shotgun against the wall. A stray dog materialized and knocked the gun down, the load being discharged by the shock. The charge passed close under Mrs. Dunbar's arm, near enough to cut the fabric of her dress, yet she remained the coolest among all in the vicinity. The hunter, an invalid, dropped to the ground, speechless and nerveless, while a negro window cleaner fainted away on the spot. The latter explained his agitation by stating his belief that if the shot had been a fatal one, a mob assuredly would have laid the blame upon the nearest colored man and would have strung him up on a telephone pole.

United States District Court is in session in Phoenix. The cases mainly are of trivial importance, nearly all of the defendants being Mexicans accused of violations of the Edmunds Act or of selling liquor to Indians.

Hunters have found plenty of deer in the mountains of Central Arizona since the opening of the deer season. There is trouble, however, with the Indians of the upper Verde, who are slaughtering the game without the slightest attention to law, even defying the forest rangers. The redskins hunt in bands of a dozen and are seemingly determined upon extermination of the game. Wild turkey are reported abundant, though shy, while quail, very evidently, are becoming much more numerous because of their protection during the past few years.

COLD, AND COMPANY.

Cool weather at last has come to Phoenix and with it a heavy influx of winter visitors. Already houses are scarce. Owing to the high price of lumber and other building materials, very few new homes have been built during the past year.

O. W. Cotton, a San Diego real estate man, lectured in Phoenix last night at the Dorris theater, to an audience of 1200, his subject being the beauties of San Diego as a summertime residence.

In resigning his place of Justice of the Peace for Alma precinct, fifteen miles east of Phoenix, D. P. Jones stated that during the past three years he had had only one case before him, though within a thickly-settled neighborhood.

Counterfeit five-dollar pieces are reported floating about in Phoenix, while on the border, officers of the Treasury Department are looking for the coiners of imitation silver dollars. In the latter locality, it is believed that the coiners have established themselves just across the line in Sonora.

Etter Brothers, general merchants of Wickenburg, have made assignment for the benefit of creditors. The liabilities foot up about $12,500, mostly owed in Phoenix.

Even the ministerial conferences of the Methodist and Congregational churches, at Yuma and Prescott, have passed resolutions strongly opposing the union of Arizona with New Mexico as one State.

OPEN ARMS FOR OBERLE.

Tom Oberle has returned to Phoenix, somewhat the worse for his Los Angeles season of theatrical successes, though full to the brim of appreciation of the goodness of the Angelenos and of sorrow that his health forbade a longer stay on the Coast. Oberle has hosts of friends in Arizona, and they have welcomed him back with open arms. He will establish himself within the next few days out on the dry uplands north of Phoenix, in the hope that voice and health may be regained before many months have gone by.

Moses E. Clanton, since 1877 a resident of Arizona, and one of the founders of the Buckeye farming community, will make his home in the future at Long Beach.

D. W. Beldon, for ten years superintendent of the Phoenix electric lighting system, has resigned the place and has been succeeded by S. H. Ensign of Los Angeles.

Julia A. Holmes of Los Angeles has been granted a certificate of authority to teach in Arizona.

J. W. Pearce, a San Francisco traveling man, and Mrs. L. B. Lougher of Banning, Cal., were married Sunday in Phoenix, at Hotel Adams.

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE ON YOUR SHOE BILL?

Today is to be Another Strenuous Price Cutting Time at the Big Busy

MAMMOTH SHOE HOUSE

519 South Broadway

Our advice to every reader of this paper would be to get to the Mammoth Shoe House some time today—the earlier the better, for Messrs. Olcovich and Stricher say that this is to be positively the greatest day in their busy experience as shoe men, and they have been at it right here in Los Angeles for fourteen years. Women's Tan Oxfords, $3.50 was the retail price, but they have put them on the 98c counter—Oxfords made by such firms as C. P. Ford & Co., Rochester, N. Y. Another big value is the special $1.45 Oxford line; women never bought such values, and at $1.95 you will take away four-dollar kinds. Boys' shoes, that are made of the best leather obtainable—selling all over town at $2 a pair—today 98c will buy them, and at $1.45 the larger boys can be fitted, and save a dollar to dollar and a half easily. No frugal parent can afford to miss today's selling. Children's shoes at the same money-saving prices. Every size, from the tiniest tot to the young miss—50c, 59c, 79c, 98c, $1.45, and down to as cheap as 25c. Men's shoes, too, are in for it. Saturday calls for many things out of the week's pay, but this particular Saturday—today—should be devoted to shoeing the whole tribe. Won't cost you a cent to investigate our recommendation. Store will be open until 10:30 tonight, and our guess is that from 8 a.m. until closing time, 519 South Broadway, between Fifth and Sixth streets, the Mammoth will be the busiest place on Broadway.

ON PICO AND WESTLAKE.

The Beautiful Home Being Built for Henry Henderson on Sightly Position.

Henry Henderson is having built a new three-story and basement residence on the corner of Pico street and Westlake avenue. This page is illustrated with a picture of it. The beauty of the lines make it almost superfluous to say more of this house. The style is plain and simple, yet very effective. The lower part is of blue and clinkered brick with shingles above this stained dark brown and the roof silver gray. The reception hall and rooms on the first floor are all large, the drawing-room being in Louis XVI style. The fireplace in blue brick in the library is a very effective feature and so is the buffet, mission style, in the dining-room. The second floor contains a handsome family living room also with a blue brick fireplace, giving it a homelike look. There is a large hall, three chambers and two bath rooms on this floor. The view of the mountains from the balcony over the porte-cochere is very inspiring.

In the third story is an ample billiard room and also a studio for the owner.

The grounds are beautifully laid out and will greatly enhance the beauty of the home.

The plans are by Butt and Soper.

SATURDAY SPECIAL

At intervals during the Fall and Winter months we will offer some remarkable Saturday specials. For this Saturday evening we will give this extra special and will sell this chair for three hours only at this price. We have the same pattern in weathered oak, golden oak and mahogany finish.

THE CREAM? OUR TABLE CREAM DID IT

THEY ARE ALL SOLVED

THE BUTTER? OUR FANCY PREMIUM BUTTER DID IT.

A POUND OF OUR BUTTER AND A PINT OF OUR CREAM
MAKE THE COMMONPLACE TABLE AS RICH AS A DREAM.
NO LUXURY LIKE IT, THE HOUSE-WIFE IS GLAD,
THE CHILDREN ARE TICKELED AND SO IS THEIR DAD.

THE ICE CREAM? THIS HELPED DO IT

The first and only creamery in Southern California to adopt modern pasteurizing methods in the making of butter. This, together with the fact that all our cream is produced under strictest dairy sanitation, is what gives our butter the superb flavor and long-keeping quality for which it is noted. It is pure as a lily, sweet as a nut, and fresh every day. Our goods cost no more than the common article, and are delivered at your kitchen door direct from ice boxes on our refrigerator wagons. Telephone for samples. Also, don't forget we are the largest manufacturers of Ice Cream. We make 300 different kinds of frozen dainties, in every fancy form.

Classified Liners.

Times' "Liner" Advertisers—Important. Note change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1905, the rate for Sunday "Liners" was raised to 1¼ cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of The Times, which averages over 60,000 copies. (When the 1-cent-per-word rate was established in 1893, The Times Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night, and secure prompt and careful attention. Rates one cent a word each insertion in the Daily; 1¼ cents per word in the Sunday edition; minimum charge, 25c.

"Liner" (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 11 o'clock Saturday nights will be inserted under heading of "Too Late to Classify." Errors in telephoned advertisements at the risk of the sender.

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before 10 o'clock Saturday nights. Rate, 1¼ cents per word.

SPECIAL NOTICES—

FOR SALE—
THE "PACKARD" HOUSES.
Best brand on the market.
Are built only in
HIGHLAND PARK.
THE MATCHLESS SUBURB OF THE CITY.

We have one you ought to see. A number of people have said it was the prettiest house they ever saw.

The appearance, however, is the least of its charms.

It was built to live in, not to sell. Built for comfort, convenience and durability.

The only objection the owner has is, that it is too large for a small family.

There are eight splendid rooms, cellar and storeroom, fitted with all modern conveniences; lot 50x150, nicely improved; the situation is exceptional, close to school, churches and fine car service. The view is rare, and the location the healthiest in the city.

PRICE $4200 AND
It is worth every cent of it.
Bring your money with you for you will buy it on sight.

FOR SALE—BY INGRAM & BRIGGS,
A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY.
—$4200—$4200—

This 7-room home must be sold; there is nothing to compare with it in value in the city. It is new, built by the owner for his home, sits on a wide east front lot, 50x150 feet to an alley, in a neighborhood unexcelled; cosy veranda, reception hall with built-in seat; large parlor and dining-room; library with mantel, built-in bookcase and two seats; very elegant buffet; oak floors with diamond inlaid borders; very complete kitchen, pantry and screen porch; shed in rear. Above stairs are 3 fine, airy bedrooms, with built-in seats and many windows; large and complete bath; both front and rear balconies. This house is exceptionally well built; finely finished as to woodwork, tinting and fixtures throughout. The lot adjoining sold for $1500 five weeks ago, and the house cost to build $3800.

It is your opportunity!

EAST FRONT BUNGALOW.
—$4500—

The location of this new bungalow is in the southwest, close to Adams st.; it is on an 80-foot street, one of the finest in this vicinity, and this is without exception one of the finest bungalows yet put up in Los Angeles. It is a 2-story 7-room bungalow, built with the very best of everything and in the very best way. The floors are of quarter-sawed oak with very handsome inlaid border; the reception-room is a fine large room with plate glass windows and beamed ceiling; also beamed ceiling in the living-room; three nice large bedrooms, very prettily finished and decorated. One of the attractions of this attractive bungalow is the den upstairs, which is finished in ebony and red tapestry, with a border of embossed paper; the effect is certainly most pleasing. The bedrooms open with French windows into quite a large balcony. The bathroom is simply perfect, with finest nickel plumbing, and the tub is in the center of the room. If you want a bungalow of about this size you could not plan and arrange one today to suit you better than this. The lighting fixtures are the most unique and attractive that have yet been put in any bungalow, and when you see them yourself you will say so too. The grounds are nicely laid out, with many flowers and shrubs and nice lawn; only a few months old; the lot is 50x150 feet to alley. Before you buy or build, see this new bungalow.

FOR SALE—
Do you want to invest $22,000 on good judgment in real estate and be sure that you will make $10,000 in one year, and that the property will increase in value each year? Then read: Citizens and the railroads are going to place a bridge across the Los Angeles River from the main entrance of Elysian Park to Downey ave.; the right of way is signed up for an electric road right on the east of this tract and reaching up the San Fernando road, from the present Garvanza line; the Garvanza car line is five blocks away from tract. It is on high mesa ground with view of Elysian Park and with beautiful foothills on the east; the car line goes out by Elysian Park and is a pretty ride. Armour car repair shops right near, fertilizer works, sewer pipe factory, canning factory, and track is also right near the river station of the Southern Pacific, where hundreds of employees come in every day. Go all over East Los Angeles and see how many houses you can find for rent. Five houses were put up on tract and sold in one week without any advertising to people of East Los Angeles. Seven more are to be put up immediately.

I have 80 lots, the best possible, sidewalked, curbed, oiled roadway and city water; price $400 a lot; size 40x100; by the nature of the location these lots will always be in demand. Location, Pepper st.; on south, San Fernando road; on west, Salt Lake Railway and right of way for Huntington's electric line on east; Cottage ave. on north. An investment which you can't duplicate for profit anywhere except in the business section. I can peddle these out and scatter the profit to 80 people, but I am first offering the entire profit to one investor.

If we are to have a million people here, these lots will run up in value to $2000 each.

THE NEW CAR LINE
—ON—WESTERN AVENUE IS BUILDING.

COME OUT AND SEE FOR YOURSELF.
This is the last call on present prices in this locality; the tide of higher values is rising and now is the time to act. Acreage is selling at prices that makes our lots cheaper proportionately than acreage. For instance, we can sell you lots in our Melrose Avenue tract, with street improvements, for only $400. The adjoining acreage has sold for $1300 per acre. We could only get 4½ lots to the acre, which at $1300 per acre is a ground cost of $290 per lot. The street improvements will increase the wholesale cost to $350 per lot at least. Do you think the owners of that acreage will ever sell a lot for $400 on easy terms? NOT MUCH. But we will right now, if you hurry. Remember our war cry, "Buy in the Western-ave. section between Hollywood and Wilshire blvd." Take the Colegrove car to Western ave., where our branch office is located and we will show you the place where your dollars will be safer and more active than in any other section of Los Angeles; and it only requires a few of them to make a deal.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

HOW TIRESOME!

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Heermann Concert.

The second Heermann concert will be given at Simpson Auditorium at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon. An excellent programme will be presented.

Bankrupt.

J. H. Swadling of this city filed a bankruptcy petition with the United States District clerk yesterday. Swadling alleges that he owes $1180.05, and has as assets only $100 worth of household goods.

Before B'nai B'rith Lodge.

Leo Cooper, a well-known dramatic instructor, formerly of San Francisco, but now residing here, will deliver an address Tuesday evening before the members of the B'nai B'rith Lodge on the "Merchant of Venice."

Portland Award for Bishop.

Bishop & Co., according to a letter just received at the Chamber of Commerce from Frank Wiggins, have received a gold medal and superior award at the Portland Fair, given on their display of jellies, jams and preserves.

Precept and Practice.

Francis Murphy will take for the subject of his Sunday evening talk, at the Blanchard Hall gospel temperance meeting: "Go Forward." There will be the usual musical features and other characteristics of the "Murphy meeting."

Cripple's Misfortune.

T. C. Natival, who had been living in a tent at No. 251 South Olive street, returned to the place Thursday evening and started to light a fire. Coal oil and gasoline which he thinks someone had placed on the floor, ignited, and the place was burned. Natival, who is crippled and partially paralyzed, says he lost everything he had.

Found Dead in the Hills.

A laborer named Harkness, of whom little is known, was found dead yesterday morning one mile beyond the picnic grounds in Griffith Park. A deputy from the Coroner's office was sent to the Los Feliz ranch and the body was brought to this city. It is thought the man died from natural causes.

Say It Was Murder.

A Coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict in the case of Pedro Ontiveras, charging Eli Lopez, night clerk at the Hoffman House, with murder. A row over the rental of rooms to a number of drunken Mexicans resulted in the discharge of a revolver in the hands of Lopez, the bullet entering Ontiveras's body. The latter died at the County Hospital Wednesday.

Where Such Wealth?

A. Montijano was arrested yesterday for attempting to stab J. D. Walker in a Plaza saloon. When searched, the Mexican was found to have $100 concealed in his shoes. A chain, with a large diamond attached, was found in the pocket of his shirt. The police are searching for the owner of the diamond, and are not a little mystified at the possession of such wealth by an ordinary cholo.

Large Banquet Circle.

Tickets for the banquet to be tendered by the Knights of Pythias to Judge D. K. Trask, presiding judge of the Superior Court, at the Angeles Hotel this evening, have been so eagerly sought that the committee has found it necessary to extend the scope. It had been intended to confine the banquet to close friends of the guest of the evening, but the limit of guests had to be raised to 200, and nearly all the tickets have been taken.

Thefts Small and Large.

Mrs. Minnie Schultz of No. 501 West Eighth street, has reported to the police the loss from her rooms of a gold watch, gold stickpin and other small articles. H. W. Rapier of No. 2024 Vermont avenue has informed the detective department that a gold watch has been stolen from his apartments and Dr. L. J. Huff of No. 2624 South Figueroa street reports an automobile stolen from in front of the Braly building yesterday. The machine contained medicine cases and a set of surgical instruments.

Pious Fund Case.

Depositions were taken yesterday before Notary Roger S. Page, in the famous Aguirre suit against the prelates of the Roman Catholic church, for money claimed to be due from the Pious Fund. Five witnesses made their depositions, and the work will continue today. Gage & Foley appear as attorneys for the plaintiffs, and J. Wiseman MacDonald, assisted by V. Rothschild of San Francisco, is attorney for the church interests. No special information other than that elicited in the statement of the contentions of the parties at suit, and heretofore set forth in The Times, was brought forth in yesterday's depositions.

NEW FURNITURE STORE.

Commodious Apartments of the California Furniture Company Opened Yesterday.

Among the handsome new business buildings which have opened up during the past few weeks none is more commodious nor better fitted for its purpose than the big, six-floored structure opened yesterday at Nos. 639 and 645 South Broadway by the California Furniture Company.

The entire store is under the immediate supervision of President J. H. Voight. The first floor, upon entrance, gives the visitor the impression of unlimited light and abundant room. It is very broad, and the entire upper part, save for the front, is surrounded by a mezzanine balcony. Elegant lines of household goods are displayed here, the prize piece at present being in the front window south of the entrance. Here a room is modelled complete in Louis XVI style, with all its furniture of hand-carved Circassian walnut. The effect is one of massive antique elegance.

Wall papers, carpets and other furnishings are shown in new and up-to-date ways on the floor above while beyond are more rooms devoted to complete reproductions of old-style furniture.

Among these are several old Virginia sets, which, even to sofas and chairs, are reproduced with great fidelity to the originals.

On the top floors are the workrooms, where all sorts of furnishing material, from chairs to mattresses, are made up by the workmen of the store. One large front room, with a polished floor, is devoted entirely to the cutting, fitting and making of carpets.

BREVITIES.

The volume of "Liners" in the Sunday Times has become so great that it is found necessary to ask patrons to get their Sunday advertisements in earlier; especially Sunday real estate announcements, which in order to be printed must be in the office not later than 10 o'clock Saturday nights. The printing of the real estate matter, including advertisements, in a part by itself on Sundays involves somewhat slower press work, making it essential, in order to get the paper out on time to stop receiving real estate ads at 10 o'clock Saturday nights. Dealers will confer a favor on The Times office if they will turn in Sunday copy on Fridays, when possible or at least a part of it, and the balance early Saturdays. Sunday "Want" ads will still be received by phone and over the counter until 11 o'clock Saturday nights.

Times' "Liner" Advertisers—Important change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1905, and thereafter, the rate for Sunday "Liners" will be 1¼ cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of The Times, which averages over 60,000 copies. (When the 1-cent per-word rate was established in 1893, The Times Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

Persian rugs at any price before packing. If you want a fine Persian rug at a real bargain, call at Mihran's, 216 West Fourth street, under the Angelus Hotel, today before 5 p.m. This is the packing day, as all the rugs will be shipped to San Francisco. Prices are the lowest ever heard of, just to avoid packing and freight on them.

SHE WANTS TO GO TO PENITENTIARY.

Pretty Ruby Casselman Confesses Forgeries, After Having Puzzled Authorities Many Weeks—Climax of Most Remarkable Case.

> "I SUPPOSE people think that I do not realize my position," remarked Ruby Casselman to one of the officials of the First Methodist Church who called to see her, "but I do. I know what I have done, and I know how serious a thing it is. I don't want to escape this time. If I did, it would be the same thing over again. I can't help it. This is the third time I have committed forgery, but the only time I got caught. The other times it was hushed up and settled. I want now to go to the penitentiary. I have no desire to escape."

RUBY CASSELMAN, girl forger who confesses and declares she will plead guilty and wants to go to the penitentiary.

Miss Ruby Casselman, human enigma, teller of strange falsehoods, paradoxical and contradictory, has at last confessed that she is a forger and expects to suffer the consequences.

All these weeks, since her clever pen crimes came to light and her guilt was established almost beyond the peradventure of a doubt, she has smiled and talked without telling anything, and kept the authorities guessing; now a change has come over her and she has told the truth. It is the turning point in the most remarkable case of its kind ever known in Los Angeles.

GIRL REMOVED YESTERDAY.

Yesterday Ruby, who was committed to the Deaconess's Home on Hewitt street after her preliminary examination, was removed to other quarters. The custody of the young criminal proved more of a strain than the good deaconesses, with their multitudinous cares, wished to assume.

"Ruby Casselman is the most unsatisfactory person I ever had to deal with," remarked the superintendent of the home.

She now seems to accept her crime as a matter of course, and is cheerfully resigned so long as it is not mentioned. She is as eager and interested to converse about church and Sunday-school and mission work as ever. Apparently she does not consider that her actions have affected her religious belief or her social standing, and she took it very much to heart when she discovered that she was not accepted exactly as one of the family circle at the hospitable home on Hewitt street.

CAN'T ENDURE SOLITUDE.

Miss Casselman was delighted with the prospect of going to stay with the gentle deaconesses. She had an idea that she would be "one of them," so to speak, and could roam about the institution, assist in the household duties, play the piano, wait upon the door, and have a nice, pleasant time.

When the superintendent, gently but firmly, explained to the young forger that she must keep strictly to the solitude of the room to which she was assigned, the girl's spirits fell. She does not like solitude. She has been accustomed to going about a great deal, and she wants to be where there is plenty going on. She was actually happier in jail than with the good deaconesses, for in the big stone castle with grates on it she was allowed to act as trusty for the matron and had something to take up her attention.

BROKEN BY MEDITATION.

Not so in the Deaconess's Home. Here she was assigned a room on the second floor of the hospital adjoining the main building. Her meals were taken to her and she was treated as one who is ill—not physically, but mentally and spiritually—which is the worst kind of sickness. She was not permitted in any sense to have the liberty of the building, or even of the floor where her room was. This treatment did not accord with Ruby's ideas. When she was found weeping in her room, one of the deaconesses or the superintendent herself, would sit for an hour or so and read to her from some good book. She was given ample time to meditate—just meditate.

And meditation had its effect. It brought her to a full realization of her position. The direct result is the sensational statement and confession quoted at the beginning of this article.

Whether the other "times" Ruby mentions as having committed the same crime refer to the checks she forged here about six weeks prior to her arrest is a matter of conjecture.

TOO MUCH FOR THEM.

The care of the girl criminal was a serious tax on the deaconesses, who are as busy as busy can be from morning till night, going about from one part of the city to another on errands of mercy. The half-dozen beds in their little hospital are usually occupied and the two nurses on duty have their hands full in ministering to the wants of their patients. It seemed an imposition to ask them to assume, in addition to their already heavy burdens, the custody of a criminal whose proper place is behind the bars. However, they did it—until yesterday, when Ruby was taken to the home of relatives, who will be responsible for her appearance when she is wanted at her trial.

RUBY'S CRIMES.

BOLD AND INGENIOUS.

So far as the police know, Ruby's first crime was the buncoing of an old lady, who has not figured in these cases. Ruby met her in the waiting-room of a large downtown business

EX-GOVERNOR LECTURES.

John Peter St. John, Former Prohibition Nominee for Presidency Campaigning Here.

Ex-Gov. John Peter St. John, former Republican Governor of Kansas and later the Prohibition party candidate for the Presidency of the United States, is in Southern California for a brief campaign in the interests of prohibition.

He spoke twice yesterday in Los Angeles. In the afternoon he addressed a large audience in Elks' Hall, and afterwards was given an informal reception by the prohibition workers.

Last night he again spoke in Elks' Hall, on the general theme of party prohibition. He declared there was as much hope of getting either the Republican or Democratic party to adopt a prohibition plank as there was of getting them into heaven, and, of course, declared that the hopes of the country rested in the Prohibition party.

St. John is the leader of that faction of the Prohibition party which desires to incorporate in its platform other planks than that of prohibition. He would make it as broad as either of the old party declarations of faith, and dwelt on this point in last night's address.

He is an old-time Californian, having come to this State fifty years ago, driving an ox team from the Missouri River to Siskiyou county, to search for gold. He then came south to Los Angeles, and after lingering here for some time, returned to Northern California and afterward went to Kansas, where his political career began.

He detailed last night many interesting reminiscences of his early California life, and dwelt on the contrasts of the Los Angeles of that period and today.

Tomorrow afternoon ex-Gov. St. John will address the Y.M.C.A. at Pasadena at 3 o'clock. He will also speak in Pasadena on Monday night; in Santa Ana on Tuesday night, and in Whittier on Thursday night. He will be in Los Angeles for the national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which will convene next Friday.

OIL MEN GET ULTIMATUM.

Councilman Hammon Says Must Come to It.

Eradication of Old Derrick Nuisance is Nigh.

Conference of the Factions Held Yesterday.

> The following ultimatum was submitted to the oil men at yesterday's conference, and Councilman Hammon says if they do not accept it by next Friday he will move for the immediate cleaning up of the field:
>
> (1.) That the ordinance declaring the "dead" oil wells and useless rigs a nuisance, be enforced at once.
>
> (2.) That the four wells at Temple and Metcalf and Fireman streets be abandoned and cleaned up by January 1, 1906.
>
> (3.) That the pumping-cables be taken down, and the objectionable oil-steaming plant be taken out by April 1, 1906.
>
> (4.) That all derricks come down and there be a general clean-up of the entire district surrounded by Beaudry and Bellevue avenues, Colton and Douglas streets, by July 1, 1906.

Park Congregational Church, the storm-center of the agitation for the eradication of the oil plague in the Second Ward, was the scene of a conciliatory conference yesterday, between the oil producers and the Temple-street Improvement Association.

The improvement association was represented by M. S. Gregory, Leigh Thornton and W. H. Dickinson; the oil producers by John Ott, W. L. Young and A. G. Hutchins.

The conference was arranged at the suggestion of Percy Hammon, Councilman from the Second Ward, who has been between two fires since the agitation began, in order that he might arrive at a conclusion that would meet the approval of a very large percentage of his constituents, who clamor for the speedy and total annihilation of the oil business in the ward, and at the same time give the owners of the wells some concession that would appease their anger at what they call the confiscation of their business.

The result was a proposition by the producers, through Mr. Ott as spokesman, that they would agree to have the field all cleaned up if the people would give them one year from January 1, 1906, and a counter-proposition, offered as the ultimatum of the committee of the improvement association, that the whole field must be cleaned up by July 1, 1906.

THE BALL OPENS.

There was little formality about the opening of the conference, it not having been considered necessary to elect a chairman or a secretary. Councilman Hammon was present to hear the discussion and know how to shape his sails; Oil Inspector Blackmar was there to keep the subject thoroughly in hand, as he has been charged with using influence in favor of the producers, which imputation he indignantly denies.

Mr. Thornton opened the ball by stating the position of the citizens of the district. He said it was their desire and intention to begin improving and paving of the streets in the near future, but there was little use in putting on such expense if they were to continue to be handicapped by the unsightly derricks, the stench of the oil-steaming plant and the disgusting daubing of oil all over the district bounded by Beaudry avenue, Douglass street, Bellevue avenue and Colton street, in behalf of which this contest was being waged by 98 per cent. of its residents.

When Mr. Thornton had finished his preliminary statement there was an interesting little dialogue between he and Mr. Ott, as to the time it would require to accomplish the work.

"Well, Mr. Ott," said Thornton, "it took me three months to get you to move two wells off my property, when the cost to you was $25 a month, but when I said: 'Now, Ott, from this time out it's $5 a day,' you got to work the next day."

It came out in the talk that the district originally contained about 300 derricks, 130 of which have been removed in the past six months, and there are still about 100 "dead" ones standing which came under the ban of the ordinance passed in July. The others making up the total, are pumping an average of perhaps six barrels a day, which is a liberal estimate.

Ott now spoke for the producers. "We have taken out thirty wells in the past six months," he said, "and we want to continue to take them out as rapidly as possible: we have been doing very well without anybody telling us that we must get out. Give us a year from January 1, and we will get out.

"There has been much talk about this church, and how it has fared at our hands. We never had a well on FIESTA'S THRONGS GREATEST OF ALL.

"THIS WILL be the greatest Fiesta we have ever had. The eyes of the whole country are on Los Angeles. Honestly, I don't know what we are going to do with the crowds."

This was the enthusiastic verdict of Secretary Zeehandelaar of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association on his arrival yesterday from a tour of the East in the interests of the May Fiesta.

"At the least and most conservative estimate, there will be 12,000 Shriners here. This does not include the ladies who will accompany them, nor the other tourists who will time their visits to California to see this; nor the tourists already here who will prolong their visits to take this in.

"We will have a great time housing them all. Most of them are men accustomed to more than comfortable surroundings; they want to be well taken care of. It will tax not only our big commercial hotels, but the family hotels both here and in Pasadena.

"You have no idea of the enthusiasm in the East over this trip. The Shriners are only too glad to take this as an excuse to come.

"From Kansas City there will be at least 300. I don't know how many there will be from Chicago, but at any rate, the largest number ever sent to a conclave.

"Big delegations are coming from Salt Lake City and Denver. Salt Lake Shriners have already arranged to come in two special trains. They are organizing an Arab patrol to bring along.

"There will be several patrols here. One will be from Kansas City, one from Chicago, and one from Milwaukee.

"It is astonishing the interest taken in this city. In all the places I visited, I found it to be admitted to be the most prosperous city in the country.

"In the East they are bracing themselves for hard times two years from now, but it is universally admitted that we in Los Angeles will not feel it. We have too much start.

"Just now everything is buzzing with life and prosperity in the East, but, at the same time, I did not find any city except Chicago where so much life and bustle and activity was to be found as with us.

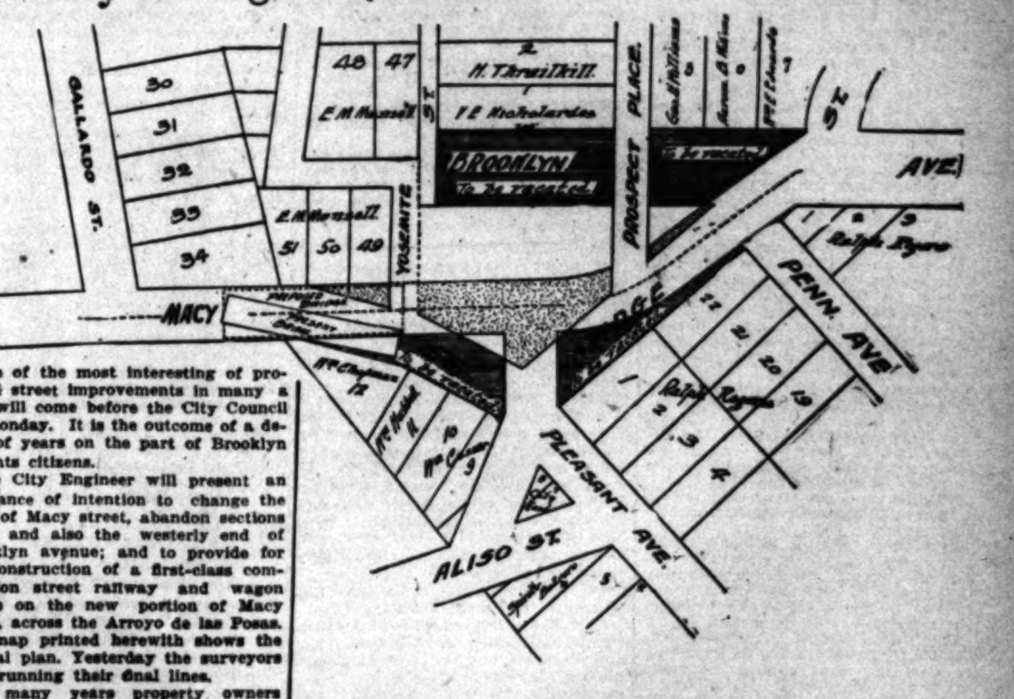
"This trip convinces me that the greatest thing we ever did was to illuminate Broadway. It has advertised us far and wide. There is not another street in the country like it.

"I think a few more streets like it would be the best investment we could possibly make."

Mr. Zeehandelaar says that Fawcett Robinson, the professional designer of floats, will be in this city about the first of November to start on the Fiesta floats. Some of his subjects will be Oriental in honor of the Shriners.

The date of the Fiesta is May 7-12.

Brooklyn Heights Plans Street Transformation.



One of the most interesting of proposed street improvements in many a day will come before the City Council on Monday. It is the outcome of a desire of years on the part of Brooklyn Heights citizens.

The City Engineer will present an ordinance of intention to change the lines of Macy street, abandon sections of it, and also the westerly end of Brooklyn avenue; and to provide for the construction of a first-class combination street railway and wagon bridge on the new portion of Macy street, across the Arroyo de las Posas. The map printed herewith shows the general plan. Yesterday the surveyors were running their final lines.

For many years property owners have been agitated, from time to time, with plans for the betterment of street conditions on this section of Brooklyn Heights. Older residents will remember the long-drawn-out efforts to fix the present street lines at the converging of Pleasant avenue, Aliso street, Brooklyn avenue, Macy and Bridge streets: the public spirit shown by many property holders in deeding their lands and subscribing to funds to settle with others who saw a chance to "cinch" the city, and held out for exorbitant prices for properties needed for proposed changes.

But, after all was accomplished, the arrangement never was exactly satisfactory, and the peculiar angles, curves and grades stood out only the more prominently when the Los Angeles Railway Company built its car line there.

Later the street railway passed into the hands of the Pacific Electric Company, and the tracks were switched down the hill to Macy street. This freak of engineering has constantly been the terror of timid passengers, the dread of motormen and conductors, and a menace to the railway.

Drivers of vehicles find the route almost as aggravating, and, while there may be beauty in curves, the Brooklyn Heights citizens prefer to be not quite so esthetic.

Abandonment of the proposed sections of the street will about offset the amount which must be taken from private ownership. As the abandoned streets will revert to the property adjoining them, several property owners will be much benefited directly by the change, while the whole neighborhood will participate in the general benefits and is rejoicing over the prospects.

The grade will be raised from the intersection of Macy and Gallardo streets to Macy and Brooklyn avenue. The steepest grade on the new street section will be 6½ per cent.

The plan provides for a combination steel bridge, 200 feet long and fifty-five feet wide, with space for double car, a wagon roadway at either side, and outside of these walks for pedestrians.

Considerable of the land affected is city property. Some has been occupied by "squatters" for years. Right under the place where the new bridge will span the arroyo valley lives a character, Señor Francisco Arce. For thirty years his little "casa" has stood on the steep hillside, and he has been content; but now he grieves, for the Americaños may insist on his moving out; they have such strange ways, tearing up streets, and moving them around—and where will it all end? Quien sabe?

Another old-timer who will doubtless be affected by the changes is Señora Rafaela Villaves, for twenty-seven years a hillside denizen. And that old landmark, the store and residence of Señora Dolores R. de Dunn, at the corner of Gallardo and Macy streets, may have to go.

In most cases, it is understood, the property owners directly affected are willing to deed the required land without money compensation.

An interesting point has arisen in connection with the proposition to shift the street to the north and abandon parts of the present Macy street. Will this invalidate the street-railway franchise on this street? Has the city a right to abandon the street on which it has granted this franchise, and allow the railway to occupy the new sections, or will it be necessary for the railway to secure a new franchise for the new parts of the street?

These questions have been submitted to the City Attorney's office by representatives of the railway company. Assistant City Attorney Hewitt said yesterday that it is his opinion the city has the right to transfer the street lines in accordance with the proposed plan, notwithstanding the present franchise, and that when the street lines are shifted the franchise covers the same grounds as the new street.

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The special Council committee appointed Monday to recommend a plan for reopening the South Park avenue car line yesterday afternoon reported that it has been unable to suggest a compromise to which the attorneys for the city and the railway company will agree.

Spring street, Broadway, Hill and Main streets, as far south as Eleventh street, were recommended yesterday by the Board of Public Works for addition to the conduit district.

The application of Adam Hahn and his wife for divorce, each asking relief, served yesterday to bring down the animadversions of the court, and a denial to both of the parties.

The First Cumberland Presbyterian Church is in a wrangle whether the name shall be changed or not, but behind that contention is a dispute over a change in the status of the church itself.

The pitiable spectacle of a former Superior Judge of San Diego pleading for leniency in a police court was presented yesterday in Justice Chambers's tribunal. His disgrace was due to drink.

AT THE CITY HALL.

NO RELIEF FOR SOUTH PARK.

COUNCIL COMMITTEE FAILS TO EFFECT COMPROMISE.

Attorney Harris Gives Warning That Department Quarrels are Grave Menace to City's Welfare—Thinks Bickerings Prevent Solution of Railway Muddle—One More Trial.

"As a citizen, I feel it my duty, my privilege, to warn the Council that I see grave dangers to our great enterprises in these controversies, these quarrels between the coördinate branches of the city government. As citizens we have a right to demand that personal differences be not permitted to interfere with civic affairs."

MAYOR M'ALEER

For the fourth time this week Attorney Will A. Harris yesterday afternoon appealed to the Council, the City Attorney and the Mayor to cut the Gordian knot that ties up the car line on South Park avenue.

For the fourth time his appeal brought forth only narrations of coördinate departments working at cross purposes. In their desperation Mr. Harris dropped his official cloak as an attorney and read the Council a homily on harmony, sharply criticising the departments for working out of tune.

But this new method of attack failed to accomplish definite results; the Council met, talked the situation over for three hours and, to the supreme disgust of the Sixth Ward, dust-stained and indignant in the lobby, agreed to meet again Monday and talk the situation over some more.

Mr. Harris's appeal to the civic patriotism of the city officials was, however, not wholly in vain. Last night for the first time a movement was set on foot which gives promise of finally compassing an amicable understanding between the Mayor, the Council and the attorneys for the municipality and the railway company, under the terms of which cars will be operated on South Park avenue and no questions asked.

"We are standing on the threshold of greatness," said Mr. Harris in his final appeal; "we will either march on or remain where we are. I know what a split in departments means when great things are to be done.

"Frequently during the last three or four days I have heard the statement made in financial circles that our great Owens River project is being endangered by quarrels between the branches of the city government."

Attorney Harris's solution of the present controversy between the city and the railway company is to have the question of running cars on South Park avenue referred to jointly by the city and the citizens to Judge York.

"If Judge York will say that to start the cars running would prejudice the city's interests in the suit now on appeal to the Supreme Court," said Mr. Harris, "then my clients, the citizens who live along the line of this railway, will be content to walk until the case is settled. They are Americans and will stand by their guns if the city's interests are in danger. But we believe that it would have no effect whatever on the suit, and that the judge would tell us so."

Assistant City Attorney Goudge did not receive this suggestion with favor. He had just told the Council that it is the opinion of the City Attorney that to enter into such an arrangement would prejudice the city's prospects of winning the litigation.

"Would you consent to such an arrangement?" asked President Summerland.

"Certainly, but it is inconceivable that Judge York would consent to render any opinion. He decided the case. It is not to be expected that he would consent to give legal advice to either the plaintiff or the defendant."

Councilman Smith expressed the opinion that there should be some way to start the cars running; he asked the City Attorney for a suggestion.

Mr. Goudge replied that the Superior Court has already decided that the railway company has no franchise on South Park avenue; that it is a trespasser there. "What you ask," he went on, "is whether there is a way for the city to ignore a judgment of the court. That judgment has been given. There is no way by which it may be evaded."

In response to a question from a Councilman, Mr. Goudge said that he had drawn up a resolution by which the Council might instruct the City Attorney to request the Attorney-General to bring suit in the name of the State declaring a forfeiture of the San Pedro-street franchise.

"Do not understand that I am recommending to the Council that this resolution be passed," explained Mr. Goudge. "I have prepared it in order that if any resolution is passed it should be in legal form."

Councilman Kern wanted to know.

"Would the adoption of this resolution relieve the present condition out South Park way?" he asked.

"It would not," replied the Assistant City Attorney.

"Then I think it would be well for us to give this resolution more mature consideration," rejoined Kern; "that is a long franchise. This might result in tieing up the entire line. Instead of improving conditions we should be confronted by ten times the present number of protesting property owners."

In this opinion the other Councilmen joined, and the resolution requesting that a forfeiture suit be started went over for further consideration next Monday.

Councilman Blanchard reported that the special committee appointed last Monday has made repeated efforts to effect a compromise, to which the attorneys of the railway company and the city will jointly agree, but that it has been unsuccessful.

This committee was instructed to continue its efforts until next Monday and President Summerland counseled all the legislators to turn to and lend a hand.

TO ENLARGE DISTRICT.

THAT CONDUIT ORDINANCE.

Three committees waged a battle royal for a few minutes before the Board of Public Works yesterday, each seeking to convince the members that the streets which it represents are more entitled to be placed in the conduit district than either of the others.

Under the provisions of an ordinance passed by the former Council two miles of streets are to be added yearly to the conduit area. The streets are to be selected by the Council.

Simon Pinto et al argued in favor of Temple street from Hill street to Union avenue. Their stock argument is that the street is about to be paved with asphalt and that the poles and wires should come down before this improvement is made.

A delegation of Grand avenue property-owners spoke in favor of that thoroughfare between Temple and Pico streets. The argument backing up this petition, like the one on Temple street, is that the thoroughfare is about to be paved with asphalt and that the poles should go and the wires be placed under ground in conduits before the asphalt is laid.

Mr. Lissner gained the ear of the board by telling them that he represents the Main street, Spring street and Hill street improvement associations and that the Broadway association has joined with them in a petition that the streets selected this year be those on the fringe of the present business district and within the fire limits.

Here are the streets for which the improvement associations are petitioning:

Main street from Seventh to Eleventh streets; Spring street from Seventh street to its southern terminus; Broadway from Seventh street to its southern terminus; Hill street from Seventh to Ninth street; Ninth street from Main to Figueroa streets; Eighth street from Main to Hill streets; Seventh street from Main to Hill streets.

Mr. Lissner told the board that these streets are all within the fire limits and that the City Engineer has estimated that the entire list comprises but two miles of roadway.

In support of this application Mr. Lissner offered a communication from Manager Morrow of the Pacific Board of Fire Underwriters, indorsing the selection of streets advocated by the improvement associations. In this communication Morrow quotes the following clause from the recommendations of the Committee of Twenty that last spring looked Los Angeles over from a fire insurance point of view:

"That all wires within the mercantile district, excepting possibly trolley wires, be placed underground as soon as practicable."

Commenting on the recommendation Morrow says:

"Without question overhead wires are objectionable from an insurance standpoint, as well as from the standpoint of public safety. They invite accident, particularly in case of storm and also impede the work of firemen in raising ladders, either for rescuing the inmates of buildings or for carrying hose to upper stories. At time of fire they may become a menace to the firemen themselves.

"With the large property values at stake in the business section and the increasing population of buildings in that section, it seems time that a further extension of the underground conduit system in the mercantile district is desirable."

The petitioners for the streets inside the fire limits called the attention of the board to the fact that the city last year selected two miles of the thoroughfare on Figueroa sreet and Grand avenue to be included in the conduit district, and not a block of ditch was dug. In some cases the wires were strung in back alleys, in others the poles remain on the streets.

They said that the lighting and power companies will not construct conduits in the residence districts, that they are too expensive. If the streets on the southern fringe of the business district are selected the companies, so the petitioners allege, will build the conduits.

The board took the petitions under advisement. After the regular session was over they met for a few minutes by themselves and decided to recommend the streets named by the improvement associations.

SCOTT "MAKES GOOD."

Death Valley Miner Gets Great Reception at the Grand Operahouse on His First Appearance.

When Scotty came on with the cowboys at the Grand Operahouse last night, in "The Queen of the Highway," a thunder-clap of applause split the silence from orchestra floor to ceiling decoration. The theater was packed full of people, a great majority of whom had evidently been attracted by the magnetism of the desert personality. Once on, in the distinguishing negligee of soft hat, flannel shirt, red necktie and long overcoat, the single eye of the audience hit the target at once, and the ensuing noise drowned all speech for fully a minute.

Then Scotty stepped forward. He took off his hat, held it under his left arm, and stretched out his right in a preliminary gesture as he did so. "Well, ye see, it's this way," he said. "I'm startin' in here as an actor, and I'm goin' to show folks that I ain't as big a fool as the newspapers try to make me out. The Santa Fé hasn't any gratitude. After I'd made 'em famous, with my ride that made their stock go up a point 'n a quarter, they turned me down cold. I went down there the other day and offered 'em over $10,000 in cash for another special train; they didn't say anything, nor have the right kind o' nerve to just exactly call my bluff, but I noticed there was a sort o' coldness 'round, like the chills on a frosty morning. So ye see I went on out. What do they know about the speed I was goin' to make? Them fellers in mahogany chairs ain't got the exact idea of what we can do—it's only the feller in the iron horse that knows what's goin' to happen."

Scotty talked for nearly five minutes, and his audience was with him on every point. He made no grand-stand cowboy plays, and after his exit the piece progressed as smoothly as before.

Taylor will have Scotty's new play finished by January 1, 1906, and will probably call it "Scotty, King of the Desert Mine." In it the writer will play the spender up against fashionable folk in the East.

Taylor has a great liking for Scott in a personal way, and believes that he is a genuine national character.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

FINGERS MADE BEFORE FORKS.

ODD CAUSES THAT DISRUPTED HAHN HOUSEHOLD.

Husband Lured His Wife Back With a Choice Bit of Real Estate, but the Conduct of Her Stepson Gave the Marital Compact Its Deathblow.

Because she had the misfortune to marry a man who had an ill-mannered son by his first marriage, Mrs. Anna Hahn applied for a divorce.

Because his wife went to stay with a married daughter by a previous marriage while recuperating from the inroads made upon her nervous energy by the unruly son, and did not return, Adam Hahn applied for a divorce. And he got his application in first.

Mrs. Hahn thought that her husband didn't love her and that is why she didn't return home. Mr. Hahn thought his wife had married him for his money, and that is why he didn't go to bring her home.

Hahn is well advanced in years and fairly well equipped with worldly pelf, so that when he married again in February of last year no one had much to say save George Hahn, the son of the old man, whose very presence was an offense to his stepmother.

After the marriage Hahn deeded to his wife some property at the corner of San Pedro and Eleventh streets, that promises to be very valuable. That was given merely as a token of love and affection. But a month later Mrs. Hahn was taken down with nervous prostration, and as her husband showed no desire that she should have a doctor, she went to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anna Schrader, on West Adams street.

Mrs. Hahn returned home on the promise that her husband would salve over his shortcomings by giving her another piece of real estate. And he did it, the deed being made in her name and then deposited in a safety deposit vault. But the actions of son George were too much, and trouble soon began again. Mrs. Hahn said that this young man tabooed his knife and fork at table and ate with his fingers, and after sucking the succulence from them would use the table cloth as a serviette—oh, it was awful. Then, too, he gave his stepmother the shivers by spitting, and though his long shots at the stove were creditable as showing accuracy of aim, the exhibition disgusted the old lady. When she remonstrated George retorted by saying that the house was his more than hers, and if she didn't like it she could—well, he allowed her to draw her own inference.

After that there was always a sinking spell, Mrs. Hahn would have hysterics, and she would remain a day or two in bed.

A crisis was reached one night when Hahn sent George out of the room and accused his wife of stealing a deed to some property. She denied it, and told him that it was in the safety deposit vault. Then he told her that she prevaricated—though in far more direct language, and threatened to choke her. Mrs. Hahn said that she could see his fingers wiggling in a desire to carry his threat into execution.

Judge Conrey refused Hahn his divorce and also denied relief to Mrs. Hahn on her cross-complaint. Worse than that, he refused to set aside the deed given by Hahn to lure his wife back to her home.

THREE DAYS' LIMIT.

THE BRIDE DESERTED.

It was in June of last year that George Lewis Machris married a Long Beach girl amid all kinds of wishes and prognostications of future happiness. The groom was pretty well fixed with this world's goods, and had a good business as cigar box manufacturer, besides having a mother who is credited with being quite a wealthy woman.

Two weeks had they been married, only three days of which were spent in a pretty little home here, when the bride left her husband. Yesterday Judge York granted Machris a divorce from the woman on the ground of desertion.

The honeymoon had been cut short for some reason, and on the fourth day after their return Machris went home only to find his wife gone, leaving behind a note explaining that she could not make him happy.

In vain did Machris journey time after time to the parental home at Long Beach to which the young woman had gone, only to be spurned in his efforts to get her to live with him. Once she told her mother to "chase that fellow out of the house."

Later, when the girl and her mother came to Los Angeles to live at No. 424 Hill street, Machris made one more call, seeking to get back the girl's love. A strange man's hat and coat were on the lounge. Out of curiosity, Machris pushed open a door leading into a bedroom, and there saw a hotel waiter whom he recognized.

Then he lost all interest in the woman and the divorce proceedings followed.

CHANGE IN NAME.

PRESBYTERIAN SQUABBLE.

Members of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Los Angeles are wrought up over a discussion on "What's in a name?" Being unable to agree they have carried the matter into the courts, and legal debates over the knotty problem have been set for Monday morning next.

The argument was innocently set going when the trustees of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church petitioned the court for leave to change the name of the church to that of the "Westlake Presbyterian Church." It was set out that the church was no longer under the control of the Los Angeles Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and that last July it had joined the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The petition would have gone through and been granted had it not been for a protest filed by R. B. Gill, who claims to be a member in good standing of the church in question. He attacks the method by which the transfer of the church was made, and claims the call issued in the first instance was unconstitutional as there was no emergency such as contemplated in the provision under which the call was made. Then, too, he claims the members of the church were never informed of the change contemplated in switching over from one denomination to another, and the action of the Presbytery in granting the petition was illegal, and from it an appeal was taken to the Pacific Synod.

The matter came up before Judge Wilbur yesterday when, by consent, it was carried over until next Monday.

TOO MUCH BOHEMIA.

DR. EDWIN HYDE'S LAPSE.

Mrs. E. Hyde, whose husband is a somewhat prominent dentist with offices in the Johnson block, was granted a divorce yesterday by Judge Trask, on the ground of "Bohemianism." Technically the ground alleged was desertion, but only by skimming over the thin places was the investigation kept to so narrow a cause.

The Hydes married in November 1891 and lived in a pretty home on Ingraham street. But with ease in financial circumstances Dr. Edwin Hyde developed a love for the frivolous side of life, and two years ago he absented himself from his home altogether. Since then his wife said that only on two occasions has he ever called even to see his boy. The child recently was adopted by Mrs. Mildred C. Titus, a wealthy Oakland woman who is a sister of Mrs. Hyde.

The wife said that her husband had given as an excuse for abandoning his home that he hated to be tied down to a routine of home duties, and that he preferred a Bohemian life. Since the separation she said that she had met him on one occasion at the home of her sister, and had then offered to welcome him back, if he would settle down and be good, but the doctor had snubbed his wife. He again intimated that the revels of Bohemia had him fascinated and he preferred to remain just as he was.

Under the close questioning of Judge Trask Mrs. Hyde conceded that there was a woman in the case. The decree was granted on the ground of desertion.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

CONTRACT HELD UP. In the suit of the Daily Telegram Company against the City of Long Beach, to enjoin the city from letting a printing contract to an opposition paper, the Press, on the ground that the accepted bid was the highest instead of the lowest, Judge Bordwell yesterday ordered a restraining order pending a determination of the issues involved.

SLIPPED THE MESHES. Vlado Pavich and S. Radovich, the two Armenians who were arrested and charged with arson in connection with the burning of a small restaurant at No. 525 West Seventh street, were released yesterday. The case was carried to trial a month ago with the result that the jury hung, and the District Attorney's office thought it useless to proceed with a second trial.

JUST DECAMPED. Mattie Lewis, colored, was granted a divorce from Edwin Lewis yesterday by Judge Trask, on the ground of desertion. There was nothing to the suit save that the husband wanted a change, said so, and left.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

FORMER JUDGE BEGS FOR MERCY.

SAN DIEGO JURIST A PRISONER IN POLICE COURT.

J. W. McDonald, Once on the Superior Court Bench in the Southern City Winds up a Spree by Attacking a Woman—Makes Pitiful Plea for Leniency.

"I have fought and shed blood for my country. Believe me when I say that I do not remember a thing connected with my arrest. I am heartily ashamed of my conduct, and plead with you to be allowed to secure the money with which to pay my fine."

Thus pleaded former Judge J. W. McDonald before Police Justice Chambers yesterday. McDonald was still a trifle unsteady on his underpinning, and his voice was husky. He bowed his head in shame while making an appeal for leniency, and offered an excuse his position as ex-judge and a member of the California bar.

McDonald was formerly a Superior Judge in San Diego county, and is at present connected with the legal department of the Santa Fé railroad.

Monday he secured a room at the Roanoke hotel, No. 137 South Broadway, and, according to the statements of the attaches of this place, he has drawn few sober breaths since that time. Yesterday he was arrested, and haled before Justice Chambers, after regular court hours.

Mrs. A. Toms, who is in charge of the hotel, told a lurid story of the lawyer's demonstrations about the place. His spree culminated in an attempt to force the landlady to drink with him and when she refused he ebcame violent. The police were summoned but the jurist showed fight and was handled somewhat roughly before he could be subdued.

McDonald was a sorry-looking spectacle when he faced Justice Chambers. He was a bit uncertain in the manipulation of his tongue, but managed to make his plea for mercy intelligible.

"I have never before been in such a disgraceful position," he said, pitifully. "I am well acquainted with nearly every member of the local bar, and feel sure that I can secure assistance from some of them and obtain my release. I make no defense. Unquestionably I was drunk, very drunk, or I would not have created the disturbance which is charged against me. I have a name and position to defend, and hope that in the face of this showing some leniency will be forthcoming."

"Mr. McDonald, are you ready for sentence?" queried Justice Chambers.

"I am," came the reply.

"Twenty dollars or twenty days!"

And McDonald was led back to the "bull pen." Meanwhile, in the District Attorney's offices there was much telephoning to locate some friends of the prisoner, and his release followed some time later.

Gas Stove Causes Trouble.

Mrs. Minnie Boram, yesterday filed a complaint charging disturbance of the peace against Mrs. Mary Connors, Mrs. Francis Colbert, Mrs. Mamie Dwyer and William Colbert. An innocent-looking gas hot-plate was the cause of the disturbance, and when arraigned before Police Judge Chambers yesterday afternoon the trial of the cases was set for 10 o'clock November 1. According to the information given the District Attorney's office, the complainant and her daughter have been occupying rooms at No. 939 South Main street. The defendants, it is alleged, asked for a higher rate of rent, in view of the approaching winter season, which was refused. Subsequently a squabble over the use of a gas stove developed, and the complainant avers the defendants broke into her rooms yesterday and attempted to remove the cooking apparatus. A hair-pulling match, it is said, followed. Then came the arrests.

house and pretended to be telephoning to a friend, all the time holding down the receiver hook.

She held an imaginary coversation with a girl whom she pretended to ask to identify her at the bank.

"Oh," she said, "what a shame! You are sick? Can't come down and identify me? What shall I do? I haven't a cent, and can't get my check cashed."

The old lady promptly offered to identify the girl at her own bank, which she did, losing $100 by the transaction. This was returned by Ruby's relatives and no arrest was made.

About two months ago Ruby was arrested at the home of her uncle and foster-father in this city, on a charge of forging two checks with the name of Mrs. Louise Bowen, the wife of the former Councilman.

This was accomplished with an ingenuity that is characteristic of all the girl's crimes.

She was out on committee work for her Sunday-school class with another girl, and went into the Bowen house to use the telephone. She saw Mrs. Bowen's check book lying on the desk and quietly stole it.

When Ruby was brought to the Police Station she did not deny this forgery, but said sweetly that she didn't know anything about it. She said: "I can't remember," and distantly intimated that she had been hynotized.

Then another forgery was discovered. This was for about $700, the name of Ira Phillips, a capitalist, being used.

She had seen his advertisement of a house for sale, and had written him inquiries for the purpose of drawing a letter from him. She then went to his house, and learned at which bank he did business.

The next day she turned up at the National Bank of California, with two checks apparently signed by Phillips; one in favor of "Mrs. Bird," and the other in favor of "Mr. Bird."

She told the bank teller that she was Mrs. Bird. He would not pay the Mr. Bird check at first, because it was not indorsed; whereupon she disappeared, coming back in an hour with the check indorsed by Mr. Bird in a bold masculine hand.

She got the money. The money obtained from the Bowen forgeries she returned, giving her personal check a few hours after her arrest; the Ira Phillips has never been heard from.

Before the preliminary examination the bank cashier said that a man was with Ruby when she came back with the check indorsed. This was flatly denied by the bank teller at the hearing.

Ruby finally abandoned the story that she was hypnotised. She said she met a man in the park who persuaded her to forge checks, and then took the money from her and deposited it in her presence in a Long Beach bank; he was to invest the money for her in Goldfield.

The detectives took her to Long Beach, but could find no such deposits.

Note Change in Rate for Sunday Classified Advertisements.

Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1905, and thereafter, the rate for Sunday "Liners" will be 1½ cents per word for each insertion, minimum charge 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of The Times, which averages over 60,000 copies. (When the 1-cent-per-word rate was established in 1892, the Sunday Times circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

ST. VINCENT'S FALL BEFORE OCCIDENTAL.

RAGGED football by St. Vincent's resulted in the defeat of Haggerty's bunch, 34 to 6. Occidental is "it."

The score might easily have been 100 to 0 in favor of either side, and before the contest was over the 800 spectators became disgusted with the exhibition. The game was delayed by the indisposition of both teams. The last half was mercifully shortened, yet it did not end until dark.

"Time out" was taken at every opportunity and more than two hours were occupied in plawing the game. The first half had thirty minutes of actual play, the second twenty.

For a short time the contest was spirited and the crowd was glad it had paid 50 cents to see the fun. St. Vincent's made the first touchdown after a few minutes' play. Goal was kicked. Occidental followed with a touchdown. Goal was missed. With a score of 6 to 5 in their favor the orange men went in to win.

McElroy, the crack St. Vincent's end, who had stopped every play, essayed around his side, sprained his ankle severely and was obliged to quit. St. Vincent's lost heart as Occidental began to make long gains around the position left by the disabled player.

Touchdowns were scored in rapid succession, and the black-and-gold players bored holes into the orange line wide enough for a bale of hay to roll through.

Before the first half was over the game was practically lost to St. Vincent's and interest also lost by the crowd.

By losing the game by such a score St. Vincent's is conceded to be out of the running for the championship this season.

Costly fumbles by Occidental during both halves convinced football men the Presbyterian team will be "easy" for Pomona or the University of Southern California.

Andreas, fullback of St. Vincent's, played a consistent game, but was not given support by the rest of the team. McDonald, quarterback, played as well as usual. The Catholics also made many fumbles and failed to develop an interference. They were weakest on defensive playing.

Penalties came thick and fast. Both teams held in the line, and there was much off-side playing.

For Occidental, Spalding the quarterback, was the star. Petty, as left guard, played a good game and Wieman, left tackle, was undoubtedly the best player on either side.

There were several disputes and a free fight was narrowly averted after the game.

Both sides were obliged to make many changes in the line-up before the end. St. Vincent's substituted seven men and Occidental six. Some of the best players of both elevens left the game early in the afternoon.

THE TUSSLE.

Occidental kicked off to St. Vincent a few minutes after 3 o'clock. Acker caught the ball and ran in fifteen yards. On the first down, St. Vincent fumbled, and the ball went to the Presbyterians.

Occidental promptly followed suit by fumbling, allowing the ball to roll into a St. Vincent man's hands.

The orange men were penalized fifteen yards for holding, but McElroy saved the day by running the ball back into safety.

St. Vincent's fumbled and Occidental secured the ball. The Presbyterians tired a quarterback punt, fumbled and lost the ball which was recovered by Phelps of St. Vincent's, who ran 45 yards for a touchdown. Wilhoit kicked goal.

Occidental again kicked to St. Vincent's and the ball was brought back eleven yards. Acker made fifteen yards around end.

Penalties for off-side playing and for holding became frequent, and many fumbles were made.

Finally Occidental took the ball and by straight bucking sent the spheroid over the St. Vincent goal line. Wieman missed goal. Score, St. Vincent's, 6; Occidental, 5.

Occidental opened holes in the St. Vincent's line and circled the ends of the opposing team at will. The half ended with a score of 23 to 6 in favor of Occidental.

SECOND HALF.

St. Vincent kicked to Merrill of Occidental, who returned the ball 17 yards. On the first down Merrill made a well-executed run of 50 yards. Clark bucked right tackle for 5 yards. B. Merrill fumbled on St. Vincent's 3-yard line, but recovered the ball and went over tackle for 8 yards and a touchdown. Wieman missed goal. Score, Occidenal, 28; St. Vincents, 6.

Wieman kicked off to St. Vincent's. After several downs Occidental held and got the ball.

Delayed passes secured long end runs until the ball was brought to St. Vincent's 5-yard line. By a straight buck Occidental crossed the chalk. Wieman kicked goal.

After another kick-off the game ended with the ball near the middle of the field.

BERKELEY AND REDS FIT FOR THE FRAY.

THE much-talked-of Berkeley-Indian football game that has been agitating the minds of local enthusiasts for several weeks, will be played this afternoon, and every indication points to a big football day, not only in the way of attendance, but in the playing of the teams. Up to last night the advance sale of seats had reached the handsome sum of $2500, which is considered remarkably good under all the conditions.

That there will be a monster crowd present goes without saying, for the game will be the first big one of the season and the teams are supposed to be the best on the Coast. In addition to the crowd represented by the big advance sale of seats, a large delegation will come in from Riverside and surrounding towns to see the Indians perform, and if they lose there will be many a disappointed enthusiast in this end of the State.

It is useless, of course, to pick a winner, for there is no "dope" on the teams that will help one to do anything more than guess. The Berkeley team is supposed to be the pick of the university and undoubtedly are good men. The Indian team, of course, has not had as many men to draw from, but they are "huskies" that have been trained by hard work in the fields all summer, and their natural strength and speed have been made the most of by Coach Hempel, who is admitted to be one of the best coaches in the West, and a man who thoroughly understands his business. The Indians have piled up fearful scores against the teams they have met this year, and expect to hold their own today.

The Berkeley team arrived in this city yesterday morning and are registered at the Angelus. There are twenty-five in the squad and they are a strong looking lot of men, who will average about 168, but weight, of course, does not always count in football.

Game will be called this afternoon at Fiesta Park at 3 o'clock sharp, and spectators not there at that time will miss the opening plays. The line-up of the teams is not definitely decided upon as yet, but they will probably go in about as follows:

Berkeley.		Indians.
Haffey	C.	Crawford Coleman
Jordan	L.E.	Kennedy

Storn	L.G.	Morales
Snedigar	R.H.	Neafus
Luce	L.H.	Tortes
Whitman	Q.	Charles Coleman
Sperry	F.B.	Magee

The officials will be K. Hamilton and Bill Traeger, who will alternate as umpire and referee, and the linesmen will be Haggerty and Cadwalader.

HARNESS RACES AT RIVERSIDE.

FINE PROGRAMME IS CARRIED OUT SUCCESSFULLY.

Six Events Furnish Good Sport for the Spectators and Meeting Proves a Very Satisfactory One in Every Way—Other Matinees Will be Given at Regular Intervals.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The first matinée this year of the Riverside Driving Club today was a complete success. The attendance was good, the racing exciting and everything went smoothly except for some delay caused by bad scoring. The management say they will take pains to correct this error in the future by more stringent rules governing jockeys and drivers. Six races were on the card with results as follows:

No. 1—Gentleman's road race for the Riverside Driving Club cup: Prince, driven by his owner, Joseph Hudson, won, Chris second and Chester third; best time 2:56½.

No. 2—Mixed race for three-minute class for the L. F. Binder cup: May S. won, Alta Reo second, White Stocking third; best time 2:43.

No. 3—Mixed 2:30 class for the O'Connor and Gardner cup, of which Lauretta owned two legs, was a close contest between Lauretta and Bonita. Hall was distanced in the first heat and retired on account of lameness. In two close miles, Bonita nosed out ahead of her plucky competitor, and Lauretta lost, the results of her previous good work; best time 2:23¾.

No. 4—2:35 mixed, for the Riverside Driving Club cup: This was a fine horse race between Conchetta and Pete. First one and then the other took a heat. Conchetta stood the hard work more gamely and won. Her best time was 2:30½.

No. 5—2:40 mixed: Win by Betty Raymond, Baby second and Ping Pong third; best time 2:37.

Then came a great struggle between El Diablo and Richard B.. These were the only entries and they fought all around the track. El Diablo won. His best time was 2:18¾.

"BIG KICKS" ARE COMING.

Six Leading College Elevens Tread Gridiron Today.

Yale Will Meet Lively Foe in "Pennsy."

Charley Ellison's Hot Luck. Hart Accuses Jeff.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Six leading college elevens of the East meet tomorrow teams worthy of their best efforts. All should show flashes, at least, of November form. Columbia will start the game against Amherst with the poorest prospects of any of the big teams. The visitors are favorites, although 2 to 1 seems to be too heavy a price.

Pennsylvania will also be put to the test. After many vicissitudes, lasting through several seasons, Brown has built up a strong team. Victory by a large score would surprise the coachers of Pennsylvania, and probably the team itself.

Yale will meet a lively opponent in Pennsylvania State College. The college should roll up a comfortable score. Unless all signs fail, Harvard will defeat West Point. It is safe to say that the Cambridge coaches expect a victory by at least two touchdowns.

Princeton will strike a doughty opponent in Lafayette. Anything more than 12 to 0 would be a good score.

Cornell will tackle the Western University of Pennsylvania, and the Ithacans are a trifle anxious as to the outcome.

HART ACCUSES JEFF.

"TRIED TO 'THROW' FIGHT."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Times publishes an interview with Marvin Hart, in which the latter makes the sensational charge that Jim Jeffries tried to "throw" the Reno fight to Root. Hart says:

"The night before the fight I was in a room in a hotel with Jeffries, Root and Lou Houseman, Root's manager. Jeffries said: 'I wanted to turn my title over to my brother, Jack Jeffries, but I do not believe he can defend it.'

"In the seventh and eighth rounds, Root palpably fouled me, but Jeffries said he did not see it. As certain as I live, the plan was to trim me at Reno, give the championship to Root, and then let Jeffries and Root fight. I am ready to fight Jeffries, and I mean it."

AGAINST AUTOMOBILE RACING.

COUNT SIERSTORPFF RESIGNS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Confirming his resignation as president of the Technical Committee of the German Automobile Club, Count Sierstorpff said:

"I am against racing, and a large number of members of our committee seem to favor it, so, for the time being, as I am not in accord with my colleagues, I have resigned.

"They consider it possible to call a meeting of all automobile clubs to take a vote of their representatives. They want a full international meeting of clubs, and I do not believe the matter can be arranged by any such means. The French Automobile Club does not wish any more racing. I do not think we Germans do either."

HAVANA AUTO RACES.

OVER 100-MILE COURSE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HAVANA, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Arrangements were completed today for the first automobile race season over the hundred-mile course used in the international race last January. The contest will be held Sunday. Several similar races will be held before January, when the international racers are expected here.

CRICKET.

SATURDAY MATCH.

The cricket players will have a chance to show themselves this afternoon, for the Los Angeles and Santa Monica teams will play a match game at Agricultural Park, beginning at 1 o'clock. Both aggregations have put in some hard practice this week and each expects to put it on the other.

Jamaica Results.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Six furlongs: Lochinvar won, Ralbert second, Emergency third; time 1:14.

One mile: Monarchard won, Prestige second, Berinthia third; time 1:48 4-5.

Two Mills at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 20.—"Kid" Herman of Chicago and "Young O'Leary" of Milwaukee fought eight rounds to a draw before the Badger Athletic Club. Every round was a series of even exchanges, mixed with clinches and infighting.

Eddie Santry of Chicago knocked out Johnny Stone of Milwaukee in the second round of a six-round bout.

The Truth About Stoves

By the Largest Makers of Stoves and Ranges in the World

MANY people have been deceived in believing that stoves were cheap because of a low price, when experience proves them the most expensive.

A small price may be paid for a stove which looks attractive in the catalogue, which has been described as "perfect," but it is liable to prove a very expensive purchase; for ten chances to one, trouble will arise from this stove in a month's time—it may not heat or cook properly, or it may consume fuel like a locomotive. Then the material in the stove itself may wear so poorly that at the end of a year or so it will have to be replaced.

You never get something for nothing in this world, and when you pay a small price for a stove, that price must cover the cost of material and labor, and include a reasonable profit, consequently inferior cast-iron and steel, and the cheapest and most inexperienced labor, must go into this seemingly low-priced stove.

Expert Stove Advice Free.

We have opened an "Advice Department," in charge of an expert stoveman, simply to tell the people, absolutely free of cost, all about stoves. And this expert will honestly advise you just which stove or range will best suit your needs. We also want those who have lost money on the seemingly inexpensive stove, to let us tell them how they can save money by buying a "Garland," even if the first cost is a little more than that of the cheap and unsatisfactory stove. We want them to let us tell them about the advantages of "Garland" Stoves and Ranges, which always prove a good investment.

We make a "Garland" to fit every stove need, and have books accurately describing the different kinds. We could not afford to open this "Advise Department" or send out the valuable literature we do, free of charge, if "Garland" Stoves and Ranges were not distinctly superior to other makes; if the magnitude of our operations did not make it possible for us to sell them at reasonable prices, and if our reputation and methods of doing business did not insure absolute satisfaction.

If you are considering the purchase of a stove or range, cut out this coupon, check (this way ✓) the kind of stove you are interested in, mail it to us today, and you will promptly receive our Expert Advice as to just which stove is best suited to your needs, and why, and our literature, free of charge.

Receiving our Expert Advice and literature will not put you under any obligation to buy. We simply desire the opportunity to give you the evidence of the tremendous superiority of "Garland" Stoves and Ranges, and leave the buying decision entirely with you.

* * *

In order that "Garland" Stoves and Ranges shall last, we make them of the very best materials and employ the most expert workmen in the world.

"Garland" Stoves and Ranges are durable and handsome in appearance. They are highly nickeled and each "Garland" will last a lifetime.

"Garland" Stoves and Ranges will not "burn out," but will heat and cook perfectly, and will save fuel, save repairs, save worry, save money.

We have local dealers who handle our stoves exclusively, in nearly every village, town and city in the United States. You can examine "Garlands" before you buy, instead of after. You can satisfy yourself that "Garlands" are exactly as represented. There will be no freight to pay on "Garlands" and the dealer will set them up without charge.

If no dealer in your town sells "Garlands," or you decide to buy a stove not in your local dealer's stock, you can enjoy the above advantages. We will make a special arrangement so that the stove you want will be delivered to you and properly set up ready for use in your own home.

The Written Guarantee of The Michigan Stove Company accompanies every stove, and protects you by the absolute guarantee that every "Garland" is as represented—The World's Best.

SAN PEDRO.

BIG TALK OF KELLY.

SAN PEDRO, Oct. 20.—Luke Kelly still sticks to the assertion that he is a marine railway promoter.

According to the statements of those who are supposed to be the promoters the question whether this harbor is to be provided with an adequate marine railway in the near future depends upon the outcome of a suit heard before Judge Bordwell in Los Angeles today. This suit was brought some time ago by Luke Kelly to compel James Weir, president of the Board of City Trustees, to sign a lease to a certain part of the outer harbor which the plaintiff alleges was granted to him by the board. In speaking of the matter today Mr. Kelly said:

"I have every reason to believe Judge Bordwell's decision will be favorable. Should this be the case a syndicate has been formed to commence work at once on a marine railway on the west side of the inner harbor to cost between $15,000 and $20,000 and adequate to handle any vessel now coming to San Pedro. Provision will be made for painting vessels and doing all work of that nature. We will give steady employment to ten or fifteen men. The lease which I claim was granted to me by the Board of Trustees is for territory about 2000 feet in length. The east side will be used for the erection of a commodious bath-house and pleasure wharf. Of course nothing will be done pending the decision of Judge Bordwell, but in the event it is favorable, work will be at once begun along the lines that I have outlined."

The application for the lease referred to by Mr. Kelly was made about two years ago. It adjoins the concession recently granted by the city to H. E. Huntington.

Pen Points

The President is just dodging around visiting the folks, and at present he is among his mother's people.

The man who has money has not such an easy time after all. He must work to keep his money at work.

McCurdy and McCall both continue to show their faith in the solvency of their respective companies by refusing to resign their jobs.

In order to preserve its "ancient prerogatives" the United States Senate might pass a bill at its next session abolishing grand juries.

Russian students are being punished because they will not attend lectures. In this country we are punished because we persist in attending them.

A dispatch states that an Armenian has been sentenced to death in Turkey. Every Armenian in Turkey is sentenced to death the moment he is born.

George Ade claims to be in Shakespeare's class. No objection being offered by Mr. Shakespeare, let the minutes of the meeting stand adopted as read.

If it is Cuba's intention to merely make treaties with England, but to do business with us, that's a horse of another color, and we're willing to call up the drinks and let bygones be bygones.

The lawyers for Banker Dougherty, who got away with $750,000 of depositors' money, will endeavor to show that he is crazy. The lawyers for the depositors do not have to make the same showing for their clients. Everybody can see it.

The Los Angeles Express suggests that everybody who wants the Mayor to do something should call him up on the telephone. Just turn this Express suggestion with all its awful consequences over in your mind, and then see if you can answer the question: "Why is an ass?"

The Republicans of Pennsylvania smashed the Republican machine in 1883 and again in 1890. But it didn't stay smashed. Now the same duty is to be performed this year, and the decent men of the Keystone State should see that the job is done in a manner that will drive the boodlers and the grafters forever out of sight.

The Neue Preussiche Kreuz-Zeitung, from its name evidently a German newspaper, says that "Americans are patriotic with their mouths, but are unwilling to become soldiers in behalf of their country." Now, if Germany will not take that statement seriously enough to get into a fight with us she is the most to-be-congratulated nation on the face of the earth.

We note the fact that another man has married for beauty when he could have married for money. And he's a preacher, too. He evidently ignored the fact that beauty is only skin deep. But maybe if we knew all the details in the case we would find out that the money alleged to have been in sight wasn't much deeper. Let us not be too quick with our opinions on a matter of this kind.

Secretary Wilson predicts that meat and dairy products will be cheaper the coming winter because of the enormous grain crops of the past summer, and adds: "This means that it is again the salaried man's turn to feel prosperity come home." All of which is a plain acknowledgement of the sorry fact that the salaried man is the one class of the population which has not been given a chance to share in the general prosperity that has blessed the country.

Doubtless the theatrical trust will issue from its headquarters in New York a touching set of resolutions of sympathy on the death of Sir Henry Irving. In some dumb, vague way the trust will feel that this will be the proper thing to do. But, according to William Winter and others who ought to know, the art of Sir Henry was about as much understood by the men who compose the trust as a pig would understand the paintings in a pork packer's mansion.

Much as we love the English language, we must admit that it needs a little fixing, here and there, in spots. For instance, a newspaper recently stated that a man who had been imbibing freely was arrested on the street for being tight. And in the same paper there was an item about another man who tried to borrow money from Russell Sage and who expressed the opinion that Mr. Sage was also tight, although it is well known that he never touches liquor in any shape or form.

Theoretically, it was all right to compel automobiles to display numbers, but in practice we are able to see but little good in it. If a number is in front a man hasn't time to fix it in his mind before he is knocked down, and if it is behind, he is in no condition to sit up and take notice of the number after the juggernaut has passed over him. The only way out of it for the pedestrian, as far as we can see, is to stick to the sidewalk, and if he must cross a street, let him wait until late at night, after the traffic has stopped.

BUSINESS.

The Chicago wheat market seemed to be under control of a prominent long. Bull movements gave firm undertone, and the close was at 86⅝ for December. Dealings in stocks expanded at New York, and miscellaneous securities displayed skyrocket tendencies. The close was strong. In the day's money market, the only unfavorable factor was the continued aggressive advance of sterling exchange.

A FATAL CONFESSION.

Officials of the Chicago Typographical Union No. 16 make a confession fatal to their cause when they admit that they cannot succeed in their strike against the Typothetae unless they are permitted to practice intimidation and violence, in the guise of picketing. As The Times has frequently pointed out, there is and can be no such thing as peaceful picketing. This is a war measure, in its essence and its practical operation. Its underlying purpose is intimidation, carried to the extreme of violence if the latter be necessary to accomplish the desired purpose.

These officials of the Typographical Union seem to think that some of their inherent rights are denied them when they are enjoined from attacking other men to prevent the latter from accepting employment, or continuing it. They declare that it is impossible for them to obey the injunction of Judge Holdom, and that if that injunction was issued in good faith and not as a "bluff," every member of the Chicago union of printers will have to go to jail.

Judge Holdom is not "bluffing."

"Organizer" Harding, of the union, declared that the employés have been "enjoined from carrying on their fight," and he bitterly denounced "any judicial ruling which went so far as to declare himself and other members of the union criminals."

This is a confession that he and his associates are in fact criminals. For intimidation and violence are unlawful and criminal acts, and the union officials declare that the success of their cause depends upon the commission of these unlawful or criminal acts.

Judge Holdom, in denying the petition to dissolve the temporary injunction, declared that the union and its members were engaged in the unlawful enterprise of endeavoring by unlawful means "to force upon complainants an unlawful contract of closed shop and an eight-hour day, and using threats, intimidations, the picket-line, bribery and boycott as means to this end. Such an enterprise," the court said, "is in the highest legal sense unlawful, and in some elements of force and violence, criminal. Picketing in sufficient force to intimidate is unlawful."

The following, quoted also from Judge Holdom's decision, is unanswerable: "The foundation of the strike in this case," he said, "is the union contract demanding a closed shop and the eight-hour day. Both the closed shop and the eight-hour day are unlawful when it is attempted to coerce the employer to enter into them against his will. The United States Supreme Court held that the sovereign power of the State of New York could not force an eight-hour day upon the employer, and what the sovereign power of a State cannot do cannot be done by any other power."

This is good logic as well as good law. It forces the Typographical Union into a hole from which it cannot easily escape.

Any cause that depends for its success upon intimidation, violence, bribery and the boycott, must necessarily fail when brought to bar in the court of public opinion.

ROOSEVELT SWERVES NOT.

Some opponents of government regulation of railway rates are already claiming that the President, in his speech at Raleigh, N. C., "abandoned, absolutely, the rate feature" of his former recommendations regarding railway legislation.

This assertion is unqualifiedly untrue. To demonstrate its falsity, the only thing necessary is to read the President's Raleigh speech, or so much of it as pertains to the rate question. In this notable address, the President not only adheres firmly to his previously-announced opinions, but he gives them particular emphasis. No careful reader, after perusing the President's speech, can find in it a word or a sentence which indicates the slightest recession from his former position.

"In my judgment," declares the President, "the most important thing to do is to give to this administrative body (the Interstate Commerce Commission) power to make its findings effective, and this can be done only by giving it power, when complaint is made of a given rate as being unjust or unreasonable, if it finds the complaint proper, then itself to fix a maximum rate which it regards as just and reasonable, this rate to go into effect practically at once—that is, within a reasonable time—and to stay in effect unless reversed by the courts."

This is the crux of the whole question of government rate regulation. It is the vital, the essential, part of the question. At present the Interstate Commission has power only to declare what, in its opinion, should be a maximum rate. Then, in order to make that rate effective, it must be reaffirmed by the courts, the railroads meanwhile exacting the rate which the commission has declared to be unjust and unreasonable.

We all know of the law's delays. It is to the interest of the carriers to prolong the litigation so long as possible, in order that they may continue to reap the benefit of the unreasonable rate. Cases of this kind usually drag through the courts for years. The orange-rate case in Southern California has thus dragged, shippers being forced, meanwhile, to pay a rate of $1.25 per box, long after the Interstate Commerce Commission had determined it to be excessive, and that a rate of $1.15 would be reasonable. This case, which is but one out of many, is a matter of thousands of dollars to the orange growers of Southern California. Perhaps the railroads can be made to disgorge some portion of the money paid to them in excessive rates, but this would mean more and costly litigation. It is a question whether the game would be worth the candle.

What the President desires—what the people generally desire—is that a decision when rendered by the Interstate Commerce Commission, shall take effect at once, and shall remain in force unless or until reversed by the courts. In order to avoid delay it is proposed to create a court for the special purpose of considering rate decisions rendered by the commission. If the findings of this court be disputed, the right to appeal to the highest court in the land will still remain.

Instead of "backing down"—a term which has no place in the Rooseveltian lexicon—the President went a little further than he has heretofore gone into the question. He said:

"I earnestly hope that we shall see a law giving this power passed by Congress. Moreover, I hope that by law power will be conferred upon representatives of the government capable of performing the duty of public accountants carefully to examine into the books of railroads, when so ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission, which itself should have power to prescribe what books and what books only should be kept by railroads.

"If there is in the minds of the commission any suspicion that a certain railroad is in any shape or way giving rebates or behaving improperly, I wish the commission to have power, as a matter of right, not as a matter of favor, to make a full and exhaustive investigation of the receipts and expenditures of the railroads, so that any violation or evasion of the law may be detected."

As the President declared, there is nothing revolutionary in his proposals. Other corporations than the railroads, having quasi-public relations and doing interstate business, are obliged (and rightfully so) to submit to Federal regulation. This regulation will be lightened and extended in the future, rather than relaxed.

In the nature of things, the railroads of the country are not, and can never become, absolutely private property, nor can they ever transact an absolutely private business. The public and the public rights must always be taken into account as an essential part of the equation. Railroads derive their franchises, their right to do business, their raison d'etre, primarily from the people. The interests of the people cannot be divorced from them. It is idle to deny the right of the people, through the agencies of their government, to regulate the operation and management of corporations engaged in interstate commerce.

The President disavows any belief in government ownership of the railways, or of "anything which can, with any propriety, be left in private hands." But he regards it as "vital to the well-being of the public that they should be managed in a spirit of fairness and justice toward all the public. Actual experience has shown that it is not possible to leave the railroads uncontrolled."

These expressions do not indicate any desire or intention of the President to "back down." Rather do they show that he is in excellent fighting trim. There is no doubt that the "big stick" will cut some figure in coming events. Or is there any doubt that it will be wielded in behalf of "a square deal—no more, no less."

THE ROYAL DANE.

It is all but a fixed fact that Prince Charles, grandson of old King Christian of Denmark, is to be the King of Norway. The Prince is about 33 years old and is the second son of the Prince Royal of Denmark, his mother being a niece of King Oscar of Sweden. Prince Charles is married to the Princess Maud, daughter of the King of England, and her mother is daughter of King Christian of Denmark. Prince Charles and Princess Maud, his wife, are therefore first cousins.

When the crowning takes place, if all the royal Danes are present, there will be a great many uneasy pates if Shakespeare's views of heads that wear crowns is correct.

There will be King Christian himself, the father of kings, a man of very great age, over six feet in height, kingly, kindly, gracious beyond the wont of kings. There will be his son, King George of Greece, the Dowager Empress of Russia, daughter to King Christian and her son, Czar Nicholas II, and there will be Queen Alexandra of England. With all the children and grandchildren of King Christian in the procession, like the vision of Macbeth, it could "stretch out to the crack of doom," or somewhere near it.

THE CASSELMAN PUZZLE—RUBY SOLVES IT.

Miss Ruby Casselman's confession, printed in The Times this morning, must jostle those soft-hearted persons who wept over her story of having been under the hypnotic influence of a wicked but unknown Svengali.

Although those victims will doubtless feel resentment against her for having misled their tender sympathies, the fact remains that this girl is one of the most remarkable criminals ever brought into our courts. She is a prodigy of deception.

This slim, flat-chested, young girl is one of the few criminals who have gone through the dreadful ordeal of the police "sweat box" without weakening.

Minus its mysteries, this process consists of being planted in a darkened back room at the Police Station and pelted with questions hour after hour, persistently, doggedly, mercilessly. After about an hour, any but the most steely-nerved criminal will confess to anything from the Fall of Man down.

Most crooks realize that their only safety lies in silence; so they sit dumb and dogged in the sweat box. This girl talked sweetly, smilingly by the hour with the detectives, leaving them worn-out and utterly exasperated; but she would be "sweet" and smiling at the end.

Ruby succeeded as a criminal on account of an audacity that amounted to brilliancy. To match her boldness she should be a brazen, flashy, hard-faced outcast. Yet Ruby is the kind of girl you call "a perfect lady." Since her arrest, she has not done an unrefined or indelicate act.

She has politely wept on the shoulders of all the lady journalists who desired to weep with her.

Every time she was brought into court she looked around the room with the well-bred curiosity any young girl might feel on being brought for the first time in contact with surroundings that appealed to her imagination; she did not show by any sign that the charges concerned her.

Ruby's first story of being hypnotized was never believed for a minute by any one of experience with criminals or hypnotism. Her next story, of being persuaded to crime by a bad man whom she met in the park, to which she adhered up to the hour of confession, is about as absurd.

One other fact should be stated for the benefit of the criminologist who would study this case. All of Ruby's forgeries and games were of a rather intricate character, giving indication of a high power of imagination.

The fact that she was a Sunday-school teacher and took the greatest interest in church society affairs is a picturesque incident, but not actually of the psychological importance that has been attributed to it. It means nothing except that she took that means of being with pleasant young girls and having a good time.

OFF FOR PANAMA.

A "Times" Correspondent Sails for Colon and the Canal Zone.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Charles H. Cochrane, the writer of popular industrial articles, sailed today from New York for Colon, Panama, where he has undertaken to investigate the canal situation expressly for The Los Angeles Times. He will spend several weeks in examining the canal route, the sanitary and political conditions and all that pertains to this colossal engineering work. The first of the articles should reach The Times for publication in December.

Tons of American-made machinery are also on their way to the Isthmus, most of it from western manufacturers.

HALCEYON DAYS.

When the coal is in the cellar, and you've money in the bank,
And the job you have is pleasant, and you're neither stout nor lank;
When the mornings in October are all beautiful and bright,
And you own the house you live in, and your liver is all right;
Oh, it's then that life's worth living, and the effort's worth your while,
And it's then that you may bravely throw your shoulders back and smile
With compassion for the foolish and with pity for the crank,
When the coal is in the cellar and you've money in the bank.

There's something mighty beautiful about this good old earth
When there's nothing you're ashamed of in connection with your birth,
And your hair is staying with you and your lungs are good and strong,
And your teeth are sound, and nothing in the world is going wrong.
He would be a churl, an ingrate, who could sit around and whine
When each morning in October was the finest of the fine,
And his children were so lovely that he never had to spank,
And his coal was in the cellar and he'd money in the bank.

There's a thrill that's coming to you when your brassey lifts the ball,
Which goes sailing over bunkers for two hundred yards to fall
At the edge of where the green is, and then rolls and wriggles up
Till at last it stops within about two inches of the cup,
And this helps to keep a fellow from believing life is vain,
From deciding that the profit isn't worth the wear and strain,
Makes him rather think that living has its bright side, to be frank,
When, with coal piled in the cellar, he has money in the bank.

Life is not a useless hardship when you have no rent to pay,
And your income is sufficient to keep trouble bribed away,
When your clothes are made to fit you, and your head is good and clear,
And there isn't anybody in the world you need to fear;
When your home is filled with sunshine and a lady who can please
Helps to make the office cheerful as her fingers hit the keys;
When your face is still unwrinkled and you're neither stout nor lank,
When your coal is in the cellar and you've money in the bank.

Ancient Love Letter.

Lovers of amatory literature are naturally greatly interested in the discovery of the Babylonian postal card, which has just turned up in the form of a love letter written on a brick by a young man, Gimil, to a young woman, Little Sheep, 2200 years ago. That it was not a gold brick, so far as the young woman was concerned, is demonstrated by "the writing full of affectionate inquiries." While this is not so old by six or seven hundred years as Solomon's impassioned epistles and adddresse to the Shulamite maiden, it will be of interest to observe if it maintains the same degree of high temperature, and if it is as explicit in its general physical delineations. Solomon was a past grand master in the art of jotting down tender and effusive sentiments, and if Gimil equaled him in this respect you may depend upon it he had to get up mighty early and put in a long and strenuous day on his brick. Happily, the postal laws of Babylon were not very oppressive, consequently Solomon and Gimil could both put down sentiments and descriptions on their bricks that would make the present Third Assistant Postmaster-General turn a series of handsprings.—[Chicago Post.

"Fly Dope" for Baldness.

There is a new cure for baldness. This quite unsolicited testimonial is not an advertisement either, but the simple relation of what occurred to one man on his summer vacation. For some years he has been unmistakably bald, not even an encouraging fuzzy down upon the top of his head. This year he went camping in Newfoundland, and he found the mosquitoes, gnats, sandflies and various other insects as formidable as they usually are in those northern woods. He wore a hat as much as he could, but nevertheless his head was unmercifully bitten and needed frequent applications of "fly dope." Behold, a wonder! Since his return home he has been able to exhibit to his friends a brand new growth of downy hairs where all was smooth before. Someone suggests that the insect bites were the direct cause of the desirable result, stimulating the scalp more effectively—if more painfully—than massage. But the man himself scouts such a notion and declares his faith in "fly dope."—[New Orleans Times-Democrat.

He Needed It.

Edward B. Russ, who is to engross the treaty of Portsmouth, is a nature student.

Like many nature students, Mr. Russ thinks that the new nature writers attribute overmuch intelligence to animals. He said with a laugh the other day:

"At the rate we are going it won't be long before we shall be hearing such animal stories as this:

"An old man, on a lonely road among the mountains, was attacked by an eagle.

"The old man defended himself bravely. The bird scratched him with its claws and beat him with its wings. He struck it and kicked it and swore at it.

"Finally, worn out, the eagle withdrew. But it did not go emptyhanded. The old man wore a wig. This wig the eagle scratched off and carried away.

"Surely a remarkably sagacious action on the part of the bird, which was, you will please note, a bald eagle."—[New York Tribune.

Husband: Anything you want down town today, dear? Shall I order some more of that self-raising flour?

Wife: We have plenty left; but I wish you would stop at an intelligence office and order me a self-rising servant girl.—[New York Weekly.

POLITICAL.

COVETED PLUM FAILS TO DROP.

"Push" Glum Over Vacancy in the Land Office.

Place Been Open Nearly a Month and No Action.

Job May be Too Cheap for Turncoat Prescott.

And it came to pass that the first plum on the Flint political tree, known as the United States Land Office, hung rotting on its stem, yea, rotting on its stem it hung, while the hungry multitude gathered in anger and clamored for the fruit, so often, so simultaneously and so willingly promised to each and every one of them.

Full three weeks had the juicy oval swung in the breeze, coveted by those who had been watching for the time when it should become ripe, and yet the picker came not to that part of the orchard, for eke it was said he had other axes to grind and other uncured [illegible] to cultivate.

Since from the setting out of the plum tree had these anxious watchers sat under the spreading branches and waited for the dull thud that would tell them that the office of register of the United States Land Office in Los Angeles had fallen into the hands of one of the many faithful persons to whom it had been promised.

The latest report is that Frank C. ("Turncoat") Prescott of Redlands has discovered suddenly that he cannot accept the place for which he was slated. It has been given out that Prescott announces that he cannot afford to accept the place; that the services he rendered in aiding in the election of Senator Flint really are worth more than the $2000 a year which the office of register pays. He is said to want something better—something like Minister to the Court of St. James, or [illegible] at the throne of Judas Iscariot.

TWO MONTHS; NOTHING DOING.

For two months now, the resignation of Angus J. Crookshank, for nearly eight years in charge of the office, has been in the hands of the Washington officials. It was accepted on September 1 by the Department of the Interior, to become effective October 1, and in the weeks that have intervened, the United States Senators for California have had an opportunity to name the man who should draw the salary of the office for performing the duties thereof.

Promptly upon Mr. Crookshank's resignation it was announced that the place was to go to Prescott, who, as Speaker of the last Assembly, had made the peculiar flop to Flint in the face of promises to his constituents.

Then came a discordant note from San Bernardino county; the people had risen in protest against the act of political perfidy; it was announced that they had sent strong objections to Washington against Prescott's appointment.

Whether these objections have been heeded, or whether schism has arisen in the local ranks of the organization, none pretends to know. The fact remains, though, that the office has been at the disposal of Senator Flint for practically two months without any definite action, whereat the "brickmakers" and others who run with the machine are much perturbed.

"TOO CHEAP"—PRESCOTT.

The report that has been given out is that Prescott learned upon inquiry that the office is not worth as much as he had supposed—that it is not "what it was cracked up to be"—it paid only "about $166 a month," forsooth.

As a matter of fact, the income of the incumbent, which is governed entirely by fees, has not been lower than [illegible] per annum for years, the maximum allowed by law. Every little while the fear has been expressed that the figure would not be maintained, but it is said on good authority that the receipts of the office in the next few years will increase rather than diminish, because of the reclamation work that is being done within the land jurisdiction.

Now it is said that Senator Flint is urging Prescott to accept the office and call his account settled, while the Redlands man, experiencing a sudden change of front, is running as fast as he can in the other direction, hoping to stumble across "something better." Meanwhile, others of the "boys" are circulating petitions for appointment to the office, and they are active also in quest of some of the other Federal offices that are to become vacant within the next few months, and which, it was supposed, already had been promised.

AFTER OTHER JOBS.

Assemblyman J. P. Transue, now a clerk in the office of the County Assessor, is said to be working for one of the land-office jobs, either register or receiver, while O. R. W. Robinson, deputy in the office of the County Superintendent of Schools, and Claude I. Parker, Deputy County Assessor, are bending their efforts to land the office of receiver, now held by A. W. [illegible].

Transue's claims to recognition are based on services rendered to the machine at the last session of the Legislature.

With this serious hitch in the passing of the first plum, one that ripened out of season, as it were, the "push" [illegible] are wondering if the same delay is to attend the general distribution of Federal fruit for which they have waited so long.

FUNERAL MEN ADJOURN.

J. A. Bruse of Los Angeles, New President, and Oakland Next Place of Meeting.

The convention of the State Funeral Directors' Association closed yesterday with the election of officers. Oakland was selected as the next meeting place. J. A. Bruse of Los Angeles was honored by election to the office of president at the meeting which was held in [illegible] Hall. George W. Lunt of San Francisco was chosen vice-president, J. E. Henderson, Oakland, secretary and treasurer, and H. J. Mc[illegible] of San Francisco, sergeant-at-arms.

An Executive Committee composed of the following was chosen for the ensuing year: W. F. Gormley, Sacramento; J. E. Patterson, Pomona; S. A. [illegible], San Francisco; C. M. Shannon, [illegible]; E. H. Moke, Santa Rosa; G. W. Lunt, San Francisco; F. E. [illegible], San Rafael, and H. W. Maass, [illegible].

The convention was one of the most successful ever held, and praise for the entertainment afforded the delegates was showered upon the local members [illegible]. In all nearly 200 visitors were entertained during the week. At yesterday's business session Dr. L. M. Powers, City Health Officer, was the principal speaker. He admonished the directors to utilize every precautionary measure in thoroughly fumigating the rooms occupied by persons succumbing to contagious diseases, and suggested the destroying of all clothing worn by them to prevent further infection. Rev. J. L. Pitner spoke at length on the success of adequate State organizations and the benefits accruing. Then followed short talks from all of the delegates present.

Applications from over thirty directors from Los Angeles and other California towns were made during the convention, and action upon them will be taken by a committee within a short time.

MRS. ROACH RELEASED.

Laventhal, Young Man Shot While Trying to Get Into Her Residence, in Precarious Shape.

Julius Laventhal, the young man who was shot by Mrs. Josephine Roach as he was trying to enter her residence Thursday afternoon, still lingers in a precarious condition at the Stewart Hospital.

An X-ray photograph taken yesterday, failed to locate the bullet, but traced its course through the neck and back where it had been deflected into the chest. Another effort will be made to locate the ball and if successful, Dr. Moore will operate on Laventhal today.

Mrs. Roach, who claims she fired the shot to protect her home, was released from custody yesterday morning. The police are satisfied that she tells the truth about the affair, and even should Laventhal die, she will not be prosecuted.

BIBLE LESSONS.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 22.

Ezra iii, 10; iv, 5: "Rebuilding the Temple."

THE CONNECTION.

The caravan that started from Babylon in March, 537 B. C., made their hard journey of 800 miles westward in time to erect an altar and offer sacrifice in the seventh month, October, of the same year, at the Feast of Tabernacles, now renewed after fifty years. They found the city and temple in ruins since their destruction in 586 B. C., now fifty years. With joy and sorrow, and in fear of their enemies round about, they began the observance of their sacrifices and feasts and fasts. Edomites, Philistines and Samaritans surrounded them and compelled them to live in the little towns near by Jerusalem and in the old territory of Judah and Benjamin. In Ezra 2:1-67 we learn who they were thus attempting to restore the sacred city and temple—42,360, in all of whom were 4000 priests, seventy-four Levites, 128 singers, 139 descendants of the ancient police of the temple and 392 descendants of the Netheim, or Canaanites, who had been made slaves. Twelve chiefs were over them, corresponding to the twelve tribes of Israel; three inspiring men led them—Zerubbabel, grandson of their last King, Joholachin, Joshua, son of Josedek, the high priest, who had been carried into exile with King Zedekiah; and Seriah, the priest, son of Hilkiah. Years afterward a complete register of these people was found.

They were cured of idolatry. Other shrines where they had practiced idolatry were gone, and now Jerusalem was the only sacred spot to them. Its moral significance absorbed all their thought. One year after the erection of the altar, in the seventh month of the second year, they assembled to lay the foundation, of the temple itself. With their own offerings and what they brought from Babylonia, and what the surrounding people gave them through the influence of Cyrus, and with the help of the artisan classes that had never left Judea, stones from the surrounding quarries and cedars from Lebanon were made ready. We have an account of the laying of the foundation in our lesson.

THE LESSON.

"Laying the Foundations." (iii, 10-13.)

"And when the builders laid the foundations of the temple of the Lord, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the Lord, after the order of David, King of Israel. And they sang one to another in praising and giving thanks unto the Lord, saying, For He is good, for His mercy endureth forever toward Israel, and all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid. But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' houses, the old men that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy; so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off."

They went on together from the start and now the building of the temple is the crown of both.

Zerubbabel and Joshua, called "builders" were their leaders, by heredity, ability and office.

These two descendants of worthy fathers showed how they were linked to the past and sustained the spirit and the continuity of God's worship. They dressed the priests in suitable robes, probably from their own private purses; they reëstablished the ceremonials of the temple; they revived the singing of the Psalm of David. A rebuilt temple meant a revived service and a worthy spirit.

The arrangement of the ceremonies is instructive—the priests blowing a trumpet blast to call the people together and to accompany the music; the descendants and successors of Asaph, the great choir leader of David's time, and the Levites clanging with their cymbals; the antiphonal singing in which Psalms of David were sung. It was "after the order of David," as he did, as he enjoined and with some songs that he composed. They sang "one to another," antiphonally—one chorus saying "O give thanks unto our Eternal," the other responding, "for He is good, for His mercy undureth forever." Many other selections from David's Psalms did they sing in like manner. In the East they delight to this day in responsive singing, and the din of tuneless instruments that would torture our ears affects the orientals powerfully. The crash of song and instrument was magical in its effects on the people and a prolonged shout rent the air.

But joy mingled with sadness. It was relief of a long-sustained tension, the answer of many prayers, the fruition of many hopes, but it was only the beginning of a stupendous task. There were men standing there who had seen the original temple before it was destroyed, fifty-one years before, and they were very sad, even in the joy of seeing it restored. They contrasted the happy past with the unhappy present, the many great men of the past with the few great men of the present; the great throngs of worshipers with the small numbers; the compact nation with its scattered fragments; the magnificence of the former temple, which the untold wealth of Solomon made possible, with the plainness which their present poverty promised for this temple. The ark of the covenant and its sacred contents, the sacred fire on the altar and the mysterious Urim and Thummim which were in the old temple were lost. The old associations of the temple were gone and memory probably made their past more glorious than it really was, as memory is in the habit of doing. They must also have felt the usual disinclination of old people to arouse themselves to new enterprises, and they might have felt sorrow at the disappointments the younger men were to experience. The orientals are nothing if not demonstrative, and it was natural to the one class to give loud vent to their joy and the other to their sorrow. The strains blended in one burst, and the people who had gathered to witness the ceremonies heard neither joy nor sorrow, but a great noise.

"The Work Hindered." (iv, 1-5.)

"Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded a temple unto the Lord, the God of Israel, then they drew near to Zerubbabel and to the heads of fathers' houses, and said unto them, 'Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto Him since the days of Esarhaddon, King of Assyria, which brought us up hither.' But Zerubbabel and Joshua and the rest of the heads of fathers' houses of Israel, said unto them, 'Ye have no thing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the King of Persia, hath commanded us.' Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah and troubled them in building, and hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purposes all the days of Cyrus, King of Persia, even until the reign of Darius, King of Persia."

(1.) Dangerous aid offered.

These "adversaries" were the inhabitants of the northern kingdom. They were a mongrel race, sprung from the remnants that were left when Samaria fell, 721 B.C., before Sargon, King of Noneveh, and the several heathen nations whom he brought from the east and planted in Palestine. They were half heathen and half Jew. They worshiped Jehova, and followed many Jewish ceremonies, but they worshiped idols, also, and had many heathen customs. There were probably some among them of pure Jewish blood and a pure faith, and probably they came and lived among the restored captives, but most of them had a mongrel faith. They made a proposition to become partners in building the new temple. Their avowed purpose was to worship Jehovah. Their argument was that they were Jews—kinfolk—that they wanted to be one in religion with these Jews, and that they had already been faithfully offering sacrifices to God since they were brought over.

Their insincerity was probably known. They hoped to absorb them into their nation if once they could unite in building the temple. They did not want to have a separate nation near-by that was more favored by Cyrus than themselves, for if trouble arose between them Cyrus would take the part of the Jews. It was a very shrewd offer they made.

(2.) The offer refused.

Their offer was refused promptly and with no elaborate courtesy. Some of the people might have been hospitable to the proposal for the double reason that it would bring them needed help and would insure safety among strangers and enemies, but the two leaders and the head men had no hesitation in refusing. The reply of the leaders is that the charter under which they were building was issued to them alone by Cyrus. But there is rather a curt dismissal of them in the statement "ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God," and an implication that religiously the Samaritans were beneath them.

And they did right. To take up this mixed race would have violated God's law against mixed marriages and entangling alliances; would have recognized false gods again and plunged the nation into a fatal idolatry. That would have defeated the very purpose for which they were permitted to return. They had been cured of idolatry by severe afflictions and must never even run the risk of it again. Some might have thought that they could lift the Samaritans up to their level, but they themselves would have dropped to the lower level. The weaker Jews would have thought that polytheism was not very bad, and the Samaritans would have the highest authority—God's favorite people—for supposing that it made no great difference. That decision saved the day for a pure faith and for the truth of God. It was our victory as well as theirs, thanks to Zerrubbabel and Joshua, clear of vision, pure of heart and swift of judgment.

3. Stealthy enemies unmasked.

The effect of the refusal was to enrage the Samaritans and show them in their true color as "adversaries." They at once set to work to hinder the Jews. They stood around and sneered and laughed at them and nagged them. They hired men to go over to Persia and create a public sentiment against them, so as to cut off supplies from Babylon, although they could not influence Cyrus to revoke the decree. They bribed Persian officials. They put a stop to the building, all the days of Cyrus and till Darius was on the throne. Thus the work was interrupted and the hope of the builders was dashed. For at least fifteen years nothing was done on the temple. The leaders foresaw trouble, and yet had courage to refuse the offer of the "adversaries."

One other effect of this decision was to create two parties among the Jews, the liberal and the conservative—the board and the puritan. The former would often speak of the blunder made in refusing the offer of coöperation; the latter patiently waited God's time.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

The Samaritans having failed to either help or hinder in the rebuilding of the temple, founded a sacred city and sanctuary of their own on Mount Gerizim. About forty or fifty families of them remained at ancient Shechem to this day, and on the scarp of Gerizim they offer their yearly sacrifice.—[Wright.

In the weary years criminations and recriminations at Jerusalem lowered the moral tone and cooled the zeal of the Jewish colony. But better days returned with the accession of Darius in the year B. C. 522, fourteen years after the return. Just and honorable, he became another Cyrus to them, and the second founder of the new state.—[Geike.

POINTS TO IMPRESS.

1. That work for God succeeds only with worship of God.
2. That, with different gifts and stations, we can coöperate in work and worship.
3. That adversity can make us brave and quick-witted.
4. That memory of past blessings should stimulate hope of the future.
5. That no compromise must be made with wrong doctrine, wrong religion, wrong practice.
6. That it is better to be right and fail than to be wrong and succeed.

EVER HEAR OF IT?

"Homeless Twenty-six," Drummers Who Can't Get Home for Turkey.

"Ever hear of the 'Homeless Twenty-six?'" queried William D. Duncan at the Van Nuys last night.

The listener was not conversant with the organization.

"Well, its membership is rapidly spreading westward, and Pacific Coast traveling men will fall in line shortly. The organization, which now numbers over 7000 members, had its inception at a dinner given on the evening of last Thanksgiving in a Pittsburgh hotel by twenty-six traveling men who were unable to reach their homes on that day.

"At first the affair was treated laughingly, but a beneficiary organization is now in force, and the Homeless Twenty-six bids fair to operate on an extensive scale. Nearly every drummer in the East is numbered on the rolls, and the order has passed the joking stage."

"Queer now, isn't it?" and Duncan went out to "talk shop" with somebody.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

SONGS THAT WILL NOT DIE.

Terse Comments Upon the Uniform Prayer-meeting Topic of the Young People's Societies—Christian Endeavor, Baptist Young People's Union, Epworth League, etc., for Oct. 22: "Sacred Songs That Have Helped." Eph. V, 15-20; Col. III, 15-17.

By William T. Ellis.

Every month brings its new "popular song," and before the month is over everybody is weary of hearing it sung and whistled. Thoughtful persons wonder at the cheap sentiment and cheaper taste which gives even brief vogue to such inane productions. All the while, as the day's songs come and go and are forgotten, there are treasured for life in the hearts of myriads of persons the grand old hymns of the Christian faith. The utter insufficiency of secular songs to support men's spirits in sorrow, to inspire them to nobler living, and to sustain them over the long, dry, hard stretches of life's journey is apparent to the least discerning. Who ever heard of a dying man's comforting himself with "the latest popular song?" Yet, what is more common than for souls to take their flight to the noble strains of "Just as I Am, Without One Plea," or "Nearer, My God, to Thee?" There is rich spiritual nutrition for every experience in life in the old hymns wherein devout souls have breathed their profoundest experience.

There is a certain little child whose first spoken utterance was the first words of "Holy, Holy, Holy!" And to this day that child delights to sing, at his play or in moments of rest, the stately yet simple strains of the great hymns. When he awakens at night or in the early morning he will beguile himself with his favorites, "Now the Day is Over," "Like a Mighty Army Moves the Church of God." Somehow, the melody and majesty of sacred music seem to inscribe it upon the memories of children. Rare is the man or woman, in a Christian community, who does not treasure among earliest recollections the songs of Zim. And these are real treasures. The child that is not being taught the beautiful words of the best hymns is missing an important part of his earliest heritage. Fortunately, most mothers, whether confessing Christians or not, sing hymns to their children. There are no lullabies like those that center about the name and babyhood of Jesus. Somehow exalted hymns and holy motherhood go naturally together. The scientists would try in vain to destroy religion, because it is kept alive at a million mothers' knees.

There is provision for the untuneful in the apostle's injunction to make melody in the heart. Though the lips may be mute or out of tune, the heart may be in harmony with the songs of the heavenly choir. I once heard an old man try to sing, "I Shall be Satisfied!" As a musical performance it was a failure, and many persons tittered; but the radiant glow on the old man's face, as his cracked voice gave utterance to the deepest desire of his heart told me that his was singing which must have been sweeter to God's ear than all the artistic performances of frivolous and irreverent quartettes.

"There is music in my soul today,
A carol to my King;
And Jesus, listening, can hear,
The songs I cannot sing."

I would rather have written "Jesus Lover of My Soul," than the best-selling book of the year.

Whatever be one's state of mind, he may turn to the best of all songs, the Psalms of the Old Testament, and find there a better expression of his feelings than he himself could utter. This responsiveness of psalms and hymns to the hour's mood is one of the greatest sources of their helpfulness. Music interprets to a man his own best self. It takes him as he is and lifts him up a little nearer to the state of the man he ought to be.

No man is fit to preside over an occasion of public worship in spiritual devotion, who has not a sense of fitness of hymns. There are hymns to suit every occasion; and there are others which are almost as much out of place as a minstrel song would be. Only the best hymns for the moment's need should ever be used.

Among manuals of devotion the hymn book should always have a high place. Its perusal exalts the spirit and attunes it to communion with the infinite.

The hymn book is a refuge from wandering thoughts on occasions of worship. Within its covers are masterpieces of poetry that may be memorized in a few minutes. Is the sermon dull, or worse? There are better sermons in the hymn book, preached with all the witchery of poets' words. In any case it is a wise rule to commit one noble hymn to memory every week. This soon gives one a wealth of spiritual riches, that are both a joy and an inspiration. Thus one may rise to the heights of a Toplady, a Heber, a Newman, a Watts, a Wesley, by meditation upon the classic lines in which they have embalmed their richest experiences.

Sing only the best hymns. It has become the Christian duty of all who would conserve the beauty and dignity of Christian worship to frown upon the perversions of hymnody which of late have found their way into collections of supposedly sacred songs. Nothing irreverent, nothing coarse, nothing unscriptural and nothing unrefined should be tolerated in the guise of Christian music. Whatever is not worthy to be bound up in the same volume with the Psalms of David may be permitted to die the death of neglect; it will be no loss to worship.

Back of every hymn lies a personality and an experience, and until he is acquainted with these a person rarely gets the full benefit of the hymn itself.

NEWS AND NOTES.

The Pope gave his approval to a meet of Catholic athletic clubs in the Vatican this month.

In planning a visit to England, the Prince and Princess of Wales have declined to travel on Sunday while ashore.

The Northfield Bible Training School for women has been incorporated with the Northfield Seminary. Both schools were started by Dwight L. Moody.

A $100,000 Y.M.C.A. building was opened this month at McGill University, Montreal. Lord Strathcona was the largest donor.

There is a strong movement afoot in Great Britain for the consolidation into one denomination of all the various Methodist bodies, of which there are several. These all have committees at work on the project of union.

The finest army Y.M.C.A. building in the world is to be erected at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., the largest military post in the United States. It is a gift of an unnamed woman, and it will cost $45,000.

The Southern Presbyterian Church grew more rapidly last year than the larger northern body, the latter's increase being a trifle under 2 per cent., while the southern church gained almost 3 per cent. in membership. Its present enrollment is 246,769.

At the recent one hundred and seventy-first anniversary of the Schwenkfelders, it was reported that although the denomination numbers but 800 persons, 125 of its young men and women were in colleges and universities. It recently built its eighth church at a cost of $9700.

King Edward has offered an appropriately bound and inscribed Bible to the Protestant Episcopal Church at Williamsburg, Va., the second oldest church in the United States, in commemoration of the three hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the church in Virginia.

A New Jersey farmer who died last month left, instead of a will, the following pledge to be circulated among his friends: "In memory of Shephard M. Gallagher, I promise to read a chapter of the Bible, the book he loved, every day for a year." At the end of a year a tombstone will be erected, and on it will be stated the number of persons who took this pledge.

Chinese merchants in Australia are leading a fight, in which the labor unions, the Protestant and Catholic churches and other agencies are enlisted, against the importation of opium for smoking purposes. The novelty of the situation lies in the fact that these Chinese merchants themselves would be the men to profit by the traffic which they seek to destroy.

DEATH OF GUS BASLER.

Well-known Saloon Man Succumbs to Typhoid Fever After Illness of Two Weeks.

August Basler, one of the best known saloon men in Los Angeles, died yesterday at the California Hospital of typhoid fever after an illness of less than two weeks. The deceased was for years proprietor of the Laurel Palace saloon on First street between Spring and Broadway and it was his pride that never had there been any disorder in his place of business. During the past two years the place had been conducted under the partnership of Basler & Ritch and on the first of this month Mr. Basler sold his interest to his partner. Mr. Basler had been in ill health for several years. The arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Colored People Feel Sure of Big Convention for Next Year—Mission Adds More Meetings.

The colored brethren were feeling somewhat jubilant yesterday over their prospects for securing the national Baptist convention (colored) in 1906.

According to their belief, the whole question hinged upon their ability to secure a low rate over the railroads, and yesterday they received official notification from the Transcontinental Passenger Association that the rate would be one first-class fare for the round trip.

Armed with this additional indorsement for Los Angeles, Rev. C. H. Andeson and Rev. E. C. Piercy, the accredited delegates from Los Angeles, left yesterday to attend the convention which this year meets in Chicago. They carry with them credentials from all the commercial and religious bodies of the city, as well as from many prominent individuals, urging the claims of this city for the convention next year. They estimate that between 20,000 and 30,000 people will take advantage of so low a rate to visit this Coast, and that the convention will be one of the largest ever held here.

Two new services will be inaugurated at the Union Rescue Mission No. 145 North Main street, on Sunday. Converts Bible class will be held at 10 o'clock a.m., and a noon-day prayer meeting will be held from 12:15 to 12:45. The latter will continue to be held every day at the same hour. All the other services on Sunday will be held as usual—from the gospel wagon at 3, 4 and 5 o'clock, and at the mission at 6 and 8 in the evening. Rev. L. Schaeffle will speak at the latter.

Chaplain Orville J. Nave will address the women at the vesper service in the Young Women's Christian Association at 4 o'clock tomorrow.

Rev. Herbert J. Weaver, pastor of the First English Lutheran Church, having returned from his eastern trip, will occupy his pulpit as usual tomorrow. He and Mrs. Weaver were greeted at a social held in the church last night.

FOR GRAND MASTER.

East Gate Lodge Honors Newly-elected Masonic Officer—General Reception Next Week.

Grand Master Motley H. Flint was given a reception last night by the Masons of East Gate Lodge, No. 290, in their lodge rooms at Downey avenue and Daly street. Nearly 400 Masons were in attendance.

After the opening of the lodge, Grand Master Flint, Grand Orator Oscar Lawler, and Grand Standard Bearer Samuel Praeger were introduced and greeted with Masonic honors.

The Third Degree was conferred on a candidate, Past Master Peter Boyle presiding. He was assisted by Senior Deacon Leon Lampton. After the conferring of the degree there were address by the three grand officers, and by the oldest Past Master present, F. I. McIntyre.

Past Master George N. Black of West Gate Lodge made a short address, and announced that on next Wednesday evening, at the Armory, Eighth and Spring streets, a general reception would be given in honor of Grand Master Flint.

A banquet followed, at which there was much jollity and many toasts and responses. Several delegations from lodges outside the city were present.

OIL ULTIMATUM.

their property but we have a 'butterfly' on it, and have paid them during the years it has been there, $1250 in cash, carrying out our agreement in full, though we are now paying them only $5 a month in accordance with another agreement."

This statement is made in justice to Mr. Ott, as the inference has been erroneously given out that he had not kept his agreement.

WHAT THE ISSUE IS.

It is stated on the part of the people that the church property, originally costing $5000, had greatly decreased in value, and that a lot on the opposite side of the street had sold some years ago at $2250, while one in the rear of it had recently sold for $250, by reason of the oil nuisance.

"But this is not the issue," said Thornton. "The issue is, that you have been making money out of the oil and all the rest of the people have suffered."

"Our interests are centered here," responded Ott, "and we do not want to be driven out."

Mr. Dickinson of the Citizens' Committee made a somewhat lengthy plea for a "square deal" for the producers, citing the good that the city had received from the business, and the possibility of unfairly interfering with the execution of contracts already made for the delivery of oil. He suggested the removal of the objectionable features and letting the rest go on for a time. "We can't say, 'To hades with the other people,' but we must be fair with the oil men."

Mr. Gregory now spoke up for the first time, and gave out no uncertain sound for the people.

"During these years," he said, "other wards in the city have gone ahead, but the Second Ward has gone backwards. I am willing to be reasonable, but I am not willing to allow any unreasonable length of time."

STEAMING PLANT.

He then referred to the fact that the greatest objection of all is the steaming plant on Metcalf street, just south of Temple, and that it is not kept alive by oil pumped from the immediate district, but that oil is hauled there long distances from other parts of the field, and therefore the people in the neighborhood must suffer the greater nuisance.

This steaming plant consists of three large tanks which stand in a big sumphole, ten feet or more below the surface of the ground, only their upper portions protruding above the surface. The oil is run into the tanks, which contain large steam coils; the heat softens the oil and it rises to the top, while the water is tapped off at the bottom; the oil overflows from the top of the tanks, free of water, into the sumphole, from whence it is pumped into tanks for delivery. The whole place is nauseous with smells and disgustingly filthy, as it could not well otherwise be, from the very nature of the material handled, but of course nobody would wish to live within sight or smell of the place if it could be avoided.

Mr. Young represented the small producer who owns his own well. He has one, and suggested that in such cases a well could be successfully pumped without a derrick, and that he would agree to take his rig down, house his tank and grade his lot, so that nobody would ever know that there was an oil well on the premises, but the Citizens' Committee would not hear to any letting down of the bars.

Finally, at the suggestion of Mr. Gregory, the following offer was made, and announced as the ultimatum of the committee from the Improvement Association, which represents the people of the whole district:

REACHES A FOCUS.

"It is the sense of this meeting that the ordinance affecting abandoned derricks and declaring them a nuisance, should be enforced at once; that the four wells surrounding the Park Congregational Church be removed and cleaned up by January 1; that the cables crossing the streets be taken down, and that the steaming plant be taken out by April 1; that there be a removal of all the derricks from the field and a general clean-up by July 1."

Mr. Ott and his confreres surely seemed much pleased at this, as though it was more of a concession than they expected to secure. They offered no objection or amendment, and agreed to present the answer of all the producers of the district, at a meeting to be held in the same church on next Friday. In the interim, it was stipulated that no action would be taken by the City Council on the petition asking for an ordinance demanding immediate removal, but in the event of acceptance of the compromise by the oil men, an ordinance will be passed embodying the terms here stated.

Mr. Hammon said, before leaving the meeting yesterday, in which he took no part whatever, that he considered the concessions made as fair to the producers, and that if they refused to accept the offer, he will on the following Monday insist on the passage of an ordinance as demanded by the 615 petitioners of the district, calling for the immediate cleaning up of the entire district.

EASTERN STAR WIND-UP.

Spirited Election of Officers Ends Session and Visitors Now Will See Sights.

The final business session of the Eastern Star convention was held in Blanchard Hall yesterday afternoon and until next Wednesday the visiting delegates will devote their time to visiting the numerous places of interest in Southern California.

While the contest for the various offices filled yesterday was marked with a pretty display of spirit, there was an absence of the politics displayed the previous day, when the chief officers of the order were selected.

Last night several hundred delegates hied themselves to Pasadena, where initiatory services were held under the auspices of the local lodge in that city, and the delegates remaining in Los Angeles convened in the Masonic Temple, where similar exercises were carried out.

The election of Mrs. Kate J. Willitts of San Francisco to the office of Grand Secretary was accomplished by acclamation. Mrs. Willitts was the first officer to be chosen without noticeable opposition, there being no rivals in the field against her. Mrs. Katherine Merritt of Oakland was elected Associate Grand Matron and Mrs. Helen Seeman of San Francisco was chosen Grand Treasurer.

Mrs. B. D. Cartwright of Alhambra was elected Grand Conductress, Mrs. J. Bodwin, Los Angeles, Grand Marshal; Mrs. L. Kennedy, San Diego, Grand Chaplain; Mrs. Reed, Benecia, Grand Sentinel; Mrs. Lithgow, Grand Ruth; Mrs. McKelvey, Grand Martha; Mrs. E. Holmgrew, Grand Ada.

The case of George King, who was tried for alleged disrespect, was concluded, it being decided that he be reinstated and reprimanded by his home lodge.

Tomorrow numerous visitors will go to Catalina and Sunday many plan to visit San Diego.

ERNEST BRAUNTON'S two pages on floriculture and its use in beautifying cities, as well as homes, will be an important feature of The Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

Paris Creations for Readers of "The Times."

Best Things of Best Makers to be Presented.

Color Pictures of What the Women Will Wear.

The American woman is an independent mortal, even in the world of fashion. Paris decrees; America accepts, but only so far as she feels inclined. Yet Paris fashions as the American woman interprets them have a distinctive charm which ranks equally with the charm of la belle Parisienne herself, and is inimitable in its way.

It is the overlooking of this difference that has made the attempted exploiting of Paris fashions so singular a failure with many newspapers and magazines.

When was planned this series of pages, to come direct from Paris, an American artist, Miss Anne Estelle Rice, was chosen to do the work, and with her was sent Miss Elizabeth Dryden. They were told to send pages of new, beautiful, characteristic clothes; to choose them from among the loveliest things that the Parisiennes were wearing, but to choose with an eye to American tastes.

They went everywhere, these two young women, armed with letters that opened the most exclusive doors as by magic to them; penetrated into the innermost sanctums of world-renowned dressmakers; learned what Paris was wearing, what America was choosing, and then drew their own conclusions.

Everywhere were traces of the influences of the Second Empire upon fashions. They mirrored it in a page of exquisite gowns and hats.

Evening gowns showed exquisite new treatments of laces and materials and a thousand and one tiny accessories. Everything was juggled until it became a part of some radiant setting in a woman's beauty. So evening gowns monopolized another page—evening gowns, diaphanous, etherealized, exquisite, but with it all, practical, and suggestive of a hundred new ways of making and even of remaking.

The great gift of a true fashion artist is in going a step farther than showing half a dozen styles which can be copied—her work must suggest a hundred others to be of practical help.

Theater blouses and hats, street gowns and coats—the series includes the whole long list of a woman's needs, and the artist's sense is gratified by the setting of the most famous places of Paris, where women of fashion congregate, make backgrounds, against which stand out gowns and hats strictly in keeping with place and occasion.

With each page is a letter—from Paris, too—telling what materials and what colors, what laces and what styles are in fashion.

Miss Rice and Miss Dryden have created a new thing in the newspaper world—they have demonstrated Paris fashions from the most beautiful, most helpful side. They have done even more—they have made a series of fashion pictures as inspiring to the woman of fashion as to the girl who makes every stitch she wears.

Study these color pages as they come out, far in advance of any other fashions. Whether you order your gowns built for you, with never a thought of material or trimming, or study painfully the problem of "making old clothes look most as well as new," you will find them interesting and full of rare art, suggestion.

No newspaper has ever made so radical a departure from beaten paths. No magazine can do it—the wheels of work turn too slowly there; everything must be ready months ahead. There is no such thing as the latest news in fashions outside of a newspaper. And this new series shows more sharply the truth of it all. We're weeks ahead in Paris fashions—the ones that American women will wear.

In last Sunday's Color Section of The Times was shown the first of the series—theater blouses and hats with, for their setting, the interior of the Theater Gymnase.

Other articles of the series will follow.

SOME COMMON MISTAKES.

How the Rules of Health are Violated in Countless Ways by Nearly Everyone.

[Pittsburgh Press:] It is rather curious that many of the ills which make life a wretched affair are caused by our own daily actions. Sitting on chairs, for instance, is "the cause of nearly all our evils in regard to the spine," according to Dr. Noble Smith, a surgeon of repute. It would surprise the layman to know how many men, women and children who pass muster in the street or the dancing-room suffer from deformity of the spine. They are the surgeon's best customers. And if Dr. Smith is right, we ought to abolish chairs and introduce the ancient fashion of reclining on mats.

One of the greatest authorities on diseases of the nervous system, brings another charge against chairs. If one habitually sits on a hard chair, he says, the pressure of the edge is likely to give rise to sciatica. This is worth remembering, for there must be thousands of people who spend large sums trying to cure their sciatica while they are all the time adding fuel to it by sitting on hard edged chairs.

This same disease, as well as the still more painful one of lumbago, are caused by other every-day habits. In this hot weather people sit, without thought of the consequences, on the grass, the sands, and, worst of all, on rocks. Perhaps they escape for the time; but as soon as the first touch of winter comes the lumbago and sciatica make their appearance.

Then in the morning tub we have the seeds of rheumatism. Sooner or later this daily chilling of the feet produces that inflammatory condition of the joint cartilages which results in crippling rheumatism. A simple precaution is to use a cork mat or a piece of wood for standing on the bath. A block that would raise the feet out of the water is better still.

Perhaps the inventor of oilcloth has been the greatest enemy of those predisposed to rheumatism. Even when wearing thick boots, if you stand much on oilcloth, you can scarcely escape rheumatism in the feet. If you cannot afford carpets, stand on the floor, and you will be saved much suffering.

Most people make themselves ill on Sunday. At least a majority are not in such good form on Monday morning as on other days of the week. This fact has been explained by suggesting that people eat too much and take too little exercise on the Sabbath. But probably the chief cause is closed doors and windows. On Sunday the doors are closed, and, too often, the windows also. Hence the Sunday night dullness and Monday morning below par condition.

Doctors find those dyspeptic patients who are engaged in bookkeeping and other desk work almost incurable. The reason is that the writing attitude is most unphysiological. With the left arm resting on the desk and the body bent, the spine is much twisted. The left ribs are lowered until they touch the edge of the hip bone. Consequently the stomach and intentines are compressed and moved out of place, the heart, spleen, liver and other organs are pressed upon, and to add to the evil the neck is also twisted, squeezing the blood vessels and causing congestion of the brain. Obviously no function can be properly performed in these circumstances, and incurable dyspepsia is a certain result.

By violent brushing of the teeth we ruin our gums and produce decay of the teeth; by leaving a little moisture in the ears after washing we cause neuralgia; by drinking too freely in hot weather we paralyze the stomach.

But the greatest number of evils we work on ourselves are produced by faulty articles of dress. This has been written about so much that doctors haves nothing new to say on the matter except perhaps with reference to the waterproof coat. And although that is out of season just now, it may be pointed out that the man who wears a waterproof coat while walking or cycling converts the clothing into a poultice. When he takes it off he is in the same position as if he had put on very damp clothes, and this is a thing no one would be senseless enough to do.

Even the Barber Sneered.

James Johnstone, the noted baseball umpire, was the guest of honor at a recent banquet of baseball "fans," a banquet that was a protest against Mr. Johnstone's proposed retirement.

"A health to square Jim Johnstone, the bravest umpire that ever called a strike," the toastmaster said, and Umpire Johnstone in his acknowledgement talked about bravery.

"I am square," he said, "but I don't pretend to be particularly brave. Squareness by itself will make a man a successful umpire. He has no great need of bravery on the diamond. Who, indeed, needs bravery overmuch? Even the soldier doesn't. Obedience and a sense of pride will carry any soldier through.

"Sometimes I doubt if soldiers are ever brave. I am like the barber who once shaved Sherman.

"This barber, in shaving Sherman, cut him, and Sherman, as he buttoned his collar at the operation's end, said with a good deal of bitterness:

"'You cut my ear. I won't come here again.'

"The barber sneered.

"'And they say,' he muttered, 'that you fought through four campaigns.'"—[Minneapolis Tribune.

An Artemus Ward Incident.

In the early sixties of the last century, Artemus Ward delivered one of his humorous lectures in the church at Bradford, N. H. There was a good-sized audience and he exerted all his powers to entertain them, but neither the humor of diction nor his quaint manner of delivery brought forth more than a sickly smile, where he was used to peals of laughter and round upon round of applause.

At the close of the lecture he sat down, utterly exhausted. First among those who came forward to speak with him was an old fellow, who shook him heartily by the hand and said:

"That was a fine discourse of yours, Mr. Browne, and in two or three places I almost forgot I was in the meeting house and certainly thought I should snicker."

After this incident Artemus Ward would not lecture in a church when other arrangements could possibly be made.—[Boston Herald.

TEAMSTER IN DEADLY CRUSH.

POPULAR MAN HURT IN THE SAN BERNARDINO MOUNTAINS.

He Climbs from Wagon to Recover Rein and Heavy Wagon Starts and Runs Over Him—Although Shockingly Hurt, He is Said to Have Fair Chance for Recovery.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 20.—John Fierro, a teamster, who for many years has been in the employ of the Brookings Lumber Company, was terribly injured on the mountains yesterday. He was crushed between his wagon and an embankment.

Fierro was hauling a load of freight to the Fredalba mills from Highland. Just after leaving Barrel Springs, on the City Creek road, one of his reins dropped to the ground, on the inside of the road. He alighted, and while stooping between the embankment and the wagon to gather up the rein, the horses started forward, crushing the driver in a shocking manner.

He was found by the roadside soon afterward, and returned to Highland. A physician who attended him at the Brookings Hospital states that unless internal injuries develop his chances for recovery are good. Fierro is a favorite with the other mountain teamsters, who are raising a purse for his benefit. It will be liberally contributed to by the community generally, as the unfortunate man has long been popular with the people in that section, owing to his almost constant exercise of an obliging disposition.

SAN BERNARDINO BRIEFS.

A petition for final distribution of the David Morey estate has been filed in the Superior Court, and will be taken up for a hearing tomorrow. David Morey resided at Redlands, and two years ago committed suicide at San Diego. He left two wills, both cutting off his relatives, and dividing his estate among Redlands women, a banker, an attorney and a church.

Mrs. W. G. Mogeau has returned here from a long and hazardous journey to Fairbanks, Alaska. Since leaving here, she has traveled over 8000 miles. Mrs. Mogeau's husband is one of the pioneer merchandise men of the frozen north, and it was to visit him that she made the long trip.

REDLANDS.

DELEGATES TO CHICAGO.

REDLANDS, Oct. 20.—At a meeting of the Board of Trade this afternoon the action of certain orange growers and packers, who are said to be interested in testifying in favor of the railroads at a meeting to be held in Chicago next week, was denounced in strong terms. Delegates were named to appear before the commission in Chicago next week, and represent the growers and their interests. E. M. Lyon and J. S. Edwards, two of the largest growers in this section, and a packing-house man, will appear.

J. B. Glover, one of the first comers to this county, is today celebrating the thirty-sixth anniversary of his arrival in this city. From sage brush and cacti, Mr. Glover has seen Redlands grow into a city of roses and beautiful homes.

FULLERTON.

BURY DIES OF WOUND.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FULLERTON, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John Bury, who was shot in Santa Paula by another tailor a few days ago, died there this afternoon and will be buried in Los Angeles tomorrow afternoon. He was a well known resident of Orange county three years.

SANTA ANA.

READY FOR HOT FOOTBALL.

SANTA ANA, Oct. 20.—Santa Ana High School's first serious game of football for the season will come tomorrow afternoon when the Riverside High School eleven will meet the locals at Athletic Park in this city. Last Saturday the home team defeated Orange High School by the overwhelming score of 34 to 0, the game demonstrating that Santa Ana has a snappy and effective eleven this year to fight for the championship honors.

Most of the players of last year are on the team again this season, so that much of the struggle for concerted team work and practice in playing together is already accomplished. Lemuel Robinson captains the aggregation and the coaching is done by John and William McFadden, both former High School men who have had experience on larger teams.

The line-up for tomorrow will be:

Santa Ana.		Riverside.
Whitney	L.E.	Schneider
Cope	L.T.	Johnson
Visel-Bristol	L.G.	Emerson
Eaton	C.	Peck
Robinson	R.G.	Smithers
Collins	R.T.	Gumstrum
DuBois	R.E.	R. Smith
Spurgeon	Q.B.	Sanderson
B. Wilson	R.H.	B. Smith
W. Wilson	F.B.	Batkin
L. Robinson	L.H.	Burke

The contest promises to be a lively one by reason of the fact that the two contending schools are old enemies on the gridiron. Last year Santa Ana was victorious in a series of games.

SANTA ANA BRIEFS.

Rev. E. R. Elliott of Valley Center, Kan., brother of Dr. R. E. Elliott of this city, will occupy the pulpit of Immanuel Baptist Church Sunday.

The Jefferson Club of the High School has elected Sidney Saunby president; Harry Smith, vice-president; Frank Heil, secretary; Louis Robinson, treasurer. A programme of debates for the school year is outlined.

Mrs. Bernicia Wallace, aged 56, died today at Huntington Beach.

The Woman's Club was entertained at its regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon with papers by Mrs. B. Utley on "The United States Department of Agriculture," and by Mrs. Rhoda Durfee on "The Relation of California to the Department." Mrs. L. H. Mills was named as delegate to the coming convention of the W.C.T.U. in Los Angeles and Mrs. Flora Pyle as delegate to the district federation of Women Clubs to be held at San Diego November 2 and 3.

The crossing of a Home Telephone wire with one of the Edison Electric Company on North Main street this morning put the latter company temporarily out of business. A group of linemen working near the scene of the accident narrowly escaped injury.

ELSINORE.

BOATMAN IN PERIL.

ELSINORE, Oct. 20.—Val Wilkes, a resident of Wildomar, all but added another victim to the list of those who have given their lives for the pleasure of a hunt, yesterday morning. He went out on the lake in a canvas boat of home-made construction and, shooting over the side of it, was thrown into the water.

Mr. Wilkes was unable to swim and he clung to his tissue-paper boat, calling lustily for help. He possesses a good pair of lungs, to which he owes his rescue, his cries being heard up and down the entire length of the lake and over half the town.

Various hunters went at once to his assistance. He was about the middle of the lake and it was hard to locate him, as his weight, clinging to the light boat, entirely submerged it and only his head appeared above water. When picked up he was terribly chilled and very weak, having been in the water over half an hour.

It is accorded that there are very few accidents in the hills and on the lake, when the large amount of hunting is taken into account. Some hunters, however, are very careless about their shooting, discharging rifles on the lake, the bullet carrying far beyond their line of vision and endangering the lives of many hunters hidden in blinds and hunting in boats.

SPRINGS TOWN BRIEFS.

Mr. and Mrs. Staffield have arrived from Redlands and will occupy a cottage on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harris have returned from Janesville, Wis., Portland and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. John Downey have gone to Lockport, N. Y., to spend several weeks with relatives of Mr. Downey's.

Among recent Lakeview arrivals are: T. W. Okey, G. Reay, Charles P. Logan, Pane Morgan, all of Los Angeles; J. R. Bell, Val Vista.

CORONA.

ODD FELLOWS TO ENTERTAIN.

CORONA, Oct. 20.—Circle Lodge, I.O.O.F. is planning to entertain royally Saturday night in honor of Grand Master W. W. Phelps of Riverside. Lodges throughout the county will be here, and a special train is to be run from Riverside. Supper will be served by the Rebekahs and degree work put through during the evening.

CIRCLE CITY CURVES.

J. M. Crooks, a native of Illinois and for two years a resident of Corona, died suddenly at 3 o'clock this morning, aged 59. The widow and a sister, Mrs. Whistler of Corona, survive.

F. C. Golden had both hands and parts of his face badly burned last evening by an explosion in the furnace at the Pressed Brick Company's plant.

E. H. Pine has bought through D. M. Browning, M. E. Archer's lot and six-room house at Belle and Seventh streets; price stated, $1100.

A. J. Ware will erect a two-story eight-room house on Washburn street, between Seventh and Eighth street.

Lynn Birdsall has been elected treasurer of the Congregational Church to succeed John Glass, who, November 1, will leave for a year's absence in Shoemaker, N. M.

E. N. Lewis returned yesterday from Portland, Or.

RIVERSIDE.

FIND MISSING MAN.

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 20.—Last night the family of aged Isaac Hall of Val Verde was in despair because of his disappearance. This morning the old man is irate and irritable because he could not take a quiet trip to Colton without his friends and relatives throwing fits.

Late last night the police here were aroused to hunt for the old man. He had come to Riverside to meet his sister, who was returning from the East. She failed to appear. Hall is 75 years old and in some way made the acquaintance of a young stranger on the depot platform. When he failed to appear at any of his usual haunts, his family were nearly distracted and immediately concluded that the stranger had foully dealt with the old man.

The city was thrown into a commotion, and this morning police details were forming to scour all the surrounding country, when Hall quietly stepped off the first train from Colton and just as quietly started to transact his business.

Had he risen from the dead he could not have shocked people more. One and all began asking him how he escaped, what had been done to him, and where the young man had taken him. Hall was angry all through.

REV. TAYLOR'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Rev. William Frederic Taylor will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the First Baptist Church here, where he officiated for five years as pastor. Dr. Edward F. Galt, pastor of the Congregational Church, will conduct the ceremonies, assisted by Rev. Mr. Garnett of Santa Ana.

COACHELLA.

MELON COUNTRY NEWS.

COACHELLA, Oct. 20.—C. B. Estle has bored eight wells within a month, ranging from 127 to 341 feet in depth, and several of them flowing over the casing.

Twenty-three crates of Thermal fall melons went out on Monday and on Tuesday twenty-one crates were shipped, all to Los Angeles. It is said car lots soon will be sent.

Shipments of cantaloupes for the Lyon Bros. & Coggins Company at Thermal will be superintended by R. A. Walker, who arrived from Pittsburgh last week.

Mrs. J. E. Levy of Los Angeles was looking after her ranch interests near Coachella on Saturday.

F. E. Dudley has purchased of C. B. Estle the lot with building now used for a meat market, for $1200.

Dr. Johnson and brother of the Ora Copia Mining Company, near Mecca, and Dr. Spann of Dallas, Tex., another stockholder, have been spending considerable time at the mine lately, where a cyanide mill and rock crusher are being erected. Eight men are employed there.

Bernard G. Johnson, foreman of the government date farm at Mecca, recently drove to the Brauckman Bros.' ranch with Prof. A. V. Stubenrauch of the State Agricultural College, and Prof. A. J. Pieters, botanist in charge of seed and plant distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, to observe what can be accomplished on salty soil.

Eighty men are said to be employed by the Chuckawalla Mining Company near Mecca. A recent cloudburst in the cañon near the mine washed away the camp and its outfit.

A road is soon to be built to the marble quarry near Mecca. The road will be six miles in length from the foot of the mesa to the ledge. Machinery will be put in soon and from twenty-five to thirty men will be employed.

SANTA BARBARA.

NEWS NOTES OF A DAY.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 20.—The Santa Barbara University Club held its annual banquet last night at the Arlington Hotel, covers being spread for fifty. Dr. W. H. Flint was toastmaster, the other speakers being Prof. Montieth of the High School, Mrs. Baker of Vassar, Mrs. Byrd of Stanford, Attorney L. H. Roseberry, Stanford, and Attorney A. H. Carrier. Last year's officers, reëlected, are: President, W. H. Flint; vice-president, Rev. Goodrich; secretary and treasurer, Edward Rainey.

H. J. Brewington, an employé of the Edison Electric Company's car lines in this city, was arrested last night charged with the theft of a diamond ring. The complaint is sworn to by Juanita Mesley, an inmate of a resort at No. 820 Anacapa street.

A. Moretti of Goleta, who was found guilty of running a blind pig, was fined $300 yesterday in Justice Price's court. He was arrested on three charges and pleaded guilty to each. His arrest was brought about by three detectives of the Anti-Saloon League.

VENTURA.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

VENTURA, Oct. 20.—Juan Cantua of this city thinks that he has a fortune awaiting him at Washington, D.C., and has started an investigation. Fifty-seven years ago Don Vicente Cantua, one of the wealthiest of the first settlers, sold to the United States government horses and supplies of the value of about $3800. The claim in due time was presented to the government of the United States, acknowledged, and was then filed away and forgotten. The transaction took place in Monterey county and the records there, it is said, show that it never has been satisfied.

The present claimant, who is a grandson of Vicente Cantua, has recently been to Monterey county, where he arranged to contest for the claim by having an administrator appointed for the estate of his deceased relative.

VENTRA VARIETY.

The Italian residents of this city will organize a fire company, to be entirely independent of the present organization.

Fred L. Burton has taken editorial charge of the Santa Paula Chronicle, vice George A. Barry, who has been running the paper three years for the stockholders.

A complimentary dinner was tendered to A. B. Smith yesterday at the Anacapa Hotel in honor of the celebration of his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary.

Ventura and Santa Barbara baseball clubs will meet for a game in this city next Sunday.

OXNARD.

CARNEGIE PROMISES LIBRARY.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

OXNARD, Oct. 20.—A good public library is in prospect for this town. Andrew Carnegie has offered to donate a building if the town will furnish the site and donate 10 per cent. of the cost of the building to be paid annually for the maintenance of the institution. The Colonia Improvement Company has given to the city for this purpose the corner of North Fifth and C streets, opposite the city square, and a number of citizens have offered money and books. A citizens' meeting is to be held at the City Hall Monday evening for the purpose of coöperating with the City Trustees in the establishing of the library. R. B. Haydock, John Steinmiller and others are among the promoters.

MARRIAGE SURPRISE.

The community was surprised by the announcement of the marriage of I. M. Poggi to Estelle Cooper. They were married Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's father, W. A. Cooper. The wedding service was performed by Rev. Avery, and immediately after they left for San Francisco. On their return they will live at the Fred Lynn home on West Fifth street.

FOUND DEAD IN HOTEL.

George M. Woodford, Traveling Piano Man Expires in the Westminster. Supposed Heart Failure.

George M. Woodford, for sixteen years a traveling representative of the Weber Piano Company of New York, was found dead in his room at the Westminster Hotel a few minutes after 12 o'clock yesterday afternoon. An inquest will be conducted at the undertaking establishment of Orr & Hines at 10 o'clock this morning. Heart failure is presumed to have caused death.

At the hotel last evening all knowledge of the death was denied. A clerk then on duty, when questioned by a reporter, stated that Woodford had settled his bill and left the hotel yesterday, despite the fact that the corpse still lay in an upper room. To keep all knowledge of the death from the hotel guests the remains were not removed to the undertakers' until late last night.

Woodford had visited Los Angeles many times during the past ten years and was well known among local music dealers. He was to have attended a dinner Thursday night in company with J. F. Salyer, secretary of the Bartlett Music Company, and Assistant United States District Attorney George McKeeby, but informed Mr. Bartlett by telephone early in the evening that he was ill and would go to his hotel at once.

Mr. Woodford reached his rooms early Thursday evening, and from the appearance of the remains is supposed to have died a few hours later. There was no indication that death resulted from other than natural causes. Mr. Salyer called up the Westminster a few minutes before 12 o'clock yesterday morning, inquiring if Mr. Woodford had left the hotel, the former knowing his intention to leave for the East yesterday afternoon. No response was received in answer to summons at his rooms, and the door was broken in and the discovery that life was extinct made. Woodford was 40 years of age and leaves a widow and daughter in New York. A brother, J. B. Woodford, is general manager of the Wanamaker stores in New York and Philadelphia.

A special dispatch from New York says that nothing is known there about G. M. Woodford except that he was a dealer in pianos at No. 108 Fifth avenue. The place was closed last night.

CLEARING OUT MONEY JUNK.

TREASURY EXPERTS ARE COUNTING COUNTERFEIT CASH.

Bad Coins and Currency in Secretary Shaw's Attic to be Sorted Out and Destroyed—"Flash" Notes, Dies and Stamps Confiscated by Secret Service Men—Some Gold and Silver Too.

[Washington Post:] About once every two or three years the Secretary of the Treasury receives from the chief of the Secret Service a notice that he has in his possession, high up in the attic of the Treasury building, an accumulation of counterfeit money, so much, in fact, that there is no longer room in which to store any more of it, whereupon the Secretary appoints a committee of three from among the clerks in the cash room, who count the counterfeit bills and coin and take an inventory of all articles seized by the Secret Service agency.

When this is done, the Secretary issues an order which sends the coin to the assay office, where all the silver and gold is melted or reduced from the mass, run into ingots, and sold, while the rest of the stuff, including the base metal, such as dies, stamps, etc., is taken either to the navy yard or to a foundry and there destroyed in the presence of Secret Service officers, who make affidavit of the destruction to the Secretary.

The last destruction of contraband matter occurred in November, 1902. Last week Secretary Shaw received notice from Chief Wilkie that an unusually large accumulation was on hand and ready for destruction. He accordingly appointed a committee of three men, C. E. Corwin, Samuel Wallace, and O. E. Patterson, clerks in the cash room of the Treasury, who on last Monday began taking an inventory.

It is impossible at the present time to estimate the amount of material on hand. The material confiscated includes, in addition to counterfeit notes, coins, postage and revenue stamps, valuable and costly type, by means of which counterfeiters print the Latin numerals on "queer" notes; inks, paints, acids, photographic apparatus, dies, molds, stamps, and a host of other things used in counterfeiting. At the last count the amount of counterfeit coin reached a total of $31,000, while the "queer" notes ran over $100,000. From this sum of counterfeit dollars the assay office melted out $900 worth of silver ingots, which, according to law, are always sold and the proceeds turned into the Treasury, illustrating the old saying that "There is no great loss without some small gain."

Among the notes were some made years ago by Brockway, the king of counterfeiters, as well as the famous $2 notes bearing the bust of Gen. Hancock, and known to the Secret Service as "Hancock 2s." These counterfeit notes were made by Johnson, of Detroit, and were so perfect that the government was obliged to call in the "Hancock 2s" and to cease issuing any more of them, in order to warn people of the most successful counterfeit ever perpetrated in the United States. The Brockway, Johnson, and several other of the more noteworthy counterfeits are so perfect that many of them are still floating about through banks and in commerce, the owners being in blissful ignorance of their true character.

There are very few gold coins in the accumulation. Every variety of coin has been counterfeited from pennies to $20 eagles, but the last named are few and far between. On all sides of the room where the count is going forward there are boxes of "bum" nickels and dollars, but the gold pieces seldom turn up. Some have been hollowed out and filled with lead, and the edges remilled.

Now and then the Treasury obtains some gold coin that is good legal tender, but which has passed through the process known as "sweating." "Sweating" is a Chinese trick. It consists in taking a bag of gold dollars and shaking them violently about for hours at a time, the result being that they are taken out badly worn and with a small deposit of gold at the bottom of the sack.

In the collection are many "flash notes" and stamps, printed for advertising purposes, but resembling the real thing so nearly as to warrant their seizure by the Secret Service officials. There were also a few counterfeit foreign obligations as if to counterfeit our own. The committee will finish the count and inventory about Tuesday next, at which time it will report to the Secretary of the Treasury. When this is done the paper notes, type, stamps, molds, etc., will be destroyed.

Telephone "The Times."

If in need or overstocked, a Times classified advertisement will help you. Only a cent a word, and the whole transaction can be completed by 'phone, day or night.

Twenty-three Years a Specialist for Men

Chronic and Special Diseases Cured for Life by Original and Time-Tested Methods.

We are Specialists for Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture, Piles, Fistula, Blood Diseases, Contracted Diseases, Private Diseases, Loss of Vital Power, Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

We have no free propositions, trial or sample treatments to offer the afflicted. Our education, experience, conscience and reputation condemn such quackery. We have always found that an honest man is always willing to pay an honest price for honest treatment. If you are losing your vitality and strength and can see evidence from time to time that your physical system is going to decay, you should, in common justice to your future happiness, take steps to check it. Don't deceive yourself in believing that it is natural for any person to exhaust his power. Nature is appealing to you. The slight pains you feel; the momentary spells of weakness, the periodical loss of memory, dullness of the brain, drowsiness and irritability, all point to the necessity of prompt treatment.

Cures Effected in Curable Cases

We have been successfully treating maladies of men for many years. Nothing that science has devised or money can buy is lacking in our equipment. We will use you honestly, treat you right and restore your health in the shortest possible time, with the least medicine, discomfort and expense possible. Our consultation and advice are free. If you suffer from Nervous Debility, Weak Vitality, Varicocele, Stricture, Blood Poison, Rupture, Hydrocele, Piles, Fistula or kindred or associate diseases, you should consult us without delay. POLICE CATCH SHOPLIFTER.

DRY GOODS THIEF IS TAKEN IN PASADENA.

Is Captured With Articles in His Pockets Which are Identified as Having Been Taken from One of the Stores—Conflicting Accounts of His Place of Abode.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 26 South Raymond Avenue, Oct. 20.—A catch of an alleged shoplifter, who has been pilfering the dry goods merchants of Pasadena out of small articles for several weeks, was made by Policeman Wallace Copping yesterday afternoon when he arrested Francisco Gondera, a well-dressed, rather smart-appearing Mexican with a curled mustache and very deep overcoat pockets.

Gondera was literally "caught with the goods on." The officers had been on the lookout for him since a case of shoplifting was reported last Saturday night. Yesterday afternoon Gondera came to town again and started to make the rounds of the dry goods stores. He went into Hodge's, on East Colorado street, where he purchased a 5-cent spool of thread, and in passing out "lifted" a quantity of laces and handkerchiefs that were displayed on a counter near the door. Into a deep overcoat pocket the goods went so quickly that no one detected the act. From Hodge's, Gondera wended his way to Schaper's, on North Raymond avenue, where he took another flyer on O. N. T. Here he picked up a handful of men's underwear, and again the overcoat pockets were called into requisition. This time Francisco acted not wisely but too well, for someone in the store saw him and telephoned to the police. No effort was made to detain him and the fellow went out, imagining himself secure.

Detective Policeman Copping, in plain clothes, overtook the man in the act of wrapping up the stolen goods while standing in the yards of the Ganahl Lumber Company at Broadway and Union street. Had the officer been a moment later he would probably have missed his man, as the fellow was evidently planning to wrap the stuff up into an ordinary-appearing package preparatory to boarding an out-of-town car.

Gondera, when brought to the Police Station, refused to inform the officers where he lived, other than to tell Chief Pinkham several conflicting stories. He at first said he lived out of town, but when questioned a second time gave his place of residence as [illegible]. Later he claimed he owned property in Los Angeles, and said he bought the goods there. A representative of the Schaper dry goods company positively identified the goods taken from the prisoner as being a part of their stock.

From this it appears that the officers have a clear case against Gondera, and a prospective penitentiary sentence stares the prisoner in the face. The police are now endeavoring to locate Gondera's place of abode, as they are of the opinion that much stolen property will thus be unearthed.

LOCKETT'S HORSE SKIPS.

Kindling wood was made of E. S. Lockett's fine new buggy in a spectacular runaway on Fair Oaks avenue at [illegible] yesterday afternoon, and [illegible] himself narrowly escaped serious injury. The animal that did the damage is a spirited 4-year-old colt, which its owner prizes very highly. The horse was standing in front of the [illegible] Mitchell and as Lockett started [illegible] the fiery young steed moved. The owner barely jumped from between the wheels in time to save himself, and the frightened animal sped [illegible] up Fair Oaks avenue. The buggy was overturned and dragged [illegible] two blocks, during which the [illegible] was as effectually reduced [illegible] as if done by an ax. Lockett [illegible] is a leading member of the [illegible] Eagles, was still picking up [illegible] at a late hour last night.

Y.M.C.A. AFFAIRS.

[illegible] forty members of the intermediate branch of the Y.M.C.A. gathered about the supper table last evening in the Association building, the occasion being the organization of the branch into clubs for Bible study. Chairman [illegible] Bowhall presided, and three separate classes were formed, to be under the leadership of J. C. Mather, J. [illegible] and Gerald Waterhouse respectively. A pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment was the singing of a quartette consisting of Messrs. [illegible] Roberts, Pettis and Macey, members of the Occidental football [illegible]. Rousing speeches were made by the visitors.

The next event of importance in local Y.M.C.A. circles will be the annual [illegible] banquet, which is scheduled for next Thursday evening, at which all the older members will be present, and an attractive programme [illegible].

[illegible] GOOD REPORTS.

A large number of visiting delegates from surrounding cities and towns [illegible] today at the third annual [illegible] of the Pasadena District [illegible] Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church which [illegible] in the Lincoln-avenue church. Mrs. Laura Prentice Stevens presided.

[illegible] delegations were welcomed by Mrs. Nichols of Pasadena and Mrs. W. H. Poston of Pomona responded, telling how glad all the visitors were to be with the ladies of the [illegible] church. In her annual report Mrs. Stevens, the president, referred to the society's good work in [illegible] responsible for the stopping of the Chinese slavery curse in [illegible]. A short memorial service was held for Mrs. Theresa Keys, the third vice-president, who died during the year. The work accomplished in the district during the year was presented in a concise report by the secretary, Miss Isabel Al[illegible]. Other features of the meeting included a review of the work on the Pacific coast by Mrs. Isaac Jewell of Covina, and a report from the frontier by Mrs. A. Thompson. Noon luncheon was served by the auxiliary of the [illegible] M. E. Church.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The particulars of the drowning of [illegible] Burnham, the little son of [illegible] Burnham, which occurred in [illegible], have been received in a letter from [illegible] Black, father-in-law of [illegible]. The child was playing on the banks of the Thames and [illegible]. At the time the [illegible] the boy was with the [illegible] maid [illegible] thought her [illegible] with the mother. The child [illegible] about 5 o'clock in the afternoon and the body was not recovered [illegible]. The interment [illegible]. Maj. and Mrs. Burnham [illegible] from Liverpool for [illegible] part of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel E. Wood, who have spent the summer in Maine and the White Mountains, are expected home next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walstein Root will return next week from the East and will again occupy their quarters at No. 210 Grand avenue. They have been in the East through the entire summer.

Mrs. Charles Burton Scoville will go East next week to join Mr. Scoville and they will be away from Pasadena until about December 1.

W. W. Atkinson, a literary man of Chicago, has arrived with his family and they will make Pasadena their permanent home.

Electric arches to span Colorado street will be the special subject of an informal conference between the Mayor and city officials and representatives of the Board of Trade and the Merchants' Association at a dinner to be given at the Hotel Maryland next Thursday evening by Manager Linnard, following the one of last Thursday. As president of the Board of Trade, Mr. Linnard is enthusiastic for the project, and at the coming conference will bring to bear the weight of his observations along this line during his recent eastern trip. Other members of the municipal and civic bodies concerned are understood to be in favor of the plan, provided a means can be found to defray the expense.

HOLLYWOOD.

NEW TROLLEY LINE LIKELY.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 20.—The Los Angeles-Pacific Railway is reported to be about to commence work on a new line connecting with its present Hollywood route at a point about midway between Peabody junction and Ivanhoe station and running almost due west to a point near the intersection of Vermont avenue and Temple street. From this point the line it is said, will run over the route of the old dummy road to the intersection of Santa Monica and Western avenues, which is to be, it is thought, the terminus for the present.

The company has held the franchise on this dummy line for several years and is now putting it in shape for electric travel.

Such a road would open a great deal of territory that has until now, been without street car facilities and would be an especial blessing to residents of the district lying between Western and Vermont avenues, north of Temple street.

It is stated that the right of way for the new part of the road has already been secured and that over $60,000 has been expended for this purpose and the purchase of adjacent property.

HOLLYWOOD BRIEFS.

The First Methodist Episcopal Church South of Hollywood has been incorporated. Rev. E. A. Stellar, who has served the church as pastor for the last three years has resigned and will take a much needed vacation of three months. His resignation will be acted on at the quarterly conference of the church Monday evening next.

Hollywood W. C. T. U. will meet Monday with Mrs. P. B. Chase to discuss plans for the coming national convention.

OCEAN PARK.

PLUMBER BURIED IN SAND.

OCEAN PARK, Oct 20.—T. V. Cooney, a Pier-avenue plumber, had a close call from burial alive today. He was working in the bottom of a trench dug in the sand, when suddenly and without warning the shifting sands slipped and covered him beneath a mass of many tons. Helpers close at hand witnessed the accident, and with spades and shovels labored to rescue their co-laborer. After a few minutes their labors were rewarded by striking the limp form of the imprisoned man. By the time they could uncover him he was unconscious, and had practically ceased to breathe. Respiration was started, and through the use of stimulants he was soon restored to consciousness. No bones were broken.

STRAY STRANDLETS.

The Willey Band will begin its year's engagement at the Pierway band stand on Sunday afternoon, rendering concerts daily during afternoon and evening. The Sunday programmes as arranged are especially attractive. The band consists of twenty-one members.

The Southern California Realty Company, at the annual meeting just held, elected A. J. Wilkins to the presidency. He also will act as secretary.

The reception tendered at the Methodist Church last night to Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Pasko was well attended. A number of the other pastors of the city were present, and joined the congregation in welcomng Mr. Pasko to the beach charge for his second year. W. H. Slack was chairman of the evening.

VENICE.

ORGANIZE FOR CARNIVAL.

VENICE, Oct. 20.—The women's auxiliary of the Venice Winter Carnival Association has completed its organization by the election of Mrs. George Sibley, president; Miss I. E. Leffingwell and Mrs. T. Daley, vice-presidents; Mrs. T. R. Taylor, treasurer, and Miss E. J. Slauson, secretary. Several new members were added to the enrollment and a committee on entertainments was named. This committee will arrange for local dramatic and other entertainments to be given in the Auditorium. Funds raised are to be used in promoting the carnival, which is to open in December.

VENETIAN DOTS.

The Auditorium contained a large and appreciative audience this evening at the presentation of the "Milkmaids' Convention" by local talent. The affair was a benefit in aid of the home dramatic organization.

Secretary Walter Wheat of the Abbot Kinney Company, who is now in Portland in the interest of the winter carnival, wires that he is about to secure as an additional attraction the comprehensive exhibits of the foreign commission. It will require a building 100x200 feet to accommodate them.

The Portland Exposition being at an end, two delegates representing exhibits there have already reached this beach to complete arrangements for the transfer of their attractions to the strand for the winter.

A new hotel will be opened on Windward avenue in a few days. It is the Gonodlier, and will be conducted by Mrs. M. J. Hammond of Los Angeles.

GLENDORA.

VALLEY TOWN NOTES.

GLENDORA, Oct. 20.—The Glendora Board of Trade has chosen G. D. Whitcomb a delegate to the Interstate Commerce Law convention in Chicago.

Rev. J. N. Roberts of Anthony, Kas., has purchased a ranch home near here.

The question of incorporating as a city of the sixth class is being discussed here.

CHAFING DISH MEN SORE.

LONG BEACH BACHELORS HAVE A SORRY NIGHT.

They Attend a Dinner in Los Angeles Given in Honor of the Farewell of One of Their Number to Single Cussedness, and Have Distressing Experience With Auto.

LONG BEACH, Oct. 20.—Several young men of Long Beach are convinced that bachelor dinners are a delusion and a snare. Thursday night, Ernest Creeth, Long Beach, manager for a firm of Los Angeles architects, made up a party of chums, L. D. Mayer, Dr. H. C. Brown, Courtney Teel, Luther Gage, Freeman McKenzie and Will Stone, and took them to a swell Los Angeles restaurant to celebrate his farewell to single cussedness.

Festivities were continued until the last car was missed, and then the party decided to make the trip home in an auto. Five miles out of Los Angeles something went wrong and the bachelors found themselves stalled. The chauffeur could not repair the machine and the coterie stood around with the chill night air penetrating to their marrow. Finally in desperation they tore the end out of a corn crib, built a bonfire and said things to each other until the gray dawn of Friday morning brought out the first car for Los Angeles and the bachelors arrived home safely, but disgruntled with things in general.

LONG BEACH BREAKERS.

Subcontractors and laborers employed on the Daisy and High School buildings a year ago are becoming restless regarding the long delay in payment of their claims. The contractor abandoned his work on these buildings, and the School Board finished the jobs. The claims of these laborers were regularly presented, but suit was not begun within the statutory limit. As a result there is but $3300 available for liquidating claims and this is tied up by the court and will probably be exhausted in payment for lumber and materials, so that the prospects for the payment of other claims is very slim.

Mrs. Mary J. Malone, mother of A. C. Malone, editor of the Press, died at noon today, indirectly the result of injuries sustained by a fall in August. Mrs. Malone was born in Louisville, Ky., and was 78. She had resided in Long Beach about five years. Nine children survive, most of whom live in Southern California. The funeral will be held Sunday morning at St. Anthony's Catholic Church. The burial will be at Calvary Cemetery, Los Angeles.

E. J. Starr had a peculiar accident yesterday at Wilmington. He was cranking his auto preparatory to starting for home when the handle flew around, and striking him on the forearm, broke both bones. Undaunted, the injured man started his machine and made his way to Long Beach with one arm, where he received medical attention. The injury is a serious one.

Rev. C. T. Murphy of St. Luke's Church has received from friends in Philadelphia a check for $1700 for the building fund of the new Episcopal mission, St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, in Alamitos.

Word was received here today of the death of Mrs. Marie Morrison Grigsby, at Dana, N. C. As Marie Morrison she was well known in Long Beach and neighboring cities as an elocutionist and teacher. A widower and two children survive.

The members of Central Methodist Episcopal Church last night tendered a reception to their pastor, Rev. J. G. Hill, who was returned by the general conference. An entertaining programme was given and a social time followed, which included refreshments.

Mrs. Cordelia Spence of Los Angeles on Tuesday afternoon will institute a circle of the Ladies of the G.A.R. in Long Beach. The circle will have a charter membership of thirty.

Judge Thomas Wall yesterday purchased the old Thomas tract of forty acres in the Willows, north of the city. He will hold it for subdivision later on.

Deaconess Freebe of Los Angeles will lecture at St. Luke's Church on Wednesday evening on "Diocesan Missions." On November 2, Rev. Joseph McConnell will lecture on "A Trip Around the World."

CATALINA ISLAND.

DEEP FISHING EASY.

AVALON, Oct. 20.—An apparatus by which it is said to be easy to catch groupers at depths of from 500 to 1000 feet has been invented by George Michaelis. The device may be attached to the engine of a launch and the line may be pulled in and let out by simply moving a lever.

R. Fagoage and wife of Mexico and T. H. Grairo, a native of Colombo, Ceylon, are registered at the Metropole.

J. P. Gould, assistant freight agent here, side-stepped his duties long enough to be married, and yesterday returned with his bride, lately Miss Nina Stonehouse of Pasadena.

H. Stamford, owner of the Stamford House on Metropole avenue, with his wife, who has recently returned from a visit to his old home in England, are here for a few days.

Capt. Adams captured a tuna this morning down below Seal Rocks.

WHITTIER.

RANSACKINGS OF BURGLAR.

WHITTIER, Oct. 20.—A burglar ransacked rooms in the business center yesterday and escaped with about $100 worth of cash and jewelry. The rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Vasco Mills, over Mills's grocery were entered and three rings and a locket secured of the value of about $50. E. H. Payne, across the hallway from the Mills rooms had his premises ransacked but nothing was taken.

Mrs. West, who rooms over Jacobs' grocery store lost $25 in cash and four valuable rings. It is thought the burglaries were committed between 2 and 3 o'clock.

QUAKER CITY BRIEFS.

The Whittier bank has purchased the necessary bonds in order to become a National concern and has filed its application to be chartered as the Whittier National Bank.

The Central Oil Company is installing two new gas engines at wells Nos. 41 and 42.

The Whittier High School Basketball team will play the Compton High School team tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. at this place. The local team is composed of Alex Hart, George Cole, Charles Williams, Howard Way and Grover Castor.

MAD LOVER IS LOCKED UP.

TROUBLE OVER INFATUATION FOR POMONA GIRL.

Towerman for Railroad Company Sees Young Woman Passing His Place on the Way to School and Writes Endearing Notes, but Later He Threatens to Slay Her.

POMONA, Oct. 20.—George Shepherd, a man 57 years old, was today sentenced by Justice Barnes to serve six months in the County Jail for threatening to take the life of young Blanche Orem.

The girl is a daughter of Samuel P. Orem of this city. Shepherd used to be towerman for the Southern Pacific Company here and fell in love with the girl as she used to pass him on her way to school.

He wrote letter after letter to her couched in endearing terms, begging her to meet him at different places and finally threatening to kill her if she ignored him.

The young woman, thoroughly frightened, gave the letters to her father, who turned them over to Constable Slanker. The latter has been working on the case and finally traced Shepherd to San Pedro, where he has been working since warned away from here.

POMONA BRIEFS.

William C. Amason, who lives at the corner of Fifth and Town avenues, was exhibiting some fine cotton-bearing plants in the street today.

The funeral of the late Cyrus Burdick was held today at the family home at Holt and Garey avenues and was largely attended. Rev. George E. Soper officiated and the bearers were J. E. McComas, A. T. Currier, J. Albert Dole, Franklin Cogswell, Lewis Wright and James Loney.

Local property owners have presented petitions for street improvement work, curbing and sidewalks on Garey and Holt avenues and East Second street to the City Council, which will aggregate an expenditure of $37,000.

The joint committee from the Board of Trade and the Claremont Improvement Society has indorsed the petition to the City Trustees asking for electric incandescent lights on San Antonio avenue from Holt to San Bernardino avenues and on San Bernardino avenue from San Antonio avenue to the city limits. An effort will be made to improve San Antonio avenue to Harrison avenue and San Bernardino avenue to Alexander avenue and so make a fine thoroughfare between this city and Claremont.

SANTA MONICA.

FREEHOLDERS ARE DINED.

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 20.—R. R. Tanner and G. H. Hutton, members of the commission elected on Tuesday to frame a new charter for Santa Monica, acted as hosts last night at a dinner tendered at the Arcadia to the other thirteen freeholders who were honored with election. The affair was informal, and, while not a business meeting, yet matters in connection with the forthcoming work of the commission were incidentally discussel. It was agreed that C. A. Stilson should be chosen to act as president and D. G. Holt secretary. The board will formally organize next Wednesday evening.

SEASHORE DRIFT.

The Pasadena football team will come over tomorrow and play the Santa Monica Juniors at the Southern Pacific Park at 2:30 p.m.

Local bowlers are endeavoring to organize a ten-man team to enter the new Southern California Bowling Association.

Bishop J. H. Johnson will visit Santa Monica Sunday and preach in the morning at the Episcopal Church.

MONROVIA.

PUSH TROLLEY TO GLENDORA.

MONROVIA, Oct. 20.—A picked committee from Duarte, Glendora and Azusa met today to receive assurances that H. E. Huntington will extend the Pacific Electric line from Monrovia to Glendora as soon as the right of way is given. There was present Lewis Bradbury, who is believed to come from a conference held with H. E. Huntington Wednesday, when John Bradbury entertained the railway magnate and went with him in an automobile over the immediate foothill regions.

The men who held conference today are perhaps the most representative that have yet taken up the project of securing the right of way, and they will go to work to reimburse owners of small groves where valuable Valencia orange trees must be removed to make a pathway for the iron rails. It was stated authoritatively by one of these men today that there is less than a mile of the right of way between Monrovia and Azusa to be secured, and that two small pieces of ground between Azusa and Glendora were all that it is necessary to secure in order to comply with Huntington's conditions.

Agents of the famous Slauson holdings, comprising the original Azusa rancho, Messrs. Whitcomb and Lafetre of Glendora and W. S. Bridges, W. R. Powell, B. M. Greaver and A. P. Griffith of Glendora, are among the men who have pledged themselves to see the electric line into this region at an early date. Duarte was represented by B. R. Davidson, as well as Lewis Bradbury.

The right of way as contemplated clings closely to the foothills, keeping north of the Santa Fé Railroad, which it will parallel to the borders of the Slauson ranch. It is estimated that Slauson's contribution toward the enterprise will be of the value of $50,000 in the trees that must be cut from these groves. The owner of the Lafetre ranch has dedicated the right of way.

The Monrovia Board of Trade tonight took up again the question of pushing the extension of the Pacific Electric line to Sawpit Cañon. The right of way to the foot of the first falls, they will assure the electric company, can be easily secured. The cañon itself is city property, that can be used as a resort for the public and is likely to greatly increase traffic over the Monrovia line. Representations of this character will be urged, as it is reported that Huntington was greatly pleased with the growth of Monrovia, as seen at his visit here.

FOOTHILL CITY ITEMS.

Mrs. F. N. Hawes gave a dinner this evening to celebrate the seventh wedding anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Daniels. The decorations were Bride roses. Rev. G. A. Cleaveland, who pronounced the wedding ceremony in 1898, was one of the guests, and Mrs. Vera B. Sweatt, George Cleaveland and Miss Mabel Cleaveland were others.

Miss Anna M. Beckley of Los Angeles will speak at the Saturday Afternoon Club tomorrow on her personal experiences on the Mojave Desert.

Second—That the undersigned petitioners are at least fifty (50) of the qualified electors of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and are each and all of them bona fide residents within the limits and boundaries of the proposed municipal corporation.

Third—That the following is a particular description of the boundaries of the said proposed muncipal corporation:

Beginning at the intersection of the center line of the right of way of the San Pedro branch of the Los Angeles Interurban Railroad Company with the center line of the Wilmington and San Pedro road; a map of said road being filed in the office of the County Surveyor, and numbered 1024, said intersection now referred to being the most northern of the two or more intersections of the said roads which occur in this vicinity, and being a point in or near the curve shown on said map No. 1024, between stations 88x73.5 and 90x29; thence easterly in a straight line to a point on the center line of the right of way of the Southern Pacific Railroad from San Pedro to Wilmington, said point being 1920 feet northerly, measured along the center line of the said Southern Pacific Railroad from its intersection with the present northerly boundary line of the City of San Pedro; thence continuing easterly in a straight line upon a prolongation of the line from said point of beginning 2100 feet to a point; said last described line passing 300 feet southerly from the southerly end of Mormon Island; thence northeasterly in a straight line to a point in the westerly line of lot two (2) of Terminal Island, as said lot is shown on a map of Terminal Island, filed in the office of the County Recorder, and numbered 133, which is distant southwesterly 175 feet from the northwest corner of said lot two (2;) thence northeasterly, in a straight line to a point in the westerly line of lot three (3) as the same is shown on said map of Terminal Island, which is distant northwesterly, measured along the westerly line of said lot three (3,) 300 feet from the northeast corner of said lot two (2;) thence northeasterly in a straight line to a point in the southerly line of the Wilmington and Anaheim road, said point being distant 1000 feet easterly of the northeast corner of block 26, of New San Pedro or Wilmington, as the same is shown in a map recorded in Book 6, pages 66 and 67 of Deeds, in the office of the County Recorder; thence along the southerly line of the said Wilmington and Anaheim road to the westerly line of the City of Long Beach; thence northwesterly in a straight line to a point in the east line of the right of way of the San Pedro branch of the Southern Pacific Railroad, said point being the intersection point of the east line of the said railroad right of way with the production easterly of the northerly line of New San Pedro or Wilmington, as the same is shown on map before mentioned.

Thence westerly along the production easterly of and the northerly line of New San Pedro or Wilmington and along the northerly line of Wilmington and the production westerly of the said northerly line to the easterly line of the Rancho Los Palos Verdes; thence southerly along the easterly line of said rancho to the southerly line of the Wilmington and Salt Works road, as the same is shown on a map of "Peck's" subdivision of lot "J" and a portion of "H," of the partition of Rancho Los Palos Verdes, filed in the office of the County Recorder, and numbered 141; thence westerly along the southerly line of the said Wilmington and Salt Works road to the intersection of the said southerly line with the westerly line of the right of way of the Los Angeles Interurban Railroad; thence southerly along the said westerly line of the said right of way of the Los Angeles Interurban Railroad, following its various courses and curves to a point, said point being due west of the place of beginning; thence due east to place of beginning.

Fourth—That your petitioners believe that the interests of the inhabitants residing within the boundaries of the proposed municipal corporation, above described, and the interests of all owners of property within said boundaries above mentioned, will be subserved and promoted by its incorporation as a city of the sixth (6th) class.

Fifth—That there is attached to said petition an affidavit of three (3) qualified electors verifying that the said petition has, and bears the required number of signatures of qualified electors.

Sixth—That notice is hereby given that said petition will be presented to, and filed with the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County, State of California, on Monday, November 6, 1905.

Wherefore, your petitioners pray this Honorable Board that that portion of Los Angeles County, State of California, lying within the boundaries hereinbefore described, may be incorporated as a municipal corporation of the sixth (6th) class under the name and style of the City of Wilmington, under and by virtue of the provisions of an act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled, "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of Municipal Corporation." Approved March 13, 1883, and the acts amendatory and supplemental thereto.

In witness whereof, the undersigned qualified electors of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, have affixed their names and signatures hereto.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that the foregoing petition will be presented to and filed with the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, at a regular meeting of such board to be held at the Courthouse in the city of Los Angeles, in said county, on Monday, November 6th, 1905, at 10 o'clock a.m. of that day.

Notice to Contractors.

GLOBE (Ariz.) Oct. 14, 1905.

Estimates are invited till November 1st, 1905, for the construction of a courthouse and jail at Globe, Arizona; drawings and specifications now on file at the office of W. D. Fisk, County Recorder, and at the office of W. R. Norton, architect, Phoenix and Globe, Arizona.

All estimates to be as a whole, or in segregated parts as follows:

Carpenter work, embodying mill work, all woodwork, hardware and glazing, stone work, brick work, plastering and concrete work, painting, all plumbing, embodying heating and electric wiring, tin and galvanized iron work, and all structural iron work.

The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

W. D. FISK, Clerk.

Notice is hereby given that three $1000—5 per cent. bonds of the Pacific Electric Railway Company of Los Angeles, Nos. 3808, 4471 and 6491, have been lost or stolen. All persons are cautioned against purchasing or negotiating the same. Information or return of bonds will be suitably rewarded by the undersigned who is the owner.

Bidding was quite active on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday, and widely distributed, but trading was confined almost entirely to Associated Oil.

Transactions in this security were 23,000 shares which sold at 53 to 53¼, showing a still declining market. The stock closed at 53¼ and may go lower today.

Fullerton Oil, Mexican Petroleum and Olinda Land declined, Union gaining 1 point, closing at 124 without offerings.

Hecla Mining gained ¼, and Searchlight lost 2 points.

Bank stocks were in keen demand, and several of them were in a strongly rising market. Five shares of Los Angeles were sold at 220; Central gained 20 points, Farmers' and Merchants' 1, National Bank of California 5, while German-American lost a point.

Associated Oil bonds lost ½. Los Angeles Home Telephones gained ¼, but the first refunding bonds went down 2¼; Pacific Electric Railways lost 1¼, and Pacific Light and Power 2¾.

Los Angeles Home Telephone stock, preferred, went off ¼, while the common gained a point.

The $15,000 5 per cent. 5-year average school bonds of San Pedro have been awarded to the Oakland Savings Bank at 105.75.

Application has been made for a charter for the First National Bank of Lindsay, Cal.; capital $25,000.

HOME TRUST DISSOLVES—The Home Trust Company was dissolved yesterday afternoon, its usefulness having ceased with the new issue of Home Telephone stock. The Home Trust certificates will be exchanged for preferred stock of the Home Telephone Co.

THE MONEY MARKET. Money is easy with no change in rate.

Time money, 60 to 90 days, 6 per cent.; from 4 to 6 months, 6 per cent.

Commercial paper, 60 to 90 days, indorsed bills, 7 per cent.

MITCHELL MINING—It is stated that one of the causes for the recent strength of the Mitchell Mining Co. stock on the curb is the fact that negotiations are in progress for the construction of a railroad from the mines of the company at Acapulco, one of the harbors on the Pacific Coast of Mexico. Although the Mitchell Mining Co. has in its treasury about $700,000 at par of its $5,000,000 capitalization, it is understood that the financing of the railroad will be done without the use of their stock. The Mitchell Co. also holds all of the $2,000,000 capital stock of the La Dicha and Pacific Railroad, which has valuable concessions from the Mexican government. By disposing of a majority of this stock, and placing with a syndicate a block of bonds secured by the road, as built, the deal will, it is stated, be financed. Besides the mine tonnage, the new road will open up a large timber tract and may ultimately be extended further into the interior.—[Wall Street Summary.

A WAVE OF PROSPERITY—In his weekly financial review Henry Clews says:

"There has been a tremendous drain upon our monetary resources during the last year or two for legitimate purposes, which is likely to continue for some time to come. Some measure of this is illustrated in the revival of new enterprises. For instance, since January 1 the new incorporations recorded in the Eastern States have amounted to $1,382,000,000, compared with $806,000,000 the same time last year. A wave of prosperity begets a wave of extravagance, which in turn begets a wave of speculation, resulting in a wave of high prices, which finally produces a wave of increased rates for money. * * * As a matter of fact, the scarcest thing to be found anywhere in this country at the present time seems to be poverty, as there is plenty of work at high wages for willing hands. The railroads are doing well; the shops are all doing well; labor is doing well, and people everywhere are living well, and the only exception to this reign of prosperity is the life insurance companies. A large portion of the funds going West will no doubt remain there, and the interior banks will find such active employment for their balances as to prevent their return to the East during the dull season. A succession of good crops is making the interior exceedingly prosperous, so that conditions there are very favorable for the promotion of all sorts of schemes and enterprises—some of them of questionable character, and all of them likely to lock up more money than usual in that section. In addition to these requirements government and municipal enterprises of various kinds are likely to make themselves felt in the money market, so there is little or no immediate prospect of an abatement in the demand."

LUMBER MARKET.

PRICES CURRENT. Pine in the rough, ranging from 18.00 to 24.00 according to size. Rough uppers, 35.00 to 48.00; worked uppers, (flooring)33.50 to 37.00; stoping, 42.00; rustic, $35.00; ceiling 28.00 to 37.00; laths, carload lots, $3.50; less than carload lots, 4.00; Cl. O. In estimates on large lots these prices are somewhat reduced.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Stocks were in fairly good request in the produce market yesterday. Heavy receipts of fruit arrived, notably grapes, and a weak tendency developed.

Fresh ranch eggs were steady at 37 to 38 cents, with scarcity in receipts and an active demand.

Creamery butter also found ready sale at 65 to 67½ cents, with stocks well cleaned up. Two cars of bananas arrived, and stocks were firm at 5 cents.

A shipment of fancy grapefruit also came in of the Triumph variety, and met an active buying interest at 1.75 to 2.00.

Muscat grapes were jobbing at 75 to 90 cents, Cornichons 1.25, Tokays 1.25 to 1.35, Isabellas 1.75.

A car of Colorado apples of the Winesap and Grimes Golden varieties came in, and stocks were in good request at 2.50 in 50-lb. boxes.

Northern peaches were firmer at 1.15 to 1.35, locals jobbing at 85 to 1.00.

There was little activity in plums, French prunes jobbing at 1.00.

Strawberries were in stronger undertone, Gardenas jobbing at 7 cents and Tropicos 8.

Cantaloupes were unchanged and watermelons weak and irregular.

Celery was somewhat improved, jobbing at 20 to 30 cents, but the vegetable market was otherwise unchanged.

Fish were in good supply, lobsters plenty.

Some wild ducks and jackrabbits arrived.

Poultry receipts were light and the market tended upward. Light-weight stock was scarce and prices advanced a cent. Young broilers were 16 cents, heavy roosters 14 cents, hens 13, ducks and geese 11.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Dealings in stocks expanded today, and the market broadened out into greater animation and strength than for a long time past, the sales for the day rising to a total of 930,700 shares. The demonstration was in the nature of a celebration of the distinct relaxation of money conditions, and was to a very large extent in the hands of the professional element. Commission houses continued to complain of small business. The celebration took on a rather riotous form during the progress of a series of sky-rocket movements in a miscellaneous assortment of specialties, many of which do not appear on the tap for months at a time. Practically every stock of this class listed on the exchange was brought into the movement at one time or another. The choice of these stocks, the majority of which are non-dividend payers and all of them selling at low prices, was based on the argument that evident paying railroad stocks require a larger amount of capital to carry them on margin, thus increasing the burden of speculation during a period of high-money rates. But this did not discourage the continued attention to a class of gilt-edge and high-priced railroad stocks, owing to the great facility with which wide price movements can be produced in these stocks, of which the floating market supply is always very small. The consequence is that prices may be bid up in such cases by points or even by five and ten-point intervals without bringing any offerings where an advance of ⅛ or ¼ in an active market leader would necessitate the absorption of thousands of shares in order to hold the advance. The rather incongruous spectacle was presented, therefore, of coincident movements in Standard Rope and Twine, Tinning, American Grass Twine, American Hide and Leather and stocks of a like class valued from $1 to $10 a share and of high-priced railroad stocks selling from $200 to over $400 a share, while the body of the list of standard railroad stocks remained comparatively impassive. The usual active railroad stocks averaged a gain of about a point, however, the advance occurring mostly after the movement in the specialties had proceeded for some time, and being prompted apparently by a realization on the part of the conductors of the movement, of the incongruity of the laggardness of the standard stocks. The close attention to the money situation was evident in the prompt response in the market to the publication of the preliminary estimate of the week's currency movement, which was quickly followed by the great spurt of activity for the day. The figures pointed to a small addition on account of the regular express movement with the interior to the large gain of cash by the banks yielded by the sub-treasury operations, which had contributed to the banks up to Thursday evening $4,457,000. The addition of the regular currency movement promised to bring the total gain in cash up to about $5,000,000. Discounts were shaded at all three of the great money centers abroad, and speculative sentiment was inclined to lead to the conclusion that the strain of the October settlements being over an early return of easy money was to be looked for. The only unfavorable factor in the day's money market was the continued aggressive advance of sterling exchange in this market. The announcement of the final payment of $2,000,000 for the purchase of the friar lands in the Philippines, which called for the remittance of that sum from New York, may help to explain the persistent strength this week in the exchange market. The common supposition, however, points to the remittance of Japanese funds on deposit here as the prime factor in exchange. The high tide of the market's activity was not maintained, and last prices were not at all the best, but the closing tone was strong. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,770,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on call.

STATE OF TRADE.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Dun's Weekly Review of Trade will say that activity broadens in commercial channels, and confidence expands because of the many evidences of conservatism. Business is brisk and improving, yet there is no disposition to start a boom, either in commodities or securities. Current retail trade is not equaling expectations, but this is attributed to mild autumn weather, and preparations for the future are undiminished. Statistics of foreign trade eclipsed all September records last month, which was particularly gratifying in view of the fact that a loss of over $11,000,000 in exports of cotton had to be made up elsewhere. Manufacturers have secured deliveries of enough packer hides during the winter months to reduce activity somewhat, but there is no weakness, owing to the limited offerings. Failures this week numbered 232 in the United States against 215 last year, and 28 in Canada, compared with 29 a year ago.

Bradstreet's Review.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say that trade reports are rather more irregular, but industry is still at high tension. Colder weather now advancing is reported stimulating retail trade and influences re-order business with jobbers. Car shortages are becoming more acute, the Pacific Coast now feeling their influence, and grain, lumber, coal, coke and ore shipments are delayed thereby. The price situation is strong as a whole, though weakness, as in sugar, corn, hog products and raw silk and quiet in other lines of materials, point to demand having been satisfied. Nothing of this sort is, however, indicated in hides. Wool is quiet as a whole. Business failures in the United States for the week ending October 19, number 179, against 183 last week; 227 in the like week of 1904; 216 in 1903; 194 in 1902; and 223 in 1901. In Canada, failures for the week number 31, as against 21 last week, and 29 in this week a year ago. Wheat, including flour, exports for the week ending October 19, are 2,831,482 bushels, against 2,774,462 last week; 1,064,628 in this week last year; 4,285,028 in 1903, and 7,061,125 in 1902. From July 1 to date, the exports are 22,785,319 bushels, against 20,972,248 last year, and 83,826,217 in 1902.

Bank Clearings.

GENERAL EASTERN MARKETS.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Strength in the wheat pit developed after the market had experienced considerable decline as a result of free selling by numerous commission houses. The market appeared to be governed almost exclusively by the maneuvers of a prominent long, little attention seemingly being paid to the news of the day. At the opening December was unchanged to ⅛ higher, at 86¼@86⅜. Sentiment in the pit was bearish owing to the general impression credited to the leading bull, with fairly large sales through commission houses. This view of the situation caused free selling by pit traders. For a time no special demand was in evidence, and in consequence prices declined, December dropping to 85⅞. The leader of the bulls seemed then to change front and give the market open support. This resulted in a scramble among shorts, who strenuously sought to cover. At the same time offerings became exceedingly light. A quick advance in prices followed, December selling up to 86¾. Bullish advices from the Southwest helped to maintain a firm undertone throughout the remainder of the session. The market closed with December ⅝ up, at 86¾. Strength of wheat had a bullish effect on the corn market and a strong close, final quotations being at 44¼@44⅜ for December, about unchanged from yesterday. The oats market was exceedingly quiet and steady. December closed unchanged, at 29¾. The feature of the trading in provisions was active selling by a local packing company, as a result of which the market became quite weak. At the close January pork was off 7½, lard was down 5 cents, and ribs were 2½@5 cents lower.

The leading futures closed as follows:

FRUIT, GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A quiet feeling pervaded the market for fruits today, the general trading being of small jobbing character, with prices easy. The weakness in table grapes was most pronounced and there was marked pressure to urge sales by shading values. Tokays, which made up the bulk of the day's receipts, were extremely weak, and feebly offered at low rates. High-quality muscats were fairly steady, under light holdings, but common grades were abundant and cheap. Peaches in scant supply, were held at slightly firmer rates. Melons were abundant and cheap. Trade in citrus fruits was of small volume. More new crop navels arrived from Placer county, but were too green to invite custom. Fresh consignments of limes arrived, and the market was easier in tone. Lemons are plentiful at old prices. Values for grapefruit took a wider range, fancy new crop stock being held up to 4.00 a box. Salinas potatoes continued in sharp request, and under light supplies of fancy the market ruled strongly in favor of sellers. There was no improvement in the market for river kinds. Sweet potatoes are in free supply and cheaper. Onions ruled firm, as high as 1.00 being demanded for best-quality grades. There was a marked falling-off in arrivals of most of the miscellaneous vegetables, and under active call, higher prices obtained for first-quality offerings of tomatoes, summer squash, cucumbers, peppers and beans. The general market closed in good shape for sellers, at hardened rates.
